Media and Culture Richard Campbell, Christopher R. Martin, Bettina Fabos, 2011-02-23 It s no secret today s media landscape is evolving at a fast and furious pace and students are experiencing these developments firsthand While students are familiar with and may be using the latest products and newest formats they may not understand how the media has evolved to this point or what all these changes mean This is where Media and Culture steps in The eighth edition pulls back the curtain and shows students how the media really works giving students the deeper insight and context they need to become informed media critics     Receptor-Oriented Communication for Hui Muslims in China Enoch Jinsik Kim, 2018-04-18 There are many books that highlight the need and importance of mission toward unreached people Unfortunately few of them deal with the importance of understanding the real life of unreached people and how to analyze them This book identifies conceptual issues for the development of receptor oriented communication strategies among young educated urban Hui YEU Hui Muslims in China s northwestern cities in order to achieve culturally relevant churches in those areas It is written to help not only those who are interested in the unreached but also those who are interested in Muslim evangelism urban sociology biblical exegesis contextual church planting communication and mission strategy Enoch Jinsik Kim utilizes a new approach virtual community mission for planting offline churches that integrates the use of local church driven Internet community traditional media and offline task teams from a multi ethnic local church While the research focuses on the Chinese Muslim context the identification of the young urban and educated as a strategic group for mission can be applied in other Muslim and non Muslim contexts This research is useful to cross cultural communicators church planters and all those interested in interpersonal relationships      Media and Culture with 2013 Update Richard Campbell, Christopher R. Martin, Bettina Fabos, 2012-02-20 Today s media landscape is changing faster than ever and students are experiencing these developments firsthand Media Culture pulls back the curtain on the media and shows students what all these new trends and developments really mean giving students the deeper insight and context they need to become informed media critics The 2013 Update also includes the must cover events and trends students need to know to become informed media consumers and critics from social media s influence on political events like the Occupy Wall Street movement and the Arab Spring revolutions and what the News Corp phone hacking scandal means for journalism to the continued growth of television streaming and apps and the advent of tablet only newspapers Read the preface
