Conversations with Orhan Pamuk Erdağ Göknar, Pelin Kıvrak, 2024-01-18 In over thirty interviews conducted between 1982 and 2022 Conversations with Orhan Pamuk reveals a writer of intense literary and political engagement Nobel laureate Orhan Pamuk b 1952 is a foremost practitioner of the global novel today His books have been translated into over sixty languages and sold over fifteen million copies globally The interviews in this volume open windows onto Pamuk s everyday life craft and process constituting an alternative literary history that provides insights into the novelist s influences method form and content These conversations reveal that a Pamuk novel is predicated on methodical research at times archival and scholarly investigative and journalistic or ethnographic They are necessarily instructive and edifying as much as they are entertaining providing a discursive space of literary history where writing politics and the everyday intersect and where the politics of literature can be located The different aspects of islamic culture Ahmad, Maqbul, Al-Hassan, Ahmad Youssef, Iskandar, Albert Z., UNESCO, 2002-12-31 Part II deals with agricultural science alchemy chemistry and chemical technology mining and metallurgy military technology textiles and manufacturing industries mechanical technology civil engineering navigation and ship building medicine and pharmacy Historians of Islamic science tend to limit their studies to the period up to the 16th century but Part II of this volume also deals with the continuation of science and technology in the Ottoman Empire India and Iran Greece and the Balkans Dimitris Tziovas, 2017-07-05 Greece and the Balkans explores the cultural relationships between Greece and other Balkan countries in the domains of language literature thought translation and music and examines issues of identity and perception among the Balkan peoples themselves. The essays bring together scholars from across a range of disciplines historians anthropologists linguists and musicologists with specialists on literature translation the history of ideas and religion By raising issues of cultural hybridity and nationalist or pre nationalist interpretations of culture and history it lays claim to a place in the context of studies on nationalism and post colonialism Greece and the Balkans also contributes to a recognition of the Balkans as a site like some postcolonial ones where identities have become fused orientalism and eurocentrism blurred and where religion and modernity clashed and co existed By approaching cultural encounters between Greece and the Balkans from a fresh and informed perspective it makes a substantial contribution to the study of a rather neglected aspect in the history of a region which has suffered in the past from narrow minded nationalistic arguments Fodor's Turkey Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc. Bureau of the Census, 1962 Reading the Fantastic Imagination Dana Percec, 2014-06-26 The purpose of Reading the Fantastic Imagination The Avatars of a Literary Genre is the observation of the very hybridity of the fantastic genre as a typical postmodern form The volume continues an older project of the editor and a large number of the contributors that of investigating the current status of several popular genres from historical fiction to romance The scrutiny continues in this third volume dedicated to the fantastic imagination and the plethora of themes moods media and formats deriving from it FanLit is surely trendy even if it is not highbrow despite its noble ancestry This apparent paradox characterizes many of the literary genres en vogue today from historical fiction to romance This very contradiction forms part of the basis for this book After the success of the previous book in the series dedicated to a borderline literary genre Romance The History of a Genre was declared by Cambridge Scholars Publishing as the Critics Choice Book of the Month in January 2013 this collection of studies about the fantastic imagination takes a further step into completing a larger research project which seeks to investigate the varieties of popular fiction Although all contributors in the series teach canonical literary texts they did not he sitate to plunge into the opposite area of fictional work and moreover continued doing so even though such a project caused the raise of a few high brows Percec 2012 232 as argued in the Endnote of Romance The History of a Genre The Practice of Foreign Language Teaching Azamat Akbarov, 2015-10-05 The Practice of Foreign Language Teaching Theories and Applications is a collection of essays which will appeal to teachers of modern languages no matter the level of instruction The volume analyzes the concepts of foreign language education and multicultural competence including the notion of the intercultural speaker It also discusses the ways in which language education policy develops by comparing the theories and purposes of foreign language education The essays collected here highlight the various different methods and approaches in language teaching and introduce more experienced teachers to new approaches and teaching ideas The book will also provide language instructors with the theoretical background and practical solutions they need to decide which approaches materials and resources can and should be used in their L2 classrooms
