Hassell Bullock,David Howard Jr.,Herbert Wolf,2007-09-01 This package contains all four books of An Introduction to the Old Testament set An Introduction to the Old Testament Historical Books An Introduction to the Old Testament Poetic Books An Introduction to the Old Testament Prophetic Books and An Introduction to the Old Testament Pentateuch In An Introduction to the Old Testament Historical Books incredible events amazing love stories larger than life personalities and deep theological implications and themes are just part of the treasure that awaits readers These books tell the story of the nation of Israel and the God who loves her punishes her and always brings this recalcitrant people back to Himself In An Introduction to the Old Testament Poetic Books C Hassell Bullock a noted Old Testament scholar delves deep into the hearts of the five poetic books offering readers helpful details such as hermeneutical considerations for each book theological content and themes detailed analysis of each book and cultural perspectives In An Introduction to the Old Testament Prophetic Books C Hassell Bullock presents a clear picture of some of history s most profound spokesmen the Old Testament prophets and the God who shaped them Our generational distance from the age of the prophets might seem to be a measureless chasm Yet we dare not make the mistake of assuming that passing years have rendered irrelevant not only the Old Testament prophets but also the God who comprehends spans and transcends all time In An Introduction to the Old Testament Pentateuch Old Testament expert Herbert Wolf provides layreaders and scholars alike with a strong undergirding of understanding and knowledge in this introduction that reveals both the seriousness and excitement of the Pentateuch

Genesis: a New Interpretation of the First Three Chapters Nathan Kravitz,1967 The Bible With and Without Jesus - Participant Guide Dr. Marc Zvi Brettler,Amy-Jill Levine,2025-06-03 Scholars show how Jews and Christians read the same texts differently This participant guide introduces the main text and further Scripture commentary and reflection questions It along with the leader guide and DVD is everything needed for an engaging study for your small group In this Bible study based on their book The Bible With and Without Jesus esteemed Bible scholars and teachers Amy Jill Levine and Marc Zvi Brettler take readers on a guided tour of the most popular Hebrew Bible passages quoted in the New Testament to show what the texts meant in their original contexts and then how Jews and Christians over time understood those same texts Passages include the creation of the world the role of Adam and Eve the Suffering Servant of Isaiah the book of Jonah and Psalm 22 whose words My God my God why have you forsaken me Jesus quotes as he dies on the cross Comparing various interpretations historical literary and theological of each ancient text Levine and Brettler offer deeper understandings of the original narratives and their many afterlives They show how the text speaks to different generations under changed circumstances illuminating the Bible s ongoing significance By understanding the depth and variety by which these passages have been and can be understood The Bible With and Without Jesus does more than enhance our religious understandings it helps us to see the Bible as a source of inspiration for any and all readers The Science of Correspondence Elucidated Edward Madeley,1902 War Time Preaching and Teaching Jeffrey J. Richards,2012-10-22 War Time Preaching and Teaching explores the hermeneutics science of interpretation and homiletics art of preaching of both Rudolf Bultmann and Dietrich Bonhoeffer The book explores the thought and impact of these two theologians primarily within the American debate Both Bultmann and Bonhoeffer are somewhat misunderstood and it seems that they are either totally accepted or rejected depending in many instances on one s personal understanding of their method of biblical interpretation The book attempts to objectively view their methods of biblical interpretation and how they expressed their research in their writings preaching and teaching Both concluded that the presenting of the Gospel in a relevant manner is the ultimate need for humankind today Both lived during a most challenging period of world history but were able to communicate in a captivating manner Certainly the times in which we live today call fro those who possess a similar commitment Creation and the Fall Donald

