Soldiering On Adam Powell, 2019-09-09 A month after the Armistice Prime Minister David Lloyd George promised to make Britain a land fit for heroes At the time it was widely believed Returning soldiers expected decent treatment and recognition for what they had done yet the fine words of 1918 were not matched by actions The following years saw little change as a lack of political will watered down any reform Beggars in trench coats became a common sight in British cities Soldiering On examines how the Lost Generation adjusted to civilian life how they coped with physical and mental disabilities and struggled to find jobs or even communicate with their family This is the story of men who survived the trenches only to be ignored when they came home Using first hand accounts Adam Powell traces the lives of veterans from the first day of peace to the start of the Second World War looking at the many injustices ex servicemen bore while celebrating the heroism they showed in the face of a world too quick to forget War and Remembrance Thomas H. Conner,2018-10-05 No soldier could ask for a sweeter resting place than on the field of glory where he fell The land he died to save vies with the one which gave him birth in paying tribute to his memory and the kindly hands which so often come to spread flowers upon his earthly coverlet express in their gentle task a personal affection General John J Pershing To remember and honor the memory of the American soldiers who fought and died in foreign wars during the past hundred years the American Battle Monuments Commission ABMC was established Since the agency was founded in 1923 its sole purpose has been to commemorate the soldiers service and the causes for which their lives were given The twenty five overseas cemeteries honoring 139 000 combat dead and the memorials honoring the 60 314 fallen soldiers with no known graves are among the most beautiful and meticulously maintained shrines in the world In the first comprehensive study of the ABMC Thomas H Conner traces how the agency came to be created by Congress in the aftermath of World War I how the cemeteries and monuments the agency built were designed and their locations chosen and how the commemorative sites have become important outposts of remembrance on foreign soil War and Remembrance powerfully demonstrates that these monuments living sites that embody the role Americans played in the defense of freedom far from their own shores assist in understanding the interconnections of memory and history and serve as an inspiration to later generations The Flag Andrew Richards,2020-01-10 This well researched biography brings home something of what it was to be an army chaplain amid the battles in France and Flanders Methodist Recorder Between 1916 and 1918 chaplain David Railton supported the soldiers on the Western Front in their worst moments He buried the fallen comforted the wounded wrote to the families of the missing and killed and helped the survivors to remember and mark the loss of their comrades so that they were able to carry on He was with his men at many battles including High Wood the Aisne and Passchendaele He received the Military Cross for rescuing an officer and two men under heavy fire on the Somme It was Railton s idea to bring home the body of an unidentified fallen comrade from the battlefields to be buried in Westminster Abbey and on Armistice Day 1920 he was there in the Abbey as the Unknown Warrior was laid to rest with full honors Although suffering from post traumatic stress disorder he returned to work as a parish priest in Margate where he took particular interest in supporting ex servicemen who had returned home to the aftermath of a terrible war and crippling unemployment This is the first book to explore David Railton s life and the padre s flag he used as an altar cloth and shroud throughout the war the flag that was consecrated a year after the burial of the Unknown Warrior and hangs in Westminster Abbey to this day The Lost Battalion and the Meuse-Argonne, 1918 Micheal Clodfelter,2007-01-01 This volume with exhaustive on site research details America s last major offensive of World War I the Battle of the Meuse Argonne which took place from September 26 through November 11 1918 It examines the movements and countermovements that comprised the still unequalled conflict of the Argonne Forest The main focus of the work is the five day isolation and besiegement of the so called Lost Battalion From October 2 to 5 Major Charles Whittlesey and 554 men were cut off from all other U S units and attacked by German forces in an area known as The Pocket Written with a view toward bringing this legendary tale to a more personal level the work creates a vivid picture of the men who lived fought and died in the final all consuming battle of World War I The Great War and Modern Memory Paul Fussell,2013-08-08 A new edition of Paul Fussell s literate literary and illuminating account of the Great War now a classic text of literary and cultural criticism The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2001

Killing Time Nicholas J Saunders,2011-11-08 The Great War of 1914 1918 now stands at the furthest edge of living memory And yet hardly a month passes without some dramatic and sometimes tragic discovery being made along the old killing fields of the Western Front Graves of British soldiers buried during battle still lying in rows seemingly arm in arm or found crouching at the entrance to a dugout whole underground cities of trenches dugouts and shelters have been preserved in the mud field hospitals carved out of the chalk country of the Somme marked with graffiti unexploded bombs and gas canisters all of these are the poignant and sometimes deadly legacies of a war we can never forget Killing Time digs beneath the surface of war to uncover the living reality left behind Nicholas J Saunders brings together a wealth of discoveries to offer fresh insights into the human and often barbaric aspect of warfare He uses discoveries in the trenches family photographs diaries and souvenirs to give the dead a voice You cannot fail to be fascinated and moved by what he unearths

