Wiseman,2009-12-21

Various definitions of leadership have transformed the way that educators around the world think about teaching administration and policy over the years This title investigates the changing face of educational leadership from comparative and international perspectives Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman,James Joseph Scheurich,2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

The Instructional Leadership Toolbox Sandra Lee Gupton,2010 I applaud Gupton s focus on the learner This is the most important tenet for a school administrator s decision making Each chapter describes a portion of school leadership that the successful principal needs to master Sharon Madsen Redfern PrincipalHighland Park Elementary School Lewistown MT Use these powerful leadership tools to build teamwork and improve instruction Every school leader needs a toolbox of strategies for improving teaching and learning schoolwide In this second edition of The Instructional Leadership Toolbox Sandra Lee Gupton examines the role of principals in leading instruction and provides practical ways for leaders to reflect on and improve their practice Emphasizing a democratic approach that involves stakeholders in instructional leadership this resource offers a compendium of helpful skills and strategies drawn from current research and theory in school administration The book provides Updated standards from NAESP and ISLLC New research that shows how a principal s actions can affect student achievement Questions for reflective practice Quotes and examples of instructional leadership strategies by practicing principals and veteran educators Additional resources such as Web sites workbooks books and articles This valuable guide provides a blueprint that demonstrates how school leaders can focus on student learning while using specific tools to empower others and build teams for a common goal increased student achievement     Reshaping the Landscape of School Leadership Development Philip Hallinger, 2003-01-01 Reshaping the Landscape of School Leadership Development A Global Perspective traces developments in this arena as they evolved since 1980 The book is comprised of chapters authored by the leading scholars in the fields of educational leadership and school leadership development from the United States Canada Europe Asia and Australia The vol     The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley, Olof Johansson, 2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower's long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume
