Getting Lost Patti Lather,2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association In this follow up to her classic text Troubling the Angels an experimental ethnography of women with AIDS Patti Lather deconstructs her earlier work to articulate methodology out of practice and to answer the question What would practices of research look like that were a response to the call of the wholly other She addresses some of the key issues challenging social scientists today such as power relations with subjects in the field the crisis in representation difference deconstruction praxis ethics responsibility objectivity narrative strategy and situatedness Including a series of essays reflections and interviews marking the trajectory of the author s work as a feminist methodologist Getting Lost will be an important text for courses in sociology of science philosophy of science ethnography feminist methodology women and gender studies and qualitative research in education and related social science fields Borderlands Mark Brickman,2018-06-21 Change carries us into uncharted territory We can often feel adrift in such borderlands Scripture however offers rich resources for navigating these times The biblical narrative of the great fifty days from Easter to Pentecost forms a map for the adventure of spiritual growth Tracking the tumultuous and deeply human journey of the disciples through these days Borderlands is for all who are experiencing periods of transition or who seek to progress in their faith Poetic and passionate in language and authentic about the challenges posed by change this frank book aims to inspire and stir our appetite for passing from one life stage to another Combining revealing insights from literature psychology and other fields Mark Brickman offers an incisive reading of Scripture that can enrich life in flux Be equipped for a transformative journey into deeper identification with Christ and the fullness of life that he brings In Search of the

Afropolitan Eva Rask Knudsen,Ulla Rahbek,2016-07-18 In Search of the Afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century African of the world Against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on Afropolitanism and what constitutes an Afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the African as inherently complex and multidimensional Through a detailed probing of the Afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of Africa in the contexts of global mobility The book conceives of Afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone Instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be Afropolitan in the contemporary moment In that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be African in the world today As a special feature of In Search of the Afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on Afropolitanism and the Afropolitan

Reading an Unknown Organization Peter Wollmann,Lukas Stricker,Doris Pemler,2024-10-22 This book focuses on Organizational Intelligence and its connection to the Three Pillar Model a framework developed by a global community of over 60 professionals from various sectors and published by Springer Nature The model centers on three vital pillars for navigating the volatile uncertain complex and ambiguous VUCA world of organizational design and leadership Sustainable Purpose Travelling Organization and Connectivity At its core the book features interviews with executive leaders including those in the C Suite who have recently assumed new roles in new organizations or have done so in their careers The interviews are diverse and anonymized to encourage candid responses The book explores how these leaders quickly gain a comprehensive understanding of their organizations with a focus on coping with change transformation sustainability and UN SDG coverage Offering real case study based guidance the book does not seek to provide a one size fits all methodology but instead encourages readers to tailor its insights to their unique circumstances It is a valuable resource for mentoring and coaching purposes

The Sustainable Organization Peter Wollmann,Doris Pemler,Mersida Ndrevataj,2025-07-06 This book explores topics related to sustainability including the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and accountability in various activities It reflects the complex and diverse landscape of sustainability efforts in organizations and the pursuit of SDGs It emphasizes that achieving global change and making the world a better place isn t a straightforward linear process but rather a conglomerate of diverse and interconnected journeys driven by countless parties with individual interests and systemic conditions Recognizing the impossibility of creating a comprehensive Big Picture covering all facets the authors ambition is to contribute to the discussion on sustainability and SDG coverage through inspiring use cases The book illustrates how the Three Pillar Model leads to sustainability and SDG coverage It emphasizes the importance of a strong Sustainable Purpose mindset transformation in organizations and cross silo cooperation for success The book features contributions from various authors and institutions from all over the world including former leaders of UN agencies NGOs enterprises venture capital funds and angel investor communities consultancies universities historians system theorists philosophers and linguists The chapters also provide diverse perspectives and historical cases to facilitate learning and exploration in this vast field

