Organizational Histories of Nonprofit Human Service Organizations Michael J. Austin, 2013-09-13 This book is based on an important but complicated question How have nonprofit human service organizations sustained themselves over time It documents the organizational histories of pioneering nonprofits that have unique missions and significant longevity in one case 157 years This volume provides one of the few documented histories of nonprofit human service organizations and includes a cross case analysis of the major themes that help to expand our understanding of organizational lifecycles with respect to organizational growth and resilience The major themes appear in the form of clusters of organizations that are exemplars of leadership experiences of either founding or long term executive directors internal operations capacity to respond to changing community needs and external relations capacity to develop unique and or sustained relationships with funding sources and or donor populations These cases also provide students of nonprofit management with opportunities for case based learning that complements the more time limited and episodic teaching cases which rarely provide learners with a longitudinal perspective of nonprofit organizations This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Evidence Based Social Work

Finders Keepers Joydeep Hor, Louise Keats, 2008 How do you find and keep talented staff In the face of a growing skills shortage this is one of the biggest issues facing business and HR managers today In Finders Keepers How To Attract and Retain Great Employees ten Australian businesses tell us the secrets of their success Finders Keepers based on genuine Australian case studies provides practical and legal tips on how to be a great finder and keeper of employees in a tight employment market Learn from companies such as St George Bank Sensis Roche Products KPMG and Integral Energy

Community and Neighbourhood Mediation Marian Liebmann, 1998 Looks at mediation as it can be applied to resolving community and neighbourhood disputes The book covers the history and theory of mediation practices before looking at how these can work in practice by analyzing the mediation process and examining detailed case studies It goes on to look at the organizational structures which allow these processes to be delivered from model structures and services to advice on recruitment and training The book also examines practical issues such as the importance of equal opportunities in community mediation schemes how to maintain standards and get accreditation and how to maintain cost effectiveness

The Changing Face of Volunteering in Hospice and Palliative Care Ros Scott, Steven Howlett, 2018-04-19 Volunteers have a long been involved in supporting the delivery of palliative care Indeed in some countries the range and quality of hospice and palliative care services depends on the involvement of volunteers Hospice and palliative care services and volunteering are changing As society develops so too does volunteering Volunteers have growing expectations of organizations and increasingly seek roles that meet their needs and aspirations rather than fitting in with organizational approaches As hospice and palliative care services experience increasing and changing demands for their services due to aging populations with complex healthcare needs we need to recognize that volunteers have a vital role to play in supporting the delivery of services of the future The Changing Face of Volunteering in Hospice and Palliative Care explores the complex phenomenon that is volunteering in hospice and palliative care in different countries It considers how and why volunteering is changing through the contributions of authors from Western and Eastern Europe North America Australia Africa and India It reflects on the influence of culture and organisational contexts in addition to management approaches legislative and political influences highlighting factors that contribute to the success of volunteering Contributing to knowledge and understanding in the field of volunteering in hospice and palliative care internationally this book highlights the factors that contribute to the success of volunteering models allowing readers to see possibilities for change and find new ideas for innovative practice in their own setting Cases in Innovative Nonprofits Ram A. Cnaan, Diane Vinokur-Kaplan, 2014-12-02 Become an innovator in the nonprofit world Student friendly and readable Cases in Innovative Nonprofits provides readers with current comparative case studies of innovative nonprofit organizations that are meeting the needs of humanity in both the U S and abroad Edited by well known scholars Ram A Cnaan and Diane Vinokur Kaplan this text provides inspiring examples of social entrepreneurs who have instituted new services to meet the needs of both new and long standing social problems Each case features either an unidentified need and its successful response or an existing need that was tackled in a unique and innovative manner The text is purposefully organized into four parts Part 1 Two conceptual chapters give the reader an understanding of what a nonprofit social innovation is and tools to analyze various social innovations in this volume and elsewhere Part 2 Ten cases reveal the innovative formation of new nonprofit organizations Part 3 Three cases emphasize innovation through collaboration Part 4 Five cases demonstrate innovations taking place within an existing nonprofit organization By using a simple identical format for each case this text facilitates student learning through comparative review providing a deeper understanding about the complexity and steps required to achieve nonprofit social innovation The New Form 990 Bruce R. Hopkins, Douglas K. Anning, Virginia C. Gross, Thomas J.

Schenkelberg, 2008-12-17 The New Form 990 covers the law policy and preparation of the new IRS Form 990 It includes summaries of the law underlying each of the parts and questions in the return so that the preparer can understand the background law in formulating answers on the return The subject matter is particularly timely and relevant given the release of the draft Form 990 last summer the expected release of the final Form 990 in early 2008 and the commencement of the first tax year to which the form applies on January 1 2008 Business, Charity and Sentiment Susan Marsden, 2011

Business Charity and Sentiment the fifty year history of the SA Housing Trust was published in 1986 Drawing on contemporary and often contentious records and recollections Susan Marsden carries the Trust's story through the turbulent 25 years that followed a time of profound social environmental political and public sector change Rethinking Asian

Capitalism Thi Anh-Dao Tran, 2022-07-20 This book attempts to reflect on the changes that Vietnam has experienced over the past 30 years during and after Doi Moi Through multi dimensional empirical investigations it aims to offer theoretical and empirical accounts for how a variety of socioeconomic regimes emerged after the end of the Cold War Being methodologically pluralist including both theoretical and empirical studies it aims to give a higher profile to heterodox thinking in comparative political economy Particular attention is given to post socialist governance economic transformation land rights trade led growth civil society participation climate change and the post COVID 19 recovery This book comes at a time when great changes are about to take place in Southeast Asia where heterodox economic development strategy is rather understudied With Asia playing an increasingly important role in the world economy readers wish not only to hear about the economic transformation but also to see certain hidden aspects or original evidence in order that they can perceive the other dimensions put in place in a market oriented economy It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in transitional economics development economics and the political economy Journal - American Health Care