Department of Bibliography,1978 Moses among the Moderns ,2024-04-30 A historic lawgiver and founder of an ancient nation Moses was powerful and pivotal in the imagination of modern Germany The late eighteenth to early twentieth century was an intense period of religious controversy especially on the Jewish question with new models for understanding faith science and the past This volume focuses on the identification of Jewish law both Pentateuch and Talmud with the figure of Moses to trace the fascinations and anxieties of the Bible in modern culture Through diverse perspectives it examines the representations and appropriations of Moses as a father of Judaism and framer of European civilization The Battle for the Beginning John F. MacArthur,2005-03-20 The battle lines have been drawn Is the enemy winning Thanks to the theory of evolution writes best selling author John MacArthur naturalism is now the dominant religion of modern society Less than a century and a half ago Charles Darwin popularized the credo for this secular religion Naturalism has now replaced Christianity as the main religion of the Western world and evolution has become its principal dogma Many Christians who claim to believe that the Bible is God s revealed truth seem willing to allow modern scientific theories to replace the Genesis account of creation Such compromises present a conspicuous danger Bible teacher and pastor John MacArthur believes that in Genesis 1:3 we find the foundation of every doctrine that is essential to the Christian faith the vital underpinnings for everything we believe The Battle for the Beginning draws a clear line on today s theological landscape Everything in Scripture that teaches about sin and redemption assumes the literal truth of the first three chapters of Genesis If we wobble to any degree on the truth of this passage John MacArthur insists we undermine the very foundations of our faith The Devil Wins Dallas G. Denery,2016-09-13 A bold retelling of the history of lying in medieval and early modern Europe Is it ever acceptable to lie This question plays a surprisingly important role in the story of Europe s transition from medieval to modern society According to many historians Europe became modern when Europeans began to lie that is when they began to argue that it is sometimes acceptable to lie This popular account offers a clear trajectory of historical progression from a medieval world of faith in which every lie is sinful to a more worldly early modern society in which lying becomes a permissible strategy for self defense and self advancement Unfortunately this story is wrong For medieval and early modern Christians the problem of the lie was the problem of human existence itself To ask Is it ever acceptable to lie was to ask how we as sinners should live in a fallen world As it turns out the answer to that question depended on who did the asking The Devil Wins uncovers the complicated history of lying from the early days of the Catholic Church to the Enlightenment revealing the diversity of attitudes about lying by considering the question from the perspectives of five representative voices the Devil

God theologians courtiers and women Examining works by Augustine Bonaventure Martin Luther Madeleine de Scudéry Jean Jacques Rousseau and a host of others Dallas G Denery II shows how the lie long thought to be the source of worldly corruption eventually became the very basis of social cohesion and peace

Messianic 'I' and Rastafari in New Testament Dialogue Delano Vincent Palmer, 2010-04-13 Anyone familiar with the Rastafari movement and its connection with the Bible is struck by the prevalence of messianic I locution found in both As the phenomenon is important in the canonical Testaments more so within the New Testament this study seeks to investigate its significance in certain epistolary pieces Romans 7 14 25 15 14 33 the biographical Narratives and the Apocalypse in their historical and cultural milieu The next stage of the investigation then compares the findings of the aforementioned New Testament books with corresponding statements of the Rasta community in order to determine their relevance for the ongoing Anglophone theological enterprise In sum this study seeks to bring into critical dialogue the permutative messianic I of the New Testament with the self understanding of Rastafari

Creation and the Environment Calvin Redekop, 2003-04-01 Recent years have seen a shift in the belief that a religious world view specifically a Christian one precludes a commitment to environmentalism Whether as stewards of God's creation or champions of environmental justice church members have increasingly found that a strong pro ecology stand on environmental issues is an integral component of their faith But not all Christian denominations are latecomers to the issue of environmentalism In Creation and the Environment Calvin W Redekop and his co authors explain the unique environmental position of the Anabaptists in particular the Mennonites After a brief survey of the major forces contributing to the world's present ecological crisis Creation and the Environment explores the uniquely Anabaptist view of our relationship to what they see as the created order In rural Amish and Mennonite communities they explain the environment especially the land is considered part of the Kingdom God plans to establish on earth In this view the creation is part of the divine order with the redemption of humankind inextricably linked to the redemption and restoration of the material world The well being a purpose of creation and human history are thus seen as completely interdependent Contributors Donovan Ackley III Claremont Graduate School Kenton Brubaker Eastern Mennonite University Thomas Finger Claremont Graduate School Karen Klassen Harder Bethel College Kansas James Harder Bethel College Kansas Lawrence Hart Cheyenne Cultural Center Clinton Oklahoma Theodore Hiebert McCormick Theological
