Getting Here:

Getting Here Peter Ney, 2009-10-14 The night before his seventh birthday Peter Ney and his family were awakened by the sound of yelling and of breaking glass as their home was vandalized Kristallnacht was just the beginning of the Nazi violence against the Jews and it shaped the rest of Peters life Spanning seventy years Getting Here narrates the many twists and turns of his life Two months after Kristallnacht Peters parents placed him on a train to England he was one of 10 000 German children granted safe refuge in England via the Kindertransport His parents joined him in London just before the start of World War II and as a family they immigrated to the United States This memoir tells of Peters journey from Germany from his adolescence and art school training to his fifty six year marriage to Betty work as a designer of consumer products and human engineer in the space program a twenty year career as a trial attorney and his tenure as a judge on the Colorado Court of Appeals More than seventy years ago Peter and his family arrived penniless in the United States Getting Here not only describes that journey but rejoices in the fulfilling of the American dream from a seat on a refugee train to a seat on the appellate bench

Getting Here William White Howells, 1997 Renowned anthropologist author and educator Howells draws together the latest from all of today s sciences to tell the fascinating story of man s evolution Long recognized as one of the world s foremost authorities and interpreters of human evolution he is also known for his unique contribution of skull measurements to show relationships between peoples

Getting Here From There Clara Atmane, Learn to tell your truth from a reflective honest nonreactive prospective Recently retired from a challenging legal career Clara Atmane was asking the big questions Who am I now Why am I here now Why am I still so lonely Digging into the first ten years of her life Atmane uncovered secrets and hidden treasure Blame and anger turned to wonder and curiosity Emotions and trauma in those first ten years defined her yet her ability to survive and the techniques she developed also came to shape who she had become In Getting Here From There Ms Atmane proves that where you start has no bearing on where you can end up Born the youngest of six in a farming family the idyllic backdrop hid a hostile and unwelcoming environment The messages in those formative years were clear You are ugly Your birth caused our mother s mental illness If you tell you will not be believed There was a dark side to her family There were villains Thankfully there was also survival Getting Here From There will show you how one woman came to forgive and even thank the people who mistreated her

Getting Here from There Margaret R Miles, Hiroko Sakomura, 2012-01-26 This book of conversations between Margaret R Miles and Hiroko Sakomura compares the experiences of two women who grew up in different societies with different educations different professions and different religious orientations Reflecting on the different ways in which Japanese and American societies inhibited and enabled them these two women share their struggles difficulties and achievements All of this is set in the context of one of the most radical social movements in the history of the world as women are gaining increments of equality with men in designing and administering the institutions of public life with opportunities dangers and rewards This is a moment in which a critical mass of women want it all now in the best sense of the phrase seeking to preserve and reinterpret traditional values while exercising their capabilities and skills both in the home and in public life This book is the memoir of two women s painful and joyful experiences in getting here from there     Getting Here: An Odyssey Through World War II Ruth L.
