McGraw, 2001-09-01

As a follow up to his bestselling book Life Strategies Oprah acolyte Phillip C. McGraw Ph.D. moves from aiding the aimless individual to coaching the disconnected couple McGraw has distilled his more than two decades of counseling experience into a seven-step strategy he calls Relationship Rescue I'm prepared to kick a hole in the wall of the pain-ridden unhappy maze you've gotten yourself into and provide you clear access to action-oriented answers and instructions on what you must do to have what you want says Dr. Phil His aim is to expose and eliminate the saboteurs that cause senseless damage to already fragile marriages and like an emotional root canal to replace them with values he says provide positive results If you follow Dr. Phil's strategy he will lead you on a precise journey to uncover your heart and then share it with your partner as part of taking the risk of intimacy Dr. Phil leads you to reconnect with your core in the first five steps of his seven-step strategy By no means a quick fix there are in-depth and rigorous questionnaires surveys tests and profiles that require a brutally candid mindset with such fill in the blanks as List five things that today would make you fall out of love with your partner With this internal work accomplished you'll then move on to reconnecting with your partner during a two-week half-hour a day short course As a dyad you and your loved one take turns giving monologues on topics such as The most positive thing I took away from my mother and father's relationship was Once the reconnection has been established Dr. Phil says the work shifts to a management role as relationships are always a work in progress Dr. Phil humorously refers to his own marriage throughout the book sharing his mishaps and victories in learning to accept and enjoy what he sees as fundamental but complementary differences between men and women John Youngs Conscious Femininity, 1993 Candid and wide-ranging interviews dating from 1985 through 1992 with the best-selling author and Jungian analyst Marion Woodman Touches on sexuality creativity relationships addictions healing rituals and the environment Romeo & Julio & Friends Leo C. Akwudike, 2022-12-16 25-year-old Julio Clifford a successful gay black British and South African designer returns to London Britain from abroad after seven years He reunites with childhood friends and through them meets the charming handsome and disconcertingly confident Romeo Moses Romeo is a 29-year-old white British and Italian

Architect Model Julio is the opposite of Romeo he is gentle sensible and warm hearted Everything is perfect and sparks are flying but there is a problem Romeo has a girlfriend Julio s older sister s childhood friend Poppy who is also one of Julio s oldest and dearest friends Will Romeo act out his yearning for Julio Will Julio betray his old friend in the name of love falling for Romeo s charms Romeo likes how smart independent and confident Julio is He likes the soul within Julio Julio likes Romeo s charisma assertiveness strength and how he cares for others But then Julio s emotionally abusive ex husband Hassan arrives in town and begins to stalk him Will it tear Julio and Romeo apart A story about love and friendship with many twists and turns showing Romeo and Julio s lives unfold while they with their friends deal with the stress of living and working in 21st century City of London Romeo Julio Friends shows the people of multicultural Britain and their queer lives unfolding in the high pressure modern day world Hidden and found, broken and healed Cheryl Soul2Soul,2023-01-30 It started with Margreet s desire to flee from her parental home Away from of the realm of control intimidation manipulation and condemnation She applied was accepted left for pension Bloemenzicht It s the start of her LIFE A part of the book Chapter 1 A big step It seemed to be so simple but it wasn t Margreet had decided to pack everything she thought she would need in a month into two suitcases But what should she take with her and what not Yesterday she had received an email from Pension Bloemenhof informing her that she had been hired for a trial month Margreet had been as happy as a child Not so much because of the kind of work it was yet to be seen if she would like it but because she could get away away from her parental home where she d always felt she somehow didn t fit in She had walked on tiptoe figuratively to not stand out She had tried terribly hard to do everything perfectly so that she might fit in after all But apparently it had never been good enough At primary school learning was still going well but at secondary school it went wrong She did more than she could but it felt like she was missing out on everything She felt rushed and a failure It wasn t about her mind she was smart enough but about the pressure from her parents to perform way beyond her capabilities which had killed her And she had known intuitively I have to get out of here away from my parental home away from well of what It was still hard to describe and especially hard to accept that her childhood hadn t been what it should have been to accept that she hadn t gotten what she needed to be herself to develop herself into who she really was The therapist she d been with had called it the burden of intimidation and manipulation the burden of control Margreet had recognized it nodded vigorously as the therapist explained it but she couldn t turn the tide couldn t stand it she wasn t able to live the way she wanted to live Wasn t that another problem The problem that she didn t really know how she wanted to live that she didn t know what life was That she didn t know who she really was and what she really liked It had upset her for a long time She d been torn between possibilities but whatever she d come up with for and about herself she couldn t figure it out In the end she had come to only one conclusion she wasn t able to see herself through her own eyes She looked as she always had done through her parents eyes and felt that whatever came to her mind would be disapproved by them How on earth was she supposed to get off this treadmill It felt like a first big step to leave home She had scoured the internet for a job applied for all kinds of things without success until she discovered the advertisement from Pension Bloemenhof in a quiet area on the edge of a Limburg village She sensed something that made her feel sure she had to be there and immediately sent her application email and there had been a conviction in her that she would be successful this time She had no idea why actually had thought it was quite bizarre but her feeling turned out to be correct It had been only a few hours before she got an answer back that she could come in for a trial run in November asking if she was able to come a few days before to explore the guest house and get settled in It was already the end of October so that would be very soon just about right away she thought Ha nothing better than that The sooner she could go the better And it was so ideal she had already understood from the advertisement she could live internally on her own within the guest house A place of your own within safe walls She didn't know how it was possible but it already felt that way in advance like a safe place of her own

