past history would attract the attention and win to the perusal of the chronicles of our Revolution many who could not be otherwise decoyed into the apparently arid and flowerless domains of mere history I accordingly determined to make the record of the tour to the important localities of the Revolution a leading feature in the work Here another difficulty was encountered So widely scattered are those localities and so simultaneous were many of the events that a connected narrative of the journey must necessarily break up the chronological unity of the history and at times produce some confusion To give incidents of the journey and sketches and descriptions of the scenery and relics as they appear at present in fragmentary notes would deny to the work the charm of a book of travel and thus almost wholly remove the prime object in view in giving such narrative The apparently less objectionable course was chosen and the history was broken into fragments arranged in the exhibition in accordance with the order in which each locality was visited the fragments individualized as much as possible yet always maintaining a tie of visible relationship with the whole The apparent difficulties in the way of the student which this plan suggests are removed by the aid of a complete Analytical Index at the close of the work while the narrative of the tour remains unbroken except by the continually recurring appendices of history How far this arrangement shall accomplish the desired result the candid judgment of the reader must determine

The Poetical Works of Robert Browning with Portraits in Two Volumes Robert Browning, 1899 The Eclectic review. vol. 1-New [8th] ,1847

Memoirs of the Late War, Vol.1 (of 2) John Cooke, Example in this ebook CHAPTER I On the 24th of January 1805 I made my d but on the parade as ensign in the first West York powdered and equipped in full uniform with an artificial tail of considerable length tied round my neck a cocked hat square to the front and a sword five inches shorter than the regulation made in proportion to my height being only four feet eleven inches and within one month of attaining my fourteenth year My diminutive figure soon attracted the attention of the leading company of the regiment composed of gigantic Yorkshire grenadiers and excited so much merriment among them and so encreased my previous confusion that my eyes became dim and my feet seemed scarcely to touch the ground However some kind expressions from the officers who came forward and surrounded me and their gay appearance soon dispelled my inquietude A short time proved sufficient to instruct me in the duties required and the varied amusements caused the early months of my career to glide rapidly on Our uniform was plain faced with green but suddenly altered owing to an officer of expensive habits who ordered a new coat to be made and covered with a profusion of gold lace in which he appeared at the mess table and so captivated his companions by his rich display that a unanimous burst of admiration broke forth Although the lieutenant colonel was as much averse from any thing of the sort as it was possible for any one to be the new pattern was carried by acclamation and a tacit consent wrung from the commanding officer intermixed with his hearty execrations Frequently after the alteration he used to wear his old coat at the mess table by way of a treat when to his extreme mortification the very officer who caused the change would throw out hints about officers being unregimentally dressed Such was the ingenuity of this individual that on being refused leave of absence he waited personally on a general and afterwards declared that he had represented the necessity of his appearance at home in such moving words that he not only obtained double the time originally asked for but also drew tears of sympathy from the general's eyes In the early part of the summer General Sir John Moore inspected us on our parade ground and was pleased to pass his high encomiums on the very fine appearance and steadiness of the men while under arms Indeed the militia at large were equal to the line² in the execution of their evolutions and discipline and were well adapted for the defence of their native shores at this epoch threatened with invasion by the French Had their services been required to repel such an aggression led on by experienced generals without doubt they would have proved themselves equal to cope with any troops in the world and those who had an opportunity of judging at that time will I am confident fully coincide with me and join in just admiration at the high state of perfection that national force had been brought to During the summer the troops in the numerous towns and camps in Kent were reviewed Our brigade left Ashford and joined two battalions of the rifle corps 95th³ at Bradbourne Lees and manuvred before the Duke of York The 43rd and 52nd light infantry regiments were organised under the immediate superintendence of Sir John Moore⁴ assisted by Major General McKenzie at Hythe and Shorncliff camp in the most exemplary manner Those corps were indeed the admiration of all for their discipline and the rapidity of their light movements all of which being executed on the moveable pivot by divisions or sections formed columns squares lines and echelon without a halt by merely marking time To be continue in this ebook 180 Masterpieces You Should Read Before You Die \(Vol.2\) Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Stendhal, Jules Verne, Gustave Flaubert, Theodor Storm, Henrik Ibsen, Charles Dickens, Honoré de Balzac, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Rabindranath Tagore, Fyodor Dostoyevsky, James Fenimore Cooper, Edgar Allan Poe, John Buchan, Confucius, George MacDonald, Bram Stoker, Henry James, Victor Hugo, Joseph Conrad, Jane Austen, Walter Scott, Laurence Sterne, Thomas Hardy, Jonathan Swift, Edith Wharton, Benito Pérez Galdós, Daniel Defoe, Henry Fielding, Sinclair Lewis, Anthony Trollope, Alexandre Dumas, William Dean Howells, Virginia Woolf, William Walker Atkinson, Kenneth Grahame, Washington Irving, Willa Cather, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Homer, Gaston Leroux, Ford Madox Ford, Benjamin Franklin, Kate Chopin, John Milton, Edgar Wallace, Laozi, James Joyce, Ann Ward Radcliffe, Kakuzo Okakura, H.
