Daniel A. DuBour

Edge Of Heaven:

The End of the Church? Hannah Marije Altorf, John Reuben Davies, Tibor Fabiny, Michael Fuller, Trevor Hart, Alison Jack, Elisabeth Jay, Lori A. Kanitz, Vassiliki Kolocotroni, Ann Loades, Margaret Masson, Donald Orr, Jeremy J. Smith, Heather Walton, 2022-12-01 These 14 essays by scholars who have worked with David Jasper in both church and academy develop original discussions of themes emerging from his writings on literature, theology and hermeneutics. The arts institutions, literature and liturgy are among the subject areas they cover.

The Edge of Light Daniel A. DuBour, 2011-06-23 Have you ever wondered what happens after you pass from this life into the next? Some may say there is no next and others would say you just fall asleep and wake up in heaven. I have heard others say you go to a different world or you are born again into this world. The following short stories are experiences certain individuals might have. Though seemingly impossible to some and maybe so, but the stories themselves can apply to anyone. The names, places and circumstances are fictional.

Every End a Beginning Karen E. Holmes, 2005-12-30

The Global Auteur Seung-hoon Jeong, Jeremi Szaniawski, 2016-06-16 A thorough and robust reassessment of the auteur figure in the age of global cinema.

Making Worlds Claudia Breger, 2020-04-14 The twenty-first century has witnessed a resurgence of economic inequality, racial exclusion and political hatred, causing questions of collective identity and belonging to assume new urgency. In Making Worlds, Claudia Breger argues that contemporary European cinema provides ways of thinking about and feeling collectivity that can challenge these political trends. Breger offers nuanced readings of major contemporary films such as Michael Haneke's The White Ribbon, Alejandro González Iñárritu's Biutiful, Fatih Akın's The Edge of Heaven, Asghar Farhadi's A Separation and Aki Kaurismäki's refugee trilogy, as well as works by Jean-Luc Godard and Rainer Werner Fassbinder. Through a new model of cinematic worldmaking, Breger examines the ways in which these works produce unexpected and destabilizing affects that invite viewers to imagine new connections among individuals or groups. These films and their depictions of refugees, immigrants and communities do not simply counter dominant political imaginaries of hate and fear with calls for empathy or solidarity. Instead, they produce layered sensibilities that offer the potential for greater openness to others, present, past and future claims. Drawing on the work of Latour, Deleuze and Rancière, Breger engages questions of genre and realism along with the legacies of cinematic modernism. Offering a rich account of contemporary film, Making Worlds theorizes the cinematic creation of imaginative spaces in order to find new ways of responding to political hatred.

Postcolonial Film Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, Peter Hulme, 2014-02-24 Postcolonial Film: History, Empire, Resistance examines films of the later twentieth and early twenty-first centuries from postcolonial countries around the globe. In the mid-twentieth century, the political reality of resistance and decolonization led to the creation of dozens of new states, forming a backdrop to films of that period. Towards the century's end and at the dawn of the new millennium, film continues to form a site for interrogating colonization and decolonization, though against a backdrop that is now more neo-colonial than colonial and more culturally imperial than imperial This volume explores how individual films emerged from and commented on postcolonial spaces and the building and breaking down of the European empire Each chapter is a case study examining how a particular film from a postcolonial nation emerges from and reflects that nation's unique postcolonial situation This analysis of one nation's struggle with its coloniality allows each essay to investigate just what it means to be postcolonial

Melodrama in Contemporary Film and Television M. Stewart, 2014-07-03 Melodrama in Contemporary Film and Television debates the ways in which melodrama expresses and gives meaning to trauma and pathos memory and historical re-visioning home and borders gendered and queer relations the family and psychic identities the national and emerging public cultures and morality and ethics

On the Edge of Forever, 2001-08 The author deciphers the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation and shows how they allow us to understand the ebb and flow of history He explains Revelation's dragon the mark of the beast the signs that mark the end of the world and the millennium

Migration In, From, and to Southeastern Europe Klaus Roth, Robert Hayden, 2011 Migrations have moulded Balkan societies In the multiethnic empires migrations were very common and in the modern era economic reasons led millions of people to go abroad as overseas emigrants before World War I as Gastarbeiter in the 1960s and 70s or as economic migrants since 1990 In addition many people had to leave their homes as political refugees or as victims of ethnic cleansing But Balkan countries were and are also hosts to immigrants and refugees and they have witnessed enormous rural urban migrations This volume the first part of a selection of conference papers focusses on historical and cultural aspects of migration in from and to Southeastern Europe

