Christa Knellwolf, Christopher Norris

Fateful Question Of Culture:

The Fateful Question of Culture Geoffrey H. Hartman, 1997 One of our most incisive critics asks where the assault against the canons of Western culture has led us Other scholars have written about literature after Auschwitz but none has brought to this dire subject Hartman's combination of knowledge thoughtfulness scope and scruple Denis Donoghue author of CONNOISSEURS OF CHAOS

Between Terror and Freedom Simona Goi, Frederick Michael Dolan, 2006-01-01 In this volume Simona Goi and Frederick M Dolan gather stimulating arguments for the indispensability of fiction including poetry drama and film as irreplaceable sites for wrestling with nature meaning shortcomings and the future of modern politics Between Terror and Freedom brings to the surface an understanding of modernity as a multifaceted and dynamic narrative as it relates to politics philosophy and fiction Collecting essays across fields Goi and Dolan challenge strict disciplinary boundaries This is not meant to be read as another contribution to the debate of whether literature is can or should be political Between Terror and Freedom instead reveals how literature illuminates and expands our understanding of philosophical and political questions Political theorists philosophers cultural scholars and rhetoricians offer a fresh perspective on the questions of our age and the paradoxes of modernity when they read literature

A Life Composed André Schüller, 2002 The modern literary critic T S Eliot wrote in 1929 must be an experimenter outside of what you might at first consider his own province there is no literary problem which does not lead us irresistibly to larger problems This book follows Eliot's principle and situates his literary and critical work in a wide context that reveals manifold links between aesthetics ethics politics and epistemology the historical context of early twentieth century idealism vitalism and pragmatism especially the intensely political Bergsonian controversy and the modern context of the philosophies of Charles Taylor Michel Foucault and Richard Rorty Knowledge it argues was verbalised in the modernist age individualised into the act of knowing an act with motives and goals and thus introduced into the realm of ethics a process central to twentieth century thought Eliot's poems especially constructed as a life composed a literary lifetime linking composition and composure ponder the virtue of precision the sins of pride and mental sloth the temptation of prejudice and the need for conviction Decidedly tentative Eliot's poems solve the problem of morally significant literature In a century of suspicion they ask the crucial question of where one should start to rely

Wordsworth Translated John Williams, 2011-11-03 British writers of the Romantic Period were popular in Germany throughout the nineteenth century and translations of Scott Burns Moore Hemans and Byron among others became widespread This study analyses the reception of William Wordsworth's poetry in 19th century Germany in relation to other romantic poets Research into Anglo German cultural relations has tended to see Wordsworth as of little or no interest to Germany but new research shows that Wordsworth was clearly of interest to German poets translators and readers and that there was significantly more knowledge of and respect for Wordsworth's poetry and interest in his ideas and beliefs than has previously been recognised Williams focuses particularly on the work of Friedrich

Jacobsen Ferdinand Freligrath and Marie Gothein who span the early middle and late years of the century respectively and establishes the wider presence of many others translating anthologising and commenting on Wordsworth poetry and beliefs

Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age Emory Elliott, Lou Freitas Caton, Jeffrey Rhyne, 2002-01-10 Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age examines a variety of significant multidisciplinary and multicultural topics within the subject of aesthetics Addressing the vexed relation of the arts and criticism to current political and cultural concerns the contributors to this volume attempt to bridge the two decades old gap between scholars and critics who hold conflicting views of the purposes of art and criticism By exploring some of the ways in which global migration and expanding ethnic diversity are affecting cultural productions and prompting reassessment of the nature and role of aesthetic discourse this volume provides a new evaluation of aesthetic ideas and practices within contemporary arts and letters

Nationalism and the Israeli State Don Handelman, 2020-06-11 National festivals Military parades Patriotic memorials Such public events and tributes naturally bring to mind the idea of nationalism But what is the cultural logic behind them How does a country such as Israel facilitate state related public events as enactments of nationalism To answer these questions renowned anthropologist Don Handelman unpacks the meaning of national ritual and symbol in Israel today He argues that public events mirror social order a mirror that reflects to its participants and audiences the message that the designers of such events wish to communicate Handelman considers the meaning of Holocaust and military memorialism and he investigates the role of holiday celebrations especially how they affect young children first learning about their country Analyzing state ceremonies such as Holocaust Remembrance Day for the war dead and Independence Day he notes the absence of minorities and examines their significance in the promotion of a national identity He also looks at how Israel exports powerful symbols of statehood Throughout Handelman develops his theory of bureaucratic logic as the driving force behind expressions of nationalism in the modern state He argues that bureaucratic logic has a much wider cachet than simply functioning as a way of thinking only about bureaucratic institutions The logic is crucial to how these institutions function but more so it is a dominant force in forming modern state social order Bureaucratic logic is used incessantly to invent and to modify all kinds of systems of classification that often have profound consequences for individuals and for groups and that are ritualized powerfully through a host of state related public events

