Guy, Elizabeth Higginbotham, Lynn Weber, 1994 Library Journal ,1993 Comparative Education Reader Edward R. Beauchamp, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Differently Academic? Sue Jackson, 2013-03-09 Lifelong learning is a key feature of society today and is apparently embraced by a wide range of educators and trainers as well as by governments and employers In this wide ranging book Sue Jackson shows that universities have been slow to embrace a lifelong learning agenda and argues that the lifelong learning experiences of women and especially of working class students are seldom welcomed in the academy In its unique considerations of the experiences of women students and academics this book expounds an innovative and critical analysis of women in higher education It will give a clear indication of alternative strategies for learners teachers and policy makers This book will be of key interest to anyone working in the fields of lifelong learning or continuing education who is interested in making learning accessible and meaningful for disadvantaged groups It will also appeal to students of education women s studies gender studies and sociology and to those interested in issues of gender social class feminist theory and feminist research The Accidental Theorist Patricia J. Thompson, 2002 The Accidental Theorist first in a Hestia trilogy introduces the Hestian Hermeneutic Dual Systems Paradigm as a lens of analysis through which to view the private public and the familial political in feminist philosophy and theory Tracing the split between the oikos and the polis in fifth century BCE Greece Professor Thompson identifies two consistent orientations in human life toward the homeplace symbolized by Hestia and the marketplace symbolized by Hermes She proposes that a complementary hestianeutic be added to conventional hermeneutic interpretations of texts These dual orientations are as significant as gender for interpreting the phenomena of everyday life They form the basis of an alternative perspective she calls Hestian Feminism as a prolegomenon to a new humanism for the new millennium The SAGE Encyclopedia of Psychology and Gender Kevin L. Nadal, 2017-04-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Psychology and Gender is an innovative exploration of the intersection of gender and psychology topics that resonate across disciplines and inform our everyday lives This encyclopedia looks at issues of gender identity and psychological processes at the individual as well as the societal level exploring topics such as how gender intersects with developmental processes both in infancy and childhood and throughout later life stages the evolution of feminism and the men s movement the ways in which gender can affect psychological outcomes and influence behavior and more With articles written by experts across a variety of disciplines this encyclopedia delivers insights on the psychology of gender through the lens of developmental science social science clinical and counseling psychology sociology and more This encyclopedia will provide librarians students and professionals with ready access to up to date information that informs some of today s key contemporary issues and debates These are the sorts of questions we plan for this encyclopedia to address What is gender nonconformity What are some of the evolutionary sex differences between men and women How does gender based workplace harassment affect health outcomes How are gender roles viewed in different cultures What is third wave feminism

Judith Butler and Education Deborah Youdell, 2020-04-22 The work of Judith Butler has been at the forefront of both theorising the subject as a product of power and explicating possibilities for political alliances and action that are available to such subjects Mobilising a range of philosophical resources from Hegel and Foucault to Lacan Levinas Wittig and Arendt her work has held a core concern with the way that the subject is made in terms of sex gender and sexuality and has been an invaluable resource in the development of queer theory and thinking about queer practice Butler's scholarly work has been aimed primarily at a philosophical audience yet her insights into the constitution constraint and agency of subjects are profoundly political and have become invaluable resources in feminist queer anti racist and anti capitalist work Over the last two decades she has been a major influence on research concerned with social justice in education and has changed the ways that classroom practices and relationships can be understood transforming the way we think about both teacher and student This collection brings together some of the most outstanding work in education that has developed and applied Butler's work to empirical questions translating her philosophy for an education audience and providing compelling analyses of the ways that the subjects of education are made how inequalities are produced in the minutiae of practice and how education's subjectivated subjects can act politically The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in Taylor and Francis journals