Library Journal ,2000 The Great War in Post-Memory Literature and Film Martin Löschnigg,Marzena Sokolowska-Paryz,2014-10-14 The twenty seven original contributions to this volume investigate the ways in which the First World War has been commemorated and represented internationally in prose fiction drama film docudrama and comics from the 1960s until the present The volume thus provides a comprehensive survey of the cultural memory of the war as reflected in various media across national cultures addressing the complex connections between the cultural post memory of the war and its mediation In four sections the essays investigate 1 the cultural legacy of the Great War including its mythology and iconography 2 the implications of different forms and media for representing the war 3 national memories foregrounding the differences in post memory representations and interpretations of the Great War and 4 representations of the Great War within larger temporal or spatial frameworks focusing specifically on the ideological dimensions of its remembrance in historical socio political gender oriented and post colonial contexts The Great War and Memory in Central and South-Eastern Europe Oto Luthar,2016-03-21 This volume presents a series of chapters about the Great War and memory in Central and South Eastern Europe which will widen the insufficient and spotty representations of the Great War in that region The contributors deliver an important addition to present day scholarship on the more or less unknown war in the Balkans and at the Italian fronts Although it might not completely fill the striking gap in the historical representations of the situation between the Slovene Italian So a Isonzo river in the North West and the Greek Macedonian border mountains around Mount Kajmak alan in the South East it will add significantly to the scholarship on the Balkan theatre of war and provide a much needed account of the suffering of civilians ideas loyalties and cultural hegemonies as well as memories and the post war memorial landscape The contributors are Vera Gudac Dodi Silviu Hariton Vijoleta Herman Kauri Oto Luthar Olga Manojlovi Pintar Ahmed Pa i Ign c Romsics Daniela Schanes Fabio Todero Nikolai Vukov and Katharina Wesener

Choice ,2001 Belgian Museums of the Great War Karen Shelby,2017-09-20 Belgian Museums of the Great War Politics Memory and Commerce examines the handling of the centennial of World War I by several museums along the Western Front in Flanders Belgium In the twenty first century the museum has become a strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledge produced in local settings The specific focus on museums and commemorative events in Flanders allows for an in depth evaluation of how each museum works with the remembrance and tourist industry in the region while carving a unique niche Belgian Museums of the Great War writes the history of these institutions analyzes the changes made in advance of the anniversary years and considers the site specificity of each institution and its architectural frame Since museums not only transmit information but also shape knowledge as Eileen Hooper Greenhill has noted the diverse narratives and community programs sponsored by each museum have served to challenge prior historiographies of the war Through newly revamped interactive environments self guided learning and an emphasis on the landscape the museums in Flanders have a significant role to play in the ever changing dialogue on the meaning of the history and remembrance of the Great War From Incarceration to Repatriation Susan C. I. Grunewald,2024-07-15 From Incarceration to Repatriation explores the lives and memories of the nearly 1.5 million German POWs who were held by the Soviet Union during and after World War II and released in phases through 1956 seven years longer than the prisoners of any other Allied nation Susan C I Grunewald argues that Soviet leadership deliberately kept able bodied German POWs to supplement their labor force after the end of the war The Soviet Union lost 27 million citizens and a quarter of its physical assets during the war motivating Soviet leadership to harness the labor of German POWs for as long as possible Engaging with recently declassified documents in former Soviet archives archival material from multiple German governments as well as innovative use of digital humanities methods and geographic information system GIS mapping Grunewald demonstrates that Soviet authorities detained German POWs primarily for economic rather than punitive reasons In fact the GIS mapping of the historical materials makes it clear that most of the four thousand POW camps across the USSR were strategically located near industrial infrastructure and natural resource sites that were critical to postwar economic reconstruction From Incarceration to Repatriation is the first book to draw together the distinct fields of Soviet and German history to provide a more nuanced and comprehensive understanding of German POW captivity in the USSR during and after World War II

Attending to the ways that the memory of German POWs remains in circulation in both the former Soviet Union and Germany Grunewald tracks the political repercussions of war commemoration Markers ,2002 The Routledge Handbook of Sensory Archaeology Robin Skeates,Jo Day,2019-10-28 Edited by two pioneers in the field of sensory archaeology this Handbook comprises a key point of reference for the ever expanding field of sensory archaeology one that surpasses previous books in this field both in scope and critical intent This Handbook provides an extensive set of specially commissioned chapters each of which summarizes and critically reflects on progress made in this dynamic field during the early years of the twenty first century The authors identify and discuss the key current concepts and debates of sensory archaeology providing overviews and commentaries on its methods and its place in interdisciplinary sensual culture studies Through a set of thematic studies they explore diverse sensorial practices contexts and materials and offer a selection of archaeological case studies from different parts of the world In the light of this the research methods now being brought into the service of sensory archaeology are re examined Of interest to scholars students and others with an interest in archaeology around the world this book will be invaluable to archaeologists and is also of relevance to scholars working in disciplines contributing to sensory studies aesthetics anthropology architecture art history communication studies history including history of science geography literary and cultural studies material culture studies museology philosophy psychology and sociology The Great War in History Jay Winter,Antoine Prost,2020-12-03 This revised and updated edition of The Great War in History provides the first survey of historical interpretations of the Great War from 1914 to 2020 It demonstrates how the history of the Great War has now gone global and how the internet revolution has affected the way we understand the conflict Jay Winter and Antoine Prost assess not only diplomatic and military studies but also the social and cultural interpretations of the war across academic and popular history family history and public history including at museums on the stage on screen in art and at sites of memory They provide a fascinating case study of the practice of history and the first survey of the ways in which the Centenary deepened and deflected both public and professional interpretations of the war This will be essential reading for scholars and students in history war studies European history and international relations A Memoir of Brigadier-General Walter Long ; Foreword by Field-Marshal Earl French ,1921
