Schubert's Reputation from His Time to Ours Geoffrey Block, 2024-12-30 The composer Franz Schubert 1797-1828 was not bereft of early advocates from Schumann Liszt and Mahler to Sir George Grove Brahms famously heralded Schubert as the true successor to Beethoven Nevertheless it was not until the end of the twentieth century that Schubert's major instrumental works finally and fully emerged from Beethoven's shadow Critics and scholars began to reinterpret Schubert's departures from Beethoven's formal and stylistic characteristics and to see these departures not as flaws but as strengths and hallmarks of a new paradigm Schubert's alternate constructions of masculine subjectivities first described by Schumann in 1838 parallel a developing appreciation for lyricism melody and song traits historically regarded as feminine Consequently Schubert's approach is increasingly viewed as innovative and divergent rather than defective and deviant Schubert's Reputation from His Time to Ours tells the story of how and why this has happened The Publishers Weekly, 1914

1,000 Recordings to Hear Before You Die Tom Moon, 2008-08-28 A guide to music provides recommendations on one thousand recordings that represent the best in such genres as classical jazz rock pop blues country folk musicals hip hop and opera with listening notes commentary and anecdotes about performers The Musical Idea and the Logic, Technique, and Art of Its Presentation, New Paperback English Edition Arnold Schoenberg, 2006-07-18 Presents one of the most important documents in twentieth century musical thought The New York Times Book Review, 1994 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback BBC Music Magazine, 1997 Leaving for Detroit Roger Cockreham, 2013-02 Leaving for Detroit is a three part novella that takes place in the years 1937 1943 and 1952 The stories are about sexual promiscuity loyalty to friends and ideological differences But in every case there is a common thread that binds the stories together They are stories of survival and the choices that the characters make in order to ensure that survival or the loss of everything the death of someone Death is a common theme throughout the book in all the stories from The Oasis in 1934 to The Letter in 2008 The final act in life is death which takes on many different faces in these stories from the loss of an unborn child to suicide and to murder and it is invariably caused by the choices people make at different times in their lives Some characters are the victims of someone else's choice though it can be argued that the hand of death itself is a victim These are stories of ordinary people making choices that may be ordinary or in some cases extraordinary Circumstances occur that allow people to live a long life but in almost every circumstance there is a choice to be made And in every choice there lies the ever present specter of death