Supporting People Peter Beresford, 2011 It is widely agreed that there is a need to transform care and support services Supporting People explores with service users practitioners carers and managers what person-centred support means to them what barriers stand in the way and how these can be overcome

Rethinking Friendship Liz Spencer, Ray Pahl, 2018-06-05 From Aristotle to contemporary soap operas friendship has always been a subject of fascination But scholarly investigation of the broad social relevance of friendship has been neglected Rethinking Friendship describes the varied nature of personal relationships today and also locates friendship in contemporary debates about individualization and the supposed collapse of community Exploring friendships with partners and family as well as friends the book reveals ways in which friends and friendlike ties are an important and unacknowledged source of social glue Using a rigorous analysis of in-depth interviews the authors develop a set of innovative concepts friendship repertoires the range of friendships people have friendship modes the way people make and maintain friendships over time and patterns of suffusion the extent to which boundaries between friends and family become blurred These concepts form the basis of a typology of personal communities that vary in the roles played by friends family partners and neighbors Combining scholarly depth and rich description this absorbing and accessible book will appeal to all those interested in informal social relationships including students of methodology and policymakers With its challenge to pessimistic commentators Rethinking Friendship urges us to resist sweeping generalizations and to acknowledge the sheer diversity of social life today The Columbia Anthology of Modern Chinese Drama Xiaomei Chen, 2014-03-25 This condensed anthology reproduces close to a dozen plays from Xiaomei Chen's well received original collection The Columbia Anthology of Modern Chinese Drama along with her critical introduction to the historical cultural and aesthetic evolution of twentieth century Chinese spoken drama. Comprising representative works from the Republican era to postsocialist China, the book encapsulates the revolutionary rethinking of Chinese theater and performance that began in the late Qing dynasty and vividly portrays the uncertainty and anxiety brought on by modernism, socialism, political conflict and war. Chosen works from 1919 to 1990 also highlight the formation of national and gender identities during a period of tremendous social, cultural and political change in China and the genesis of contemporary attitudes toward the West. PRC theater tracks the rise of communism juxtaposing ideals of Chinese socialism against the sacrifices made for a new society. Post Mao drama addresses the nation's socialist legacy, its attempt to reexamine its cultural roots and postsocialist reflections on critical issues such as nation, class, gender and collective memories. An essential portable guide for easy reference and classroom use, this abridgment provides a concise yet well rounded survey of China's theatricality and representation of political life. The original work not only established a canon of modern Chinese drama in the West but also made it available for the first time in English in a single volume.

I Am Not Ready to Love You Beverley Godfrey, 2007-11 After a grueling day in the emergency room, Dr Lynn Taylor is just about ready to go home when she is thrust into a critical care situation. The ER is a flurry of activity, the result of a terrible rush hour accident. As Dr Taylor triages the patients, she also treats the elderly Mrs Sarah Davidson who's been brought to the ER by her adult children. Mrs Davidson's son, Detective Thom Davidson, is a single man who suddenly develops a strong liking for his mother's doctor. Lynn has given up on having a meaningful love life. With Thom's coaxing, Lynn enters into a relationship with him that catapults her into a rollercoaster of deep desires and a longing for passionate love. But love isn't easy as Lynn knows and things are only complicated when she discovers that Thom is still being pursued by a former lover. Unable to handle the pain of Thom's past relationship, Lynn volunteers as a doctor on a reservation in another state and soon meets another man. Now faced with an uncertain future with Thom, Lynn must make a choice and come to terms with her painful past.