Essays from the Edge Martin Jay, 2011-06-03 The result is a lively diverse offering from an extraordinary intellect Richard Wolin the Graduate Center City University of New York author of The Wind from the East French Intellectuals the Cultural Revolution and the Legacy of the 1960s Great Walls of Discourse and Other Adventures in Cultural China Haun Saussy, 2020-03-23 China and the West us and them the subject and the non subject these and other dualisms furnish China watchers both inside and outside China with a pervasive ready made set of definitions immune to empirical disproof But what does this language of essential difference accomplish The essays in this book are an attempt to cut short the recitation of differences and to answer this question In six interpretive studies of China the author examines the ways in which the networks of assumption and consensus that make communication possible within a discipline affect collective thinking about the object of study Among other subjects these essays offer a historical and historiographical introduction to the problem of comparison and deal with translation religious proselytization semiotics linguistics cultural bilingualism writing systems the career of postmodernism in China and the role of China as an imaginary model for postmodernity in the West Against the reigning simplifications these essays seek to restore the interpretation of China to the complexity and impurity of the historical situations in which it is always caught The chief goal of the essays in this book is not to expose errors in interpreting China but to use these misunderstandings as a basis for devising better methodologies for comparative studies

Situatedness, or, Why We Keep Saying Where We're Coming From David Simpson, 2002-01-09 A distinguished critic explores the term situatedness the self's position in time and place in the world and its treatment seen in legal theory social science literature and philosophy

Shadows of Ethics Geoffrey Galt Harpham, 1999 Collection of essays on our contemporary tendency to revisit Enlightenment concerns and the ways attributes of the highest reason ethics high cultural aesthetics even theory have become implicated with and confused with the lowes Geoffrey Hartman Pieter Vermeulen, 2010-07-26 Geoffrey Hartman Romanticism after the Holocaust offers the first comprehensive critical account of the work of the American literary critic Geoffrey Hartman The book aims to achieve two things first it charts the whole trajectory of Hartman's career now more than half a century long while playing close attention to the place of his career in broader cultural and intellectual contexts second it engages with contemporary discussions about ecology ethics trauma the media and community in order to argue that Hartman's work presents a surprisingly consistent and original position in current debates in literary and cultural studies Vermeulen identifies a persistent belief in the potency of aesthetic mediation at the heart of Hartman's project and shows how his work repeatedly reasserts that belief in the face of institutional cultural and intellectual factors that seem to deny the singular importance of literature The book allows Hartman to emerge as a major literary thinker whose relevance extends far beyond the domains of Romanticism of literary theory and of trauma studies

Mary, Star of Evangelization Jacob Phillips, 2018 Mary Star of Evangelization not only outlines the theories behind key strategies for conducting the new evangelization in considerable depth and detail but reveals the fundamentally Marian texture that they share

Making Light Raymond Knapp, 2018-02-07 Raymond Knapp traces the musical legacy of German Idealism as it led to the declining prestige of composers such as Haydn while influencing the development of American popular music in the nineteenth century showing how the existence of camp in Haydn and American music offer ways of reassessing Haydn's oeuvre

Development, Poverty of Culture, and Social Policy B. Mohan, 2011-02-14 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of complex issues constructs and interventions that deal with human social problems with global implications It posits social development theory and practice in a critically important context challenging the scientific orthodoxy of our times

Matters of Revolution Dominik Bartmanski, 2022-03-30 Symbols matter and especially those present in public spaces but how do they exert influence and maintain a hold over us Why do such materialities count even in the intensely digitalized culture This book considers the importance of urban symbols to political revolutions examining manifold reasons for which social movements necessitate the affirmation or destruction of various material icons and public monuments What explains variability of life cycles of certain classes of symbols Why do some of them seem more potent than others Why do people exhibit nostalgic attachments to some symbols of the controversial past and vehemently oppose others What nourishes and threatens the social life of icons Through comparative analyses of major iconic processes following the epochal revolution of 1989 in Berlin and Warsaw the book argues that revolutionary action needs objects and sites which concretize the transformative redrawing of the symbolic boundaries between the sacred and profane good and evil before and after and progressive and reactionary the symbolic shifts that every revolution implies in theory and formalizes in practice Public symbols ensconced within actual urban spaces provide indispensable visibility to human values and social changes As affective topographies that externalize collective feelings their very presence and durability is meaningful and so are the revolutionary rituals of preservation and destruction directed at those spaces Far from being mere gestures or token signifiers they have their own gravity with profound cultural ramifications This volume will appeal to sociologists anthropologists geographers and social theorists with interests in urban studies public heritage material culture political revolution and social movements

