The Taliban United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations,2001      Crisis Management and the Politics of Reconciliation in Somalia Mohamed Abdel Rahim Mohamed Salih,Lennart Wohlgemuth,1994      A Concise History of Afghanistan in 25 Volumes Hamid Wahed Alikuzai,2013-10 For 35 000 years ancient Afghanistan was called Aryana the Light of God has existed Then in 747 AD what is today called Afghanistan became Khorasan which means Sunrise in Dari which was a much larger geographical area In the middle of the nineteenth century the name Afghanistan which means home of the united tribes was applied originally by the Saxons present day British and the Russians During the Great Games in the middle of nineteenth century the Durand Line was created in 1893 and was in place until 1993 Saxons created the state of Afghanistan out of a geographical area roughly the size of Texas in 1893 before which there were 10 million square kilometers larger than the size of Canada as means to act as a buffer zone between the Saxon India Tsarist Russia and the Chinese      International Peacekeeping Boris Kondoch,2017-05-15 Peacekeeping has been the technique most frequently used by and associated with the United Nations to end conflicts and to preserve peace In addition international and regional organizations have also performed peacekeeping functions Since the establishment of the first UN peacekeeping mission UNEF I in 1956 international lawyers have raised questions about the legal aspects of these operations Traditionally they analyzed the constitutional basis for peacekeeping and tried to allocate the authority under the UN Charter for peacekeeping among the Security Council the General Assembly and the Secretary General They discussed the use of force by peacekeepers the applicability of international humanitarian law as well as the responsibilities and liabilities of peacekeepers Since the end of the cold war peacekeeping operations have become more complex In the first forty years peacekeepers functioned mainly as buffer zones between warring parties and monitored cease fires Nowadays they are increasingly engaged in internal rather than international conflicts and perform a multitude of tasks Among others they act as civilian administrators oversee elections and monitor human rights These changes have raised new legal problems Which human rights obligations exist for peacekeepers Do peacekeepers have to intervene if they witness war crimes and acts of genocide How are they protected under international law What is the legal framework of UN administrations like in Kosovo and East Timor In order to enhance a better understanding of these legal issues arising from peacekeeping operations a collection of articles written by the leading experts in the field have been compiled in the volume International Peacekeeping

Conflict Resolution: Peace Implementation in New Wars Melanie Flowers,2010-05-26 Mel Flowers Conflict Resolution Peace Implementation in New Wars offers an assessment of the phase immediately following the signing of a peace agreement It contributes knowledge to the understanding of the challenges to peace processes during peace implementation and identifies factors that are decisive or necessary for a successful peace implementation in the context of a new war The author argues that a high quality of the peace agreement and high international interest and commitment are critical for implementing a peace accord in a difficult conflict environment The dynamics of the Liberian civil wars 1989 1996 and 1999 2003 illustrate the subject matter

The Burden of Collective Goodwill Abiodun Alao, 2017-07-05 The book is the first to discuss in detail the extensive external involvement in the Liberian civil war a war that claimed up to 200 000 lives created a massive refugee crisis and brought West Africa to the tribunal of international attention The book is conceived against the background that the international response to the conflict has features that are unprecedented in the management of civil conflicts in the post cold war era For example the regional peacekeeping mission was the first after the end of the cold war while the dispatch of UN Observer mission was the first ever joint peacekeeping mission between the UN and a regional organisation The extensive involvement of international organisations in the conflict has not been witnessed in the region since the Biafran war of 1967 1970

Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general

Zones of Conflict in Africa George Klay Kieh Jr., Ida Rousseau Mukenge, 2002-03-30 Torn by ongoing civil and military violence Africa presents a challenge to scholars interested in the root causes of conflict Each conflict is unique but overall they exhibit common patterns The contributors of this book employ an eclectic array of current explanations of civil strife and how to resolve it The first half of the book provides the relevant theoretical background Theories of conflict and conflict resolution the larger context of African strife in Africa and patterns and trends of conflict are discussed Shifting from the general to the particular the remaining chapters of this volume gauge the accuracy and usefulness of the current thinking on conflicts by grounding it in case studies drawn from the Great Lakes Region Liberia Nigeria and Zambia

