which marks the Hellenistic conquest of Palestine and 200 CE the date usually assigned to the close of the mishnaic period and the early Roman Empire Thereby she includes names from literary sources as well as those found in epigraphic and papyrological documents Tal Ilan discusses the provenance of the names and explains them etymologically given the many possible sources of influence for the names at that time In addition she shows the division between the use of biblical names and the use of Greek and other foreign names She analyzes the identity of the persons and the choice of name and points out the most popular names at the time The lexicon is accompanied by a lengthy and comprehensive introduction that scrutinizes the main trends in name giving current at the time Book Jacket

Introductory Guide to Middle Eastern and Islamic Bibliography Paul Auchterlonie,1990 The Names of God in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Máire Byrne,2011-07-07 This book offers a welcome solution to the growing need for a common language in interfaith dialogue particularly between the three Abrahamic faiths in our modern pluralistic society The book suggests that the names given to God in the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur an could be the very foundations and building blocks for a common language between the Jewish Christian and Islamic faiths On both a formal interfaith level as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology Maire Byrne shows that the titles names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue Shari'a Scripts Brinkley Messick,2018-01-02 A case study in the textual architecture of the venerable legal and ethical tradition at the center of the Islamic experience Shar a Scripts is a work of historical anthropology focused on Yemen in the early twentieth century There while colonial regimes late Ottoman reformers and early nationalists wrought decisive changes to the legal status of the shar a significantly narrowing its sphere of relevance the Zayd school of jurisprudence rooted in highland Yemen for a millennium still held sway Brinkley Messick uses the richly varied writings of the Yemeni past to offer a uniquely comprehensive view of the shar a as a localized and lived phenomenon Shar a Scripts reads a wide spectrum of sources in search of a new historical anthropological perspective on Islamic textual relations Messick analyzes the shar a as a local system of texts distinguishing between theoretical or doctrinal juridical texts or the library and those produced by the shar a courts and notarial writers termed the archive Attending to textual form he closely examines representative books of madrasa instruction formal opinion giving by muftis and imams the structure of court judgments and the drafting of contracts Messick s intensive readings of texts are supplemented by retrospective ethnography and oral history based on extensive field research Further the book ventures a major methodological contribution by confronting anthropology s longstanding reliance upon the observational and the colloquial Presenting a new understanding of Islamic legal history Shar a Scripts is a groundbreaking examination of the interpretative range and historical insights offered by the anthropologist as reader Understanding Islam Imran Mogra, 2020-03-10 Misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islam and fear of causing offence can be barriers to being an effective teacher in a diverse school This book aims to give non Muslim teachers the confidence to engage meaningfully with important facets of Muslim pupils lives leading to a richer and more rewarding experience in the classroom Aspects of Islam explored include the foundations and obligations of faith ethical dimensions placed upon Muslims the importance of education in Muslim communities and contemporary issues faced by communities in the UK To deepen your understanding each chapter is enriched by case studies linked to the classroom expert voices that offer authenticity and reflective tasks that encourage you to consider key concepts in greater depth This is essential reading for new and experienced teachers in primary and secondary schools wishing to deepen their knowledge of Islam The Woman Question in Islamic Studies

Kecia Ali, 2024-09-17 The interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies and how to shift professional norms toward parity Despite remarkable shifts in the demographics of Islamic studies in recent decades the field continues to be dominated by men who often relegate other scholars and their work particularly research on gender to its periphery while treating subfields in which men predominate as more rigorous and central In The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali explores the interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies Examining publications citations curricula and media representations Ali finds that despite the growth and depth of scholarship on Islam and gender men continue to overlook women s scholarship even in work that purports to discuss gender issues Moreover media and social media dynamics make talking about Islam and Muslims for broader audiences especially fraught for scholars who are not men particularly when the topic is gender or sexuality Combining broad surveys with more focused analyses of a smaller set of texts Ali shows that textbooks and syllabi continue to exclude women as historical actors and scholars and to marginalize gender and sexuality as subject matter Finally she provides a Beginner s Guide to Eradicating Sexism in Islamic Studies offering practical strategies to help scholars avoid common pitfalls in their own work and contribute to broader professional transformations The Classical Age of Islam

