Islamization Of Knowledge A Methodology:

Islamization of Knowledge International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT), 1995-01-01 This book represents the perspective of a number of concerned and dedicated Muslim scholars It is a vision which embodies the basic principles of Islamic methodology coupled with an action plan to realize the reconstruction of Muslim thought and the Islamization of the humanities and the social sciences The International Institute of Islamic Thought presents this book to the Muslim ummah as an action plan It is meant as a guide to be adopted thereby to foster the awareness of ummah of its worth and potential of the real causes of its civilizational crisis and of the ways and means to overcome malaise Islamization of Knowledge 'Imād al-Dīn Khalīl, 1991

positivistic philosophical premises and reemploy these sciences within a systematic epistemological framework based on divine revelation conferring honor upon all forms of knowledge as having been bestowed upon man by their Creator

S. Al-Shaikh-Ali, Yusuf Talal DeLorenzo, 2003 Usul Al Fiqh is a science which is deeply embedded in the Islamic experience and one which thanks to its methods and concerns helped generate an empirical trend in Muslim culture in turn benefiting western thinking Itself a creation of influences from within and without Al Usul often called The Philosophy of Islam invites both reason and revelation to work for the harmony and well being of human society Although the science of Al Usul is mainly concerned with legal matters its range and the arsenal of tools it uses makes it attractive to students of Islamic Jurisprudence as well as to other scholars of Islamic Knowledge and culture The difficulties it poses are inevitable This book however attempts to simplify this Most important method of research ever devised by Islamic thought during its most creative period and bring it to the understanding and appreciation of the modern learner while underscoring its importance and relevance to the world of Islam today Training Guide for Islamic Workers Hisham Altalib, 2001-01-01 Now more than ever before Muslim young men and women need to improve not only their personal skills but also their group performance This Guide presents easy to follow instructions which can be used by those who desire to acquire these skills This Guide focuses on the training needs of Muslim young men and women by providing the experience acquired by Muslim leaders over the last several decades Thus the new generation of leaders will be able to start from where their leaders left off rather than having to duplicate their predecessors successes and or failures Using a simple Do s and Don t s format this Guide enables the user to optimize his her understanding of the art and science of da wah and how it can be applied in today s world Like genius leadership entails harder work for the one who was born without this skill It is to such people that this Guide is addressed We are confident that with the help of Allah the user will be able to make a quantum leap forward in the areas of growth and improvement through the proper use of the methods outlined in this Guide Over time there will be noticeable improvements in the areas of concepts management administration and communication as well as the skills needed for conducting camps conferences and meetings This Guide is supplemented by suggested workbooks which will lead to an even deeper understanding of the skills needed for successful leaders American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 6:1 Taha J. al-Alwani, Eric Winkel, Ausaf Ali, Mohammad Kamali, Abdul Haq Ansari, Zawwar Hussain Zaidi, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam American Journal of Islamic Social mainstream orthodox neoclassical or simply Economics with its axioms of rationality scarcity and unlimited wants There is also a critical analysis of Islamic economics and its failures to set its own policy agenda and development objectives Our contention in this book is that Iqtis d the Qur an s vision of how the economy is to be arranged provides such a paradigm with a radically different philosophical foundation from that of Economics to the point that makes grafting one onto the other Impossible Iqtis d offers a genuine and authentic Islamic paradigm with unique etymological and philosophical foundations It is a unique system that derives its organizing principles from the principal source of the Quran rather than Economics The logical coherence of its immutable system of rules compliance institutional structures and risk sharing relations provides the foundations for economic dynamism financial stability and shared prosperity It ensures that resources are efficiently managed poverty is eradicated income and wealth mal distributions are corrected and the internal sources of economic injustices gripping human societies are eliminated The Impossibility Theorem proposed in this book implies that metaphysically ontologically epistemologically axiologically and teleologically the two polar cases of Iqtis d and Economics are so radically different to rule out any grafting of one onto the other in order to present an intermediate paradigm with a synthetic discipline called Islamic economics Given its multidisciplinary contents this book will be of interest to a wide audience including economists policymakers philosophers theologians and jurists and can guide also free thinking readers to a clarity of understanding about the conditions of humanity and the imperative of change with a sincerity of purpose and coherence in knowledge
