Ghazali And The Poetics Of Imagination Islamic Civilization And Muslim Networks:

Ghaz 1 and the Poetics of Imagination Ebrahim Moosa, 2005 Moosa Duke Univ offers a comprehensive study that brilliantly clarifies the multifaceted and conflicted legacy of the great Muslim medieval religious philosopher al Ghazali Competing religious cultural and political agendas have distorted his real contributions to Islamic culture Spurned by both fundamentalists and rationalists in the contemporary Muslim world Ghazali is prized by traditionalists for his mystical piety and ethical insight Centering his inquiry on the image of the dihliz the threshold which occupies the border between the subjective and the objective Moosa explores problems of knowledge through a focus on the self as it manifests in poetics self creation the pursuit of virtue ethical self mastery and ultimately the sociopolitical realm where ethics meets law and jurisprudence Ghazali s own crisis of faith led him to reinvigorate his own religious tradition by situating traditional problems in metaphysics theology ethics law and mysticism in the context of the soul s overcoming its exile from God Thus ethics ceases to be only abstract theory and becomes the art of transformation Especially impressive is Moosa's linking of historical inquiry with the existential interests of contemporary Muslim subjectivity Summing Up Highly recommended Upper level undergraduates through researchers faculty Upper division Undergraduates Graduate Students Researchers Faculty Reviewed by J Bussanich Ghazali and the Poetics of Imagination Ebrahim Moosa, 2006-03-08 Abu Hamid al Ghazl a Muslim jurist theologian and polymath who lived from the mid eleventh to the early twelfth century in present day Iran is a figure equivalent in stature to Maimonides in Judaism and Thomas Aguinas in Christianity He is best known for his work in philosophy ethics law and mysticism In an engaged re reading of the ideas of this preeminent Muslim thinker Ebrahim Moosa argues that Ghazl s work has lasting relevance today as a model for a critical encounter with the Muslim intellectual tradition in a modern and postmodern context Moosa employs the theme of the threshold or dihliz the space from which Ghazl himself engaged the different currents of thought in his day and proposes that contemporary Muslims who wish to place their own traditions in conversation with modern traditions consider the same vantage point Moosa argues that by incorporating elements of Islamic theology neoplatonic mysticism and Aristotelian philosophy Ghazl s work epitomizes the idea that the answers to life s complex realities do not reside in a single culture or intellectual tradition Ghazl s emphasis on poiesis creativity imagination and freedom of thought provides a sorely needed model for a cosmopolitan intellectual renewal among Muslims Moosa argues Such a creative and critical inheritance he concludes ought to be heeded by those who seek to cultivate Muslim intellectual traditions in today s tumultuous world The Theological Origins of Modernity Michael Allen Gillespie, 2010-10-21 Taking as his starting point the collapse of the medieval world Gillespie argues that from the very beginning moderns sought not to eliminate religion but to support a new view of religion and its place in human life and that they did so not out of hostility but in order to sustain certain religious beliefs He goes on to explore the ideas of such figures as William of Ockham Petrarch Erasmus Luther Descartes and Hobbes showing that modernity is best understood as the result of a series of attempts to formulate a new and coherent metaphysics or theology In-Between: Architectural Drawing and Imaginative Knowledge in Islamic and Western Traditions Hooman Koliji, 2016-03-09 Contemporary technical architectural drawings in establishing a direct relationship between the drawing and its object tend to privilege the visible physical world at the expense of the invisible intangible ideas and concepts including that of the designer s imagination As a result drawing may become a utilitarian tool for documentation devoid of any meaningful value in terms of a kind of knowledge that could potentially link the visible and invisible This book argues that design drawings should be recognized as intermediaries mediating between the world of ideas and the world of things spanning the intangible and tangible The notion of the Imaginal as an intermediary between the invisible and visible is discussed showing how architectural drawings lend themselves to this notion by performing as creative agents contributing not only to the physical world but also penetrating the realm of concepts The book argues that this in between quality to architectural drawing is essential and that it is critical to perceive drawings as subtle bodies that hold physical attributes for example form proportion color highly evocative yet with no matter Focusing on Islamic geometric architectural drawings both historical and contemporary it draws on key philosophical and conceptual notions of imagination from the Islamic tradition as these relate to the creative act In doing so this book not only makes important insights into the design process and act of architectural representation but more broadly it adds to debates on philosophies of the imagination linking both Western and Islamic traditions Sufi Narratives of Intimacy Sa'divya Shaikh, 2012 Sufi Narratives of Intimacy A World Beyond Global Disorder Fred Dallmayr, Edward Demenchonok, 2017-05-11 A world which like ours has been ravaged by some sixty wars in recent decades can rightly be described as the scene of global disorder Even today the same world is traumatized by hot and cold wars proxy wars and repeated outbursts of blood filled mayhem not to mention the threat of a nuclear holocaust unleashed by big power rivalries These are not mere statistics but wounds in the body of humanity calling for healing and reconciliation In biblical terms human beings are not meant to be the owners or the destroyers of the world but rather its custodians or caretakers This collection is a summons to responsible care taking and it approaches the subject from an intercultural perspective in a variety of fields including religion and politics The topics covered range from accounts of major global calamities today to explorations of possible political economic and societal reforms and to the invocation of basic religious and philosophical resources needed for the recovery of a world beyond global disorder Jasmine and Stars Fatemeh Keshavarz, 2007-03-05 In a direct frank and intimate exploration of Iranian literature and society scholar teacher and poet Fatemeh Keshavarz challenges popular perceptions of Iran as a society bereft of vitality and joy Her fresh perspective on present day Iran provides a rare insight into this rich culture alive with artistic expression but virtually unknown to most Americans Keshavarz introduces readers to two modern Iranian women writers whose strong and articulate voices belie the stereotypical perception of Iranian women as voiceless victims in a country of villains She follows with a lively critique of the recent best seller Reading Lolita in Tehran A Memoir in Books which epitomizes what Keshavarz calls the New Orientalist narrative a view marred by stereotype and prejudice more often tied to current geopolitical conflicts than to an understanding of Iran Blending in firsthand glimpses of her own life from childhood memories in 1960s Shiraz to her present life as a professor in America Keshavarz paints a portrait of Iran depicting both cultural depth and intellectual complexity With a scholar s expertise and a poet s hand she helps amplify the powerful voices of contemporary Iranians and leads readers toward a deeper understanding of the country's past and present Gender, Sainthood, & Everyday Practice in South Asian Shi'ism Karen G.