Marshall G.S. Hodgson, 2009-05-15 The Venture of Islam has been honored as a magisterial work of the mind since its publication in early 1975 In this three volume study illustrated with charts and maps Hodgson traces and interprets the historical development of Islamic civilization from before the birth of Muhammad to the middle of the twentieth century This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago This is a nonpareil work not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how ideally history should be written The New Yorker Volume 1 The Classical Age of Islam analyzes the world before Islam Muhammad s challenge and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692 Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High Caliphate The volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith who as Hodgson s colleague and friend finished the Venture of Islam after the author s death and saw it through to publication Introduction to the History of the Muslim East Jean Sauvaget,1965 Jean Sauvaget's Introduction to the History of the Muslim East Jean Sauvaget,Claude Cahen,2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1965 Psychological Themes in Classical Islamic Literature: Hooman Keshavarzi,Khalid Elzamzamy,Bilal Ali Ansari,Aamir Azhar Zaidi,2025-04-17 Are you curious about the contributions of the Islamic intellectual heritage to the field of psychology Psychological Themes in the Classical Islamic Literature provides a captivating window into the rich Islamic scholarly tradition as it pertains specifically to human psychology This book brings together carefully selected translated and annotated segments from classical Islamic texts that address enduring questions in psychology Explore topics like the admissibility and validity of diverse sources of knowledge the nature of the human psyche and human drives the mind body problem nature versus nurture dreams emotions psychological resilience and well being Discover how Islamic scholars tackled these profound issues generations before their Euro American counterparts offering a unique and sophisticated perspective that can enrich modern psychological discourse Whether a student scholar or practitioner this book is your gateway to appreciating psychology in Islam Tourism in the Muslim World Noel Scott,2010-10-28 Provides a synthesis of thought on an influential issue for tourism and a point of focus for tourism researchers managers and developers in countries such as the United Arab Emirates Jordan Egypt Maldives and Turkey as well as the Western world Is Islamic Banking Good for Growth? Patrick A. Imam,Mr.Kangni Kpodar,2015-04-28 The rapid growth of Islamic banking has attracted much attention lately in the economic literature At the same time a mature body of the literature has shown that financial development is broadly conducive to economic growth which raises the question as to whether a similar conclusion holds for Islamic banking Against this backdrop this paper investigates the relationship between Islamic banking development and economic growth in a sample of low and middle income countries using data over the period 1990 2010 The results show that notwithstanding its relatively small size compared to the economy and the overall size of the financial system Islamic banking is positively associated with economic growth even after controlling for various determinants including the level of financial depth The results are robust across across different specifications sample composition and time periods Ethics in Islam Nuha Al-Shaar,2014-12-05 Offering a new reading of Islamic ethical and political thought in the B yid period 334 440 946 1048 this book focuses particularly on the philosopher Ab Hayy n al Tawh d who lived in Baghdad and what is now western Iran Ethics in Islam provides the first major treatment of al Tawh d s ethics political thought and social idealism investigating the complex influences that shaped this thought and especially his concept of friendship which is analysed in the unique context of B yid society Al Tawh d revives the value of friendship in politics He introduces it as the best way to reform social and political order and as a means to the good life to restrain passion and self interest to bring about cooperation and promote reason and for action in opposition to religious zeal Instead of seeing him as alienated from society supposedly rejecting traditional Muslim beliefs this book places him in his historical and intellectual contexts and shows that while he was original in many ways his outlook was firmly rooted in the Islamic culture in which he was educated Contributing to modern discussions of Islam and political ethics this book is of interest to scholars and researchers of political philosophy comparative ethical thought and Islamic studies A Treasury of Favorite Muslim Names
