William Watson James G. Nelson, 1966 The American Bookseller, 1904 The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 Roger L'Estrange and the Making of Restoration Culture Beth Lynch, 2017-03-02 Roger L Estrange 1616 1704 was one of the most remarkable significant and colourful figures in seventeenth century England Whilst there has been regular if often cursory scholarly interest in his activities as Licenser and Stuart apologist this is the first sustained book length study of the man for almost a century L Estrange's engagement on the Royalist side during the Civil war and his energetic pamphleteering for the return of the King in the months preceding the Restoration earned him a reputation as one of the most radical royalist apologists As Licenser for the Press under Charles II he was charged with preventing the printing and publication of dissenting writings his additional role as Surveyor of the Press authorised him to search the premises of printers and booksellers on the mere suspicion of such activity He was also a tireless pamphleteer journalist and controversialist in the conformist cause all of which made him the b te noire of Whigs and non conformists This collection of essays by leading scholars of the period highlights the instrumental role L Estrange played in the shaping of the political literary and print cultures of the Restoration period Taking an interdisciplinary approach the volume covers all the major aspects of his career as well as situating them in their broader historical and literary context By examining his career in this way the book offers insights that will prove of worth to political social religious and cultural historians as well as those interested in seventeenth century literary and book history Writing and Religion in England, 1558-1689 Anthony W. Johnson, 2016-02-17 The fruit of intensive collaboration among leading international specialists on the literature religion and culture of early modern England this volume examines the relationship between writing and religion in England from 1558 the year of the Elizabethan Settlement up until the Act of Toleration of 1689 Throughout these studies religious writing is broadly taken as being communicational in the etymological sense that is as a medium which played a significant role in the creation or consolidation of communities Some texts shaped or reinforced one particular kind of religious identity whereas others fostered communities which cut across the religious borderlines which prevailed in other areas of social interaction For a number of the scholars writing here such communal differences correlate with different ways of drawing on the resources of cultural memory The denominational spectrum covered ranges from several varieties of Dissent through via media Anglicanism to Laudianism and Roman Catholicism and there are also glances towards heresy and the mid seventeenth century s new atheism With respect to the range of different genres examined the volume spans the gamut from poetry fictional prose drama court masque sermons devotional works theological treatises confessions of faith church constitutions tracts and letters to history writing and translation Arranged in roughly chronological order Writing and Religion in England 1558 1689 presents chapters which explore religious writing within the wider contexts of culture ideas attitudes and law as well as studies which concentrate more on the texts and readerships of particular writers Several contributors embrace an inter arts orientation relating writing to liturgical ceremony painting music and architecture while others opt for a stronger sociological slant explicitly emphasizing the role of women writers and of writers from different sub cultural backgrounds The Book of Authors William Clark Russell, 18?? The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English Rajeev S. Patke, Philip Holden, 2009-09-10 The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English traces the development of literature in the region within its historical and cultural contexts establishing connections from the colonial activity of the early modern period through to contemporary writing across nations such as Thailand China Malaya Singapore and Hong Kong English Poetry: Its Principles and Progress Charles Mills Gayley, Clement Calhoun Young, 1904 English Poetry Charles Mills Gayley, Clement Calhoun Young, 1906 The Encyclopedia of English Renaissance Literature, 3 Volume Set Garrett A.