Dalhuisen on Transnational Comparative, Commercial, Financial and Trade Law Volume 1 Jan H Dalhuisen, 2014-07-18 This is the fifth edition of the leading work on transnational and comparative commercial and financial law covering a wide range of complex topics in the modern law of international commerce finance and trade As a guide for students and practitioners it has proven to be unrivalled Since the fourth edition the work has been divided into three volumes each of which can be used independently or as part of the complete work Volume one covers the roots and foundations of private law the different orientations and structure of civil and common law the concept forces and theoretical basis of the transnationalisation of the law in the professional sphere the autonomous sources of the new law merchant or modern lex mercatoria its largely finance driven impulses and its relationship to domestic public policy and public order requirements Volume two deals with transnational contract movable and intangible property law Volume three deals with financial products and financial services with the structure and operation of modern commercial and investment banks and with financial risk stability and regulation including the fall out from the recent financial crisis and regulatory responses in the US and Europe All three volumes may be purchased separately or as a single set From the reviews of previous editions synthesizes and integrates diverse bodies of law into a coherent and accessible account remarkable in its scope and depth It stands alone in its field not only due to its comprehensive coverage but also its original methodology Although it appears to be a weighty tome in fact in light of its scope it is very concise While providing a wealth of intensely practical information its heart is highly conceptual and very ambitious likely to become a classic text in its field American

Journal of Comparative Law Dalhuisen's style is relaxed what he writes convinces without the need for an excess of references to sources a highly valuable contribution to the legal literature It adopts a useful modern approach to teaching the young generation of lawyers how to deal with the increasing internationalisation of law It is also helpful to the practising lawyer and to legislators Uniform Law Review Revue de Droit Uniforme this is a big book with big themes and an author with the necessary experience to back them up Full of insights as to the theories that underlie the rules governing contract property and security it is an important contribution to the law of international commerce and finance Law Quarterly Review presents a very different case that of a civilized and cultivated cosmopolitan legal scholar with a keen sense of international commercial and financial practice with an in depth grounding in both comparative legal history and comparative law combined with the ability to transcend conventional English black letter law description with critical judgment towards institutional wisdom and intellectual fashions a wide ranging historically and comparatively very deep and comprehensive commentary but which is also very contemporary and forward looking on many or most of the issues relevant in modern transnational commercial contract and financial transactions International and Comparative Law Quarterly This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service Vernacular Palaver Moradewun Adejunmobi, 2004-01-01 Adejunmobi highlights the continuing appeal of local identities for participants in social networks where communication occurs in languages that are not mother tongues He shows how in West Africa notions of localness locality remain important despite the growing prominence of global languages Religion, Politics, and Globalization Galina Lindquist, Don Handelmann, 2012-11 While social scientists beginning with Weber envisioned a secularized world religion today is forthrightly becoming a defining feature of life all around the globe The complex connections between religion and politics and the ways in which globalization shapes these processes are central themes explored in this volume by leading scholars in the field of religion Does the holism of numerous past and present day cosmologies mean that religions with their holistic orientations are integral to human existence What happens when political ideologies and projects are framed as transcendental truths and justified by Divine authority How are individual and collective identities shaped by religious rhetoric and what are the consequences Can mass murder deemed terrorism be understood as a form of ritual sacrifice and if so what are the implications for our sensibilities and practices as scholars and citizens Using empirical material from historical analyses of established religions to the everyday strife of marginalized groups such as migrants and dissident movements this volume deepens the understanding of processes that shape the contemporary world Inventing Politics Juri Mykkanen, 2003-05-31 How did early nineteenth century foreigners understand Hawaiian chiefly politics What kinds of cultural resources did Hawaiians themselves have to make sense of their own structures of domination and those of the West What was the outcome in political terms of the encounter between Hawaiians and foreigners To answer these questions this volume takes readers on an ethnographic journey through Hawaii's early contact period It begins by exploring the translation work done by American Protestant missionaries who played a central role in bridging cultural differences between Hawaiians and Westerners. Evangelicalism and liberal capitalism set the stage for constructing political images of a pagan society and the present work follows the subsequent evolution and transformation of these images. Inventing Politics is a theoretical statement of a new kind of political anthropology. Through an extensive use of primary sources including many contemporary Hawaiian language newspapers and dictionaries it argues that what informs our current understanding of politics was already present in the early nineteenth century encounters between Hawaiians and foreigners: a reading that translates seemingly apolitical events into the language of politics and speaks to the fundamental question of whether politics is a functional aspect of every society or an invention based on specific cultural meanings and interests.

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 9, Twentieth-Century Historical, Philosophical and Psychological Perspectives Christa Knellwolf, Christopher Norris, 1989. This ninth volume in The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism presents a wide ranging survey of developments in literary criticism and theory during the last century. Drawing on the combined expertise of a large team of specialist scholars it offers an authoritative account of the various movements of thought that have made the late twentieth century such a richly productive period in the history of criticism. The aim has been to cover developments which have had greatest impact on the academic study of literature along with background chapters that place those movements in a broader intellectual, national and socio cultural perspective. In comparison with Volumes Seven and Eight also devoted to twentieth century developments there is marked emphasis on the rethinking of historical and philosophical approaches which have emerged especially during the past two decades as among the most challenging areas of debate.