The Ticking Is the Bomb: A Memoir Nick Flynn,2011-01-03 A beautiful intelligent book that renders pain both ordinary and extraordinary into art Susanna Sonnenberg San Francisco Chronicle In 2007 during the months before Nick Flynn s daughter s birth his growing outrage and obsession with torture exacerbated by the Abu Ghraib photographs led him to Istanbul to meet some of the Iraqi men depicted in those photos Haunted by a history of addiction a relationship with his unsteady father and a longing to connect with his mother who committed suicide Flynn artfully interweaves in this memoir passages from his childhood his relationships with women and his growing obsession a questioning of terror torture and the political crimes we can neither see nor understand in post 9 11 American life The time bomb of the title becomes an unlikely metaphor and vehicle for exploring the fears and joys of becoming a father Here is a memoir of profound self discovery of being lost and found of painful family memories and losses of the need to run from love and of the ability to embrace it again The Lost Ethnographies Robin James Smith,Sara Delamont,2019-01-07 This volume explores ethnographic projects that were planned but never happened and reports on the methodological lessons researchers can learn as well as how they can gain fresh energy and social science insight from apparent rejection A Field Guide to Getting Lost Joy McCullough,2020-04-14 A cozy and enjoyable read Kirkus Reviews The likable cast and relatable premise will resonate with readers grappling with the uncertainty of change Booklist A girl with a passion for science and a boy who dreams of writing fantasy novels must figure out how to get along now that their parents are dating in this lively endearing novel Sutton is having robot problems Her mini bot is supposed to be able to get through a maze in under a minute but she must have gotten something wrong in the coding Which is frustrating for a science minded girl like Sutton almost as frustrating as the fact that her mother probably won t be home in time for Sutton s tenth birthday Luis spends his days writing thrilling stories about brave kids but there s only so much inspiration you can find when you re stuck inside all day He s allergic to bees afraid of dogs and has an overprotective mom to boot So Luis can only dream of daring adventures in the wild Sutton and Luis couldn t be more different from each other Except now that their parents are dating these two have to find some common ground Will they be able to navigate their way down a path they never planned on exploring Inner and Outer Worlds Anthony Uhlmann FAHA,2022-02-01 Gail Jones is one of Australia s foremost contemporary novelists Her books have won or been shortlisted for the Prime Minister s Literary Award the Miles Franklin Award the Stella Prize and numerous state literary awards They are taught in high schools and universities across the country This collection of essays offers reflections on Jones fiction by leading Australian and international literary critics For readers who loved Sixty Lights Five Bells Sorry and Jones other novels and for students of Jones work this book will be an illuminating companion With chapters on her use of language her thematic preoccupations and her place in local and global literary culture it is a timely guide to the work of an exceptional Australian writer Shrink Tim Suttle,2014-09-02 Among followers of Jesus great is often the enemy of good The drive to be great to be a success by the standards of the world often crowds out the qualities of goodness virtue and faithfulness that should define the central focus of Christian leadership In the culture of today s church successful leadership is often judged by what works while persistent faithfulness takes a back seat If a ministry doesn t produce results it is dropped If people don t respond we move on This pursuit of greatness exerts a crushing pressure on the local church and creates a consuming anxiety in its leaders In their pursuit of this warped vision of greatness church leaders end up embracing a leadership narrative that runs counter to the sacrificial call of the gospel story When church leaders focus on faithfulness to God and the gospel however it s always a kingdom win regardless of the visible results of their ministry John the Baptist modeled this kind of leadership As John s disciples crossed the Jordan River to follow after Jesus John freely released them to a greater calling than following him Speaking of Jesus John said He must increase but I must decrease Joyfully satisfied to have been faithful to his calling John knew that the size and scope of his ministry would be determined by the will of the Father not his own will Following the example of John the Baptist and with a careful look at the teaching of Scripture Tim Suttle dares church leaders to risk failure by chasing the vision God has given them no matter how small it might seem instead of pursuing the broad path of pragmatism that leads to fame and numerical success Branding Berlin Katrina Sark,2023-07-21 This book is a cultural history of post Wall urban social political and cultural transformations in Berlin Branding Berlin From Division to the Cultural Capital of Europe presents a cultural analysis of Berlin s cultural production including literature film memoirs and non fiction works art media urban branding campaigns and cultural diversity initiatives put forth by the Berlin Senate and allows readers to understand the various changes that transformed the formerly divided city of voids into a hip cultural capital The book examines Berlin s branding urban economic development and its search for a post Wall identity by focusing on manifestations of nostalgic longing in documentary films and other cultural products Building on the sociological research of urban branding and linking it with an interpretive analysis of cultural products generated in Berlin during that time the author examines the intersections and tensions between the nostalgic views of the past and the branded images of Berlin s present and future This insightful and innovative work will interest scholars and students of cultural and media studies branding and advertising urban communication film studies visual culture tourism and cultural memory River of Shadows Rebecca Solnit,2004-03-02 A New York Times Notable Book Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism The Mark Lynton History Prize and the Sally Hacker Prize for the History of Technology A panoramic vision of cultural change The New York Times Through the story of the pioneering photographer Eadweard Muybridge the author of Orwell s Roses explores what it was about California in the late 19th century that enabled it to become such a center of technological and cultural innovation The world as we know it today began in California in the late 1800s and Eadweard Muybridge had a lot to do with it This striking assertion is at the heart of Rebecca Solnit s new book which weaves together biography history and fascinating insights into art and technology to create a boldly original portrait of America on the threshold of modernity The story of Muybridge who in 1872 succeeded in capturing high speed motion photographically becomes a lens for a larger story about the acceleration and industrialization of everyday life Solnit shows how the peculiar freedoms and opportunities of post Civil War California led directly to the two industries Hollywood and Silicon Valley that have most powerfully defined contemporary society Field Guide to Getting Lost , Arts-Based Methods in
