Canepa, 1999-01-05 From Court to Forest is a critical and historical study of the beginnings of the modern literary fairy tale From Court to Forest is a critical and historical study of the beginnings of the modern literary fairy tale Giambattista Basile's Lo cunto de li cunti written in Neapolitan dialect and published in 1634-36 comprises fifty fairy tales and was the first integral collection of literary fairy tales to appear in Western Europe It contains some of the best known fairy tale types such as Sleeping Beauty Puss in Boots Cinderella and others many in their earliest versions Although it became a central reference point for subsequent fairy tale writers such as Perrault and the Grimms as well as a treasure chest for folklorists Lo cunto de li cunti has had relatively little attention devoted to it by literary scholars Lo cunto constituted a culmination of the erudite interest in popular culture and folk traditions that permeated the Renaissance But even if Basile drew from the oral tradition he did not merely transcribe the popular materials he heard and gathered around Naples and in his travels He transformed them into original tales distinguished by vertiginous rhetorical play abundant representations of the rituals of everyday life and the popular culture of the time and a subtext of playful critique of courtly culture and the canonical literary tradition This work fills a gap in fairy tale and Italian literary studies through its rediscovery of one of the most important authors of the Italian Baroque and the genre of the literary fairy tale Through a Forest of Chancellors Anne Burkus-Chasson,2020-10-26 Liu Yuan s Lingyan ge a woodblock printed book from 1669 re creates a portrait gallery that memorialized 24 vassals of the early Tang court Liu accompanied each figure presented under the guise of a bandit with a couplet the poems written in various scripts are surrounded by marginal images that allude to a contemporary novel Religious icons supplement the portrait gallery Liu s re creation is fraught with questions This study examines the dialogues created among the texts and images in Lingyan ge from multiple perspectives Analysis of the book s materialities demonstrates how Lingyan ge embodies rather than reflects the historical moment in which it was made Liu unveiled and even dramatized the interface between manuscript and printed book in Lingyan ge Authority over the book s production is negotiated asserted overturned and reinstated Use of pictures to construct a historical argument intensifies this struggle Anne Burkus Chasson argues that despite a general epistemological shift toward visual forms of knowledge in the seventeenth century looking and reading were still seen as being in conflict This conflict plays out among the leaves of Liu Yuan s book House of Faith or Enchanted Forest? Charles W. Hedrick,2009-01-01 Since the Renaissance of the 14th through 17th centuries and particularly since the Enlightenment of the 18th century the ancient creeds of faith have been under serious fire and the struggle has not gone well for popular religion in America The rapid advances made by the physical sciences in the 19th and 20th centuries and the corresponding reliance on scientific accomplishments in American life have been matched by the growing influence of reason in the way Americans think about religion Except for pockets of resistance these developments have negatively influenced the practical role of traditional religion in American life These essays published over a twenty year period as newspaper editorials addressed to the general public confront popular beliefs and morals with the challenge of human reason At issue in this meeting of faith and reason is nothing less than the nature of religion in the twenty first century Will faith embrace reason to create a House where both dwell in harmony or will faith ignore the claims of reason and continue to live in an Enchanted Forest Each essay written in the practical language of the streets attempts to dialogue with the general reader and gently provoke critical thinking on sensitive issues of belief
