

From résumés to personal ads, from talk shows to self-help groups, autobiographical storytelling has become a central theme of American culture. Getting a Life is an innovative examination of how personal narratives have become central in circulating multiple, overlapping, provisional identities--and how those identities are negotiated or resisted in everyday life.

"So innovative that it will stand as a model for refiguring the field of autobiography." Caren Kaplan, University of California, Berkeley

"These essays forge a new path in a well-established field of inquiry by challenging a number of heretofore unexamined assumptions about how a 'life' is constituted, judged worthy of attention, and made representable."

García,2020-08-21 This book is a timely study of young women's life writing as a form of human rights activism. It focuses on six young women who suffered human rights violations when they were girls and have gone on to become activists through life writing: Malala Yousafzai, Hyeonseo Lee, Yeonmi Park, Bana Alabed, Nujeen Mustafa, and Nadia Murad. Their ongoing life writing projects diverge to some extent but all share several notable features: they claim a testimonial collective voice; they deploy rights discourse; they excite humanitarian emotions; they link up their context-bound plight with bigger social justice causes; and they use English as their vehicle of self-expression and self-construction. This strategic use of English is of vital importance as it has brought them together as icons in the public sphere within the last six years. New Forms of Self Narration is the first ever attempt to explore all these activists' life writing texts side by side, encompassing both the written and the audiovisual material online and offline, and taking all texts as belonging to a unique single though multifaceted project.

Everybody's Autonomy Juliana Spahr,2001-01-11 Everybody's Autonomy is about reading and identity. Experimental texts empower the reader by encouraging self-governing approaches to reading and by placing the reader on equal footing with the author.

The Biographical Turn Hans Renders, Binne de Haan, Jonne Harmsma,2016-09-13 The Biographical Turn showcases the latest research through which the field of biography is being explored. Fifteen leading scholars in the field present the biographical perspective as a scholarly research methodology investigating the consequences of this bottom-up approach and illuminating its value for different disciplines. While biography has been on the rise in academia since the 1980s, this volume highlights the theoretical implications of the biographical turn that is changing the humanities. Chapters cover subjects such as gender, religion, race, new media, and microhistory, presenting biography as a research methodology suited not only for historians but also for explorations in areas including literature studies, sociology, economics, and politics. By emphasizing agency, the use of primary sources, and the critical analysis of context and historiography, this book demonstrates how biography can function as a scholarly methodology for a wide range of topics and fields of research. International in scope, The Biographical Turn emphasizes that the individual can have a lasting impact on the past and that lives that are now forgotten can be as important for the historical narrative as the biographies of kings and presidents. It is a valuable resource for all students of biography, history, and historical theory.

Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons,2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman. Although he is well known for his avant-garde filmmaking, his garden, and his AIDS activism, he is also the author of over a dozen books, many of which are autobiographical. Much of Jarman's exploration of post-war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV/AIDS can be found in his books, such as the lyrical AIDS diaries, Modern Nature, and Smiling in Slow Motion. This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing. Spanning his career, Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self-reflexive response to the HIV/AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards. Luminous presence is of great interest to