George A. Rawlyk, 1994 G A Rawlyk examines the remarkable growth and evolution of radical evangelicalism in British North America from the American Revolution to the War of 1812 He argues that radical evangelicalism was the leading edge of Protestantism and was more democratic and populist than contemporary evangelicalism in the United States

Islam and Bosnia Maya Shatzmiller, 2002-05-15 Islam and Bosnia re examines the conflict of the 1990s from the perspectives of international relations conflict resolution and history as well as psychology anthropology and cultural studies Rejecting the primordialist or ancient hatreds interpretation as the root of the conflict the authors detail how a complex cultural transformation led to the erosion of what had been the common inclusionist base of a multi ethnic state and brought about a new exclusionist nationalism By pulling together the individual elements of culture society and foreign policy and analysing their interaction Islam and Bosnia demonstrates how the secular romantic nationalism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries centred on history language and landscape was overthrown in favour of one that highlighted religion race and territory Islam and Bosnia shows how the Bosnian conflict bears on the wider contexts of cultural paradigms deadly conflicts and the formulation of foreign policy It argues for a new perspective in foreign policy making one that would embrace and incorporate better and deeper knowledge and understanding of culture history and ideology Contributors include Tone Bringa University of Bergen Amila Buturovic York University John V A Fine University of Michigan Peter W Galbraith former U S ambassador to Croatia Graham N Green former Canadian ambassador to Croatia Nader Hashemi Ph D candidate University of Toronto John M Reid information commissioner for Canada Andr s Riedlmayer Harvard University Michael A Sells Haverford College Donald W Smith former Canadian ambassador to Croatia and Vamik D Volkan University of Virginia

International Statebuilding in West Africa Abu Bakarr Bah, Nikolas Emmanuel, 2024-08-06 At the turn of the twenty first century manipulation of the democratic process coupled with preexisting political and economic grievances led to years long civil wars in Sierra Leone Liberia and C te d Ivoire During and after these conflicts international peacekeeping efforts and humanitarian intervention became the dominant paths for restoring stability by rebuilding the state Using these three countries as case studies this manuscript sheds light on internationally driven state building in war torn West African nations the problematic nature of the postcolonial state and the difficulties of securing its people s wellbeing Connecting peace and conflict democracy and international development studies Bah and Emmanuel argue that there is a clear nexus between the concepts and practices of peace building and statebuilding that peace building and statebuilding are not domestic matters alone but also matters of global intervention and that civil wars can be viewed as opportunities for state building through creative postwar partnerships and organization This study goes beyond the familiar concepts of failed states R2P peacekeeping and peace mediation and introduces and enhances the concepts of state decay new humanitarianism people centered liberalism and institutional design In doing so it provides critical lessons that local and international actors can draw on as they try to figure out practical solutions to the political economic and social problems that impede the development of peaceful and democratic multiethnic postcolonial states in Africa and beyond Applying comparative historical methods and theory to archival materials and expert interviews International Statebuilding in West Africa seeks to shift the discourse on civil wars from their causes and implications to the opportunities they provide to rework failed states and to shift the discourse on African states from their colonial and neocolonial legacies to their shared moral and security interests with the rest of the world Xcp ,2003 Weak States in Africa United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on African Affairs,2002 Warriors in Peacekeeping Jean Callaghan,George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies,2004 This book makes an extraordinary contribution to broadening and deepening the understanding of the complex range of relationships in modern peacekeeping operations Topics include interactions between national contingents and their respective chains of command and their relations with other contingents in the field as well as with regional authorities scores of NGOs and the media The contributors findings help to identify points of tension in peacekeeping operations in Bosnia Herzegovina where for the first time contingents from more than 35 countries had to cooperate each of which had their own quite different constitutional legal cultural social and economic preconditions Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin ,1996 Military Intelligence ,1996 Regional Security Rodrigo Tavares,2009-12-16 This book is the first systematic study of the capacities of the most recognized intergovernmental organizations with a security mandate United States Policy Toward the Former Yugoslavia United States.
