An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa s diaspora s African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

Legal Oppositional Narrative Stephen L. Bishop, 2008-01-01 The book investigates opposition to the Cameroonian social and legal order through prose and theatre that employs legal themes settings and language as well as actual legal decisions The conclusion is that opposition though ironic appropriation of legal discourse is more promising in fostering social justice than direct resistance to the legal hierarchy

The Masked Rider Neil Peart, 2010-11-16 Neil Peart s travel memoir of thoughts observations and experiences as he cycles through West Africa reveals the subtle yet powerful writing style that has made him one of rock s greatest lyricists As he describes his extraordinary journey and his experiences from the pains of dysentery to a confrontation with an armed soldier to navigating dirt roads off the beaten path he reveals his own emotional landscape and along the way the different masks that he discovers he wears Cycling is a good way to travel anywhere but especially in Africa You are independent and mobile and yet travel at people speed fast enough to travel on to another town in the cooler morning hours but slow enough to meet people the old farmer at the roadside who raises his hand and says You are welcome the tireless women who offer a smile to a passing cyclist the children whose laughter transcends the humblest home     Handbook of British Travel Writing Barbara Schaff, 2020-09-07 This handbook offers a systematic exploration of current key topics in travel writing studies It addresses the history impact and unique discursive variety of British travel writing by covering some of the most celebrated and canonical authors of the genre as well as lesser known ones in more than thirty close reading chapters Combining theoretically informed astute literary criticism of single texts with the analysis of the circumstances of their production and reception these chapters offer excellent possibilities for understanding the complexity and cultural relevance of British travel writing     U.S. Imprints on Sub-Saharan Africa , 1992     Glowing Still Sara Wheeler, 2023-03-16 Britain's foremost woman travel writer Sara Wheeler records her life of adventure from the Antarctic to Zanzibar Funny furious writing from the queen of intrepid travel Daily Telegraph Intrepid and sparky full of canny quips and lightly poetic observations Mail on Sunday Magnificent and unusual Viv Groskop Spectator Sara Wheeler is Britain's foremost woman travel writer Glowing Still is the story of her travelling life what is important revealing or funny in a notoriously testosterone laden field Growing up among blue collar Conservatives in Bristol where we didn't know anyone who wasn't like us Wheeler knew she needed to get away In her twenties she began a dramatic escape Pole to Pole via Poland Glowing Still recalls happy days on India's Puri Express an Antarctic lavatory through which a seal popped up hot fishy breath and the louche life of a Parisian shopgirl Corralling reindeer with the Sami in Arctic Sweden and towing her baby on a sledge a helpful herdsman advised her to put foil down her bra to facilitate nursing Launching at Nubility Wheeler voyages via small children to the welcoming port of Invisibility she leaves Immobility for the next volume As she writes in the introduction when she set sail Role models were scarce in the travel writing game But advancing years usher in unheralded freedoms and journey's end finds Wheeler at peace among Zanzibar dhows contemplating our connection with other lives the irreplaceable value that travel brings and paying homage to her heroines among them Martha Gellhorn the ineffable war correspondent who furnishes Wheeler's epigraph I do not wish to be good I wish to be hell on wheels or dead     Myth and Geology Luigi Piccardi, W. Bruce Masse, 2007 This book is the first peer reviewed collection of papers focusing on the potential of myth storylines to yield data and lessons that are of value to the geological sciences Building on the nascent discipline of geomythology scientists and scholars from a variety of disciplines have contributed to this volume The geological hazards such as earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and cosmic impacts that have given rise to myths are considered as are the sacred and cultural values associated with rocks fossils geological formations and landscapes There are also discussions about the historical and literary perspectives of geomythology Regional coverage includes Europe and the Mediterranean Afghanistan Cameroon India Australia Japan Pacific islands South America and North America Myth and Geology challenges the widespread notion that myths are fictitious or otherwise lacking in value for the physical sciences

BOOK JACKET      Other People's Anthropologies European Association of Social Anthropologists. Conference, 2008
 Anthropological practice has been dominated by the so called great traditions Anglo American French and German With contributions from anthropologists and social scientists from different countries and anthropological traditions this text gives voice to scholars outside these great traditions      Stewart's Quotable Africa Julia Stewart, 2012-10-02 The African continent is home to spectacularly expressive human beings rebellious anti colonial and opposition leaders eloquent novelists political and social activists comical geniuses pensive and philosophical poets and intellectuals as well as a few raving dictators And the body of proverbial wisdom from Africa alone could fill many volumes Despite being eminently quotable Africa is not so readily quoted Stewart's Quotable Africa covers the whole of Africa north to south and east to west and includes memorable statements from hundreds of speakers including Nelson Mandela Doris Lessing Chinua Achebe Julius Nyerere Kofi Annan among others as well as biblical passages and proverbs Julia Stewart has spent over a decade collecting the 5000 plus quotes found in this book all of them either by Africans or about African subjects      West Africa, 2006      C'est l'homme qui fait l'homme Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2015 The idea that human beings are inextricably bound to one another is at the heart of this book about African agency especially drawing on the African philosophy Ubuntu with its roots in human sociality and inclusivity Ubuntu's precepts and workings are severely tested in these times of rapid change and multiple responsibilities Africans negotiate their social existence between urban and rural life their continental and transcontinental distances and all the market forces that now impinge with relationships and loyalties placed in question Between ideal and reality dreams and schemes how is Ubuntu actualized misappropriated and endangered The book unearths the intrigues and contradictions that go with inclusivity in Africa Basing his argument on the ideals of trust conviviality and support embodied in the concept of Ubuntu Francis Nyamnjoh demonstrates how the pursuit of personal success and even self aggrandizement challenges these ideals thus leading to discord in social relationships Nyamnjoh uses a popular Ivorian drama with the same title to substantiate life world realities and more importantly to demonstrate that new forms of expression from popular drama to fiction thicken and enrich the ethnographic component in current anthropology
