Essays on Poetry Ralph J. Mills, 2003 Taken from throughout Mills's career the essays collected in this volume delve into the work of such influential writers as Wallace Stevens Denise Levertov Samuel Beckett Galway Kinnell Edith Sitwell Theodore Roethke Karl Shapiro Richard Wilbur Isabella Gardener James Wright David Ignatow Donald Hall Robert Bly Philip Levine and Stanley Kunitz Mills examines how the personal element informs the works of these writers and enables them to speak to us without impediment from the deep center of a personal engagement with existence

Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry Alan Bleakley, Shane Neilson, 2024-05-02 The Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry draws on an international selection of authors to ask what the cultures of poetry and medicine may gain from reciprocal critical engagement The volume celebrates interdisciplinary inquiry critique and creative expansion with an emphasis upon amplifying provocative and marginalized voices This carefully curated collection offers both historical context and future thinking from clinicians poets artists humanities scholars social scientists and bio scientists who collectively inquire into the nature of relationships between medicine and poetry Importantly these can be both productive and unproductive How for example do poet doctors reconcile the outwardly antithetical approaches of bio scientific medicine and poetry in their daily work where typically the former draws on technical language and associated thinking and the latter on metaphors How does non narrative lyrical poetry engage with narrative based medicine How do poets writing about medicine identify as patients Central to the volume is the critical investigation of the consequences of varieties of medical pedagogy for clinical practice Presenting a vision of how poetic thinking might form a medical ontology this thought provoking book affords an essential resource for scholars and practitioners from across medicine health and social care medical education the medical and health humanities and literary studies

The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Israeli Poetry of the Holocaust Yair Mazor, 2008 The fact that the Holocaust poetry discussed here is also Israeli poetry makes the book even more important and relevant One may cogently argue that the state of Israel was established on the ashes of the Holocaust If so the fact that contemporary Israeli poetry is dedicated to the topic of the Holocaust celebrates the victory of humankind over Nazi atrocities This book should be of interest to students teachers and scholars of the Holocaust modern Hebrew Israeli poetry and literature in general BOOK JACKET

Classical Presences in Irish Poetry after 1960 Florence Impens, 2018-01-02 This book provides the first overview of classical presences in Anglophone Irish poetry after 1960 Featuring detailed studies of Seamus Heaney Michael Longley Derek Mahon and Eavan Boland including close readings of key poems it highlights the evolution of Irish poetic engagements with Greece and Rome in the last sixty years It outlines the contours of a movement which has transformed Irish poetry and accompanied its transition from a postcolonial to a transnational model from sporadic borrowings of images and myths in the poets early attempts to define their own voices to the multiplication of classical adaptations since the late 1980s at first at a time of personal and political crises notably in Northern Ireland and more recently as manifestations of the poets engagements with European and other foreign literatures

Sylvia Plath Linda Wagner-Martin, 2013-04-15 This set comprises 40 volumes covering 19th and 20th century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes

This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995      The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth-Century Poetry William Fogarty,2022-07-30 The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth Century Poetry Local Tongues in Heaney Brooks Harrison and Clifton argues that local speech became a central facet of English language poetry in the second half of the twentieth century It is based on a key observation about four major poets from both sides of the Atlantic Seamus Heaney Gwendolyn Brooks Tony Harrison and Lucille Clifton all respond to societal crises by arranging reproducing and reconceiving their particular versions of local speech in poetic form The book s overarching claim is that local tongues in poetry have the capacity to bridge aesthetic and sociopolitical realms because nonstandard local speech declares its distinction from the status quo and binds people who have been subordinated by hierarchical social conditions while harnessing those versions of speech into poetic structures can actively counter the very hierarchies that would degrade those languages The diverse local tongues of these four poets marshaled into the forms of poetry situate them at once in literary tradition in local contexts and in prevailing social constructs      The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton,Alan Gillis,2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century s poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years      The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 1 John Donne,Gary A. Stringer,Paul A. Parrish,2005-12-01 Praise for previous volumes This variorum edition will be the basis of all future Donne scholarship Chronique This is the 4th volume of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne to appear This volume presents a newly edited critical text of the Holy Sonnets and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne s time through 1995 The editors identify and print both an earlier and a revised authorial sequence of sonnets as well as presenting the scribal collection which contains unique authorial versions of several of the sonnets inscribed by Donne s friend Rowland Woodward in the Westmoreland manuscript