Disjointed Perspectives on Motherhood Catalina Florina Florescu, 2013-10-29 Disjointed Perspectives on Motherhood presents the accounts of mothers who have suffered a major physical and or psychically traumatic accident and as a consequence their minds and bodies have been drastically changed They live under the pressure of having discovered the alter ego of their traumatized personality and now distressed cannot embrace their unconditional maternal love Instead they enter into a phase where they face the challenge of revealing who they are as persons before accepting or motivating themselves as mothers The mothers presented in this volume also seem to have another thing in common their transnational fluid female identity as they enter into an imaginary dialog that transcends geographical and temporal perspectives on womanhood and motherhood This collection introduces and analyzes recurrent words that define a woman's body and mind today fear competition motherhood and career rights selfishness ambition destruction distance and identity By using unprecedented comparative critical approaches such as phenomenological medical feminist and re-enchantment theories and by analyzing works from literature cinema and visual arts this collection attempts to reestablish and redefine a canonical concept with the intention to revitalize an otherwise taken for granted image and role

Fatih Akin's Cinema and the New Sound of Europe Berna Gueneli, 2019-01-09 In Fatih Akin's Cinema and the New Sound of Europe Berna Gueneli explores the transnational works of acclaimed Turkish German filmmaker and auteur

Fatih Ak n The first minority director in Germany to receive numerous national and international awards Ak n makes films that are informed by Europe s past provide cinematic imaginations about its present and future and engage with public discourses on minorities and migration in Europe through his treatment and representation of a diverse multiethnic and multilingual European citizenry Through detailed analyses of some of Ak n s key works In July Head On and The Edge of Heaven among others Gueneli identifies Ak n s unique stylistic use of multivalent sonic and visual components and multinational characters She argues that the soundscapes of Ak n s films including music and multiple languages dialects and accents create an aesthetic of heterogeneity that envisions an expanded and integrated Europe and highlights the political nature of Ak n s decisions regarding casting settings and audio At a time when belonging and identity in Europe is complicated by questions of race ethnicity religion and citizenship Gueneli demonstrates how Ak n s aesthetics intersect with politics to reshape notions of Europe European cinema and cinematic history Pentecostal Hymns Henry Date,1894

The Zohar Michael Laitman,2009-01-01 The wisdom of Kabbalah teaches us how to perceive and live in the reality that spreads before us It is a systematic method that has evolved over thousands of years nurtured by individuals whose task was to ensure that the true wisdom would be given to those ready to receive it The Book of Zohar The Book of Radiance is an ageless source of wisdom and the basis for all Kabbalistic literature Since its appearance nearly 2 000 years ago it has been the primary and often only source used by Kabbalists Written in a unique and metaphorical language The Book of Zohar enriches our understanding of reality and expands our worldview However this text should not be read in an ordinary fashion We should patiently and repeatedly read and think about each sentence as we try to penetrate the author s feelings We should read it slowly and try to extract the nuances of the text Although the text deals with one subject only how to relate to the Creator it approaches it from different angles This allows each of us to find the particular phrase or word that will carry us into the depths of this profound and timeless wisdom Edge of Eternity Valencia McMahon,2022-02-10 Imagine Being Pulled Into a dark and deep web full of pain and grief Death is seemingly all around you Imagine having a constant unshakable feeling that you would soon be next After experiencing devastating losses of the people I loved the most I had come face to face with one of life s crossroads Now at a turning point after a series of crises I found myself questioning my faith and asking myself if there was a God Engaged in a battle against the enemy of humanity I had to decide if the faith I once proclaimed to have was faith or was I merely proclaiming faith because of what my eyes were able to see and my mind understands So I put God on trial to see if He the omnipotent one would vindicate Himself Our Lady of Babylon John Rechy,2013-05-07 A funny sexy stylistically elegant tongue in cheek rewriting of history from the New York Times bestselling author of City of Night Booklist A retelling of the stories of the fallen women of history recounted by an eighteenth century lady who realizes that these women s lives bear a remarkable resemblance to her own Told by a mystic that her dreams are memories of past lives she must face the public to vindicate all women falsely accused of crimes Mr Rechy s renditions of these seemingly familiar stories can be surprisingly fresh creating an ominous sense of tragedy and doom The New York Times Book Review With a colorful ribbon of feminist revisionism festooning its New Age wrapping Rechy s latest novel indulges in past life grandiosity and some scandalous speculation about the erotic lives of Adam Medea and Jesus among others Publishers Weekly Subversive and quite funny A fictional absolution of women known historically as whores framed by a deadly serious look at erotic history and a formidable exploration of the power of words and their interpretation to alter our existence Booklist Rechy writes gracefully and sometimes poignantly of the fate of fallen women over the centuries The Washington Post The Journal of Germanic Philology Gustaf E. Karsten,1902 The Other in Contemporary Migrant Cinema Guido Rings,2016-01-08 As a rapidly aging continent Europe increasingly depends on the successful integration of migrants Unfortunately contemporary political and media discourses observe and frequently also support the development of nationalist eurosceptic and xenophobic reactions to immigration and growing multiethnicity Confronting this trend European cinema has developed and disseminated new transcultural and postcolonial alternatives that might help to improve integration and community cohesion in Europe and this book investigates these alternatives in order to identify examples of good practices that can enhance European stability While the cinematic spectrum is as wide and open as most notions of Europeanness the films examined share a fundamental interest in the Other In this qualitative film analysis approach particular consideration is given to British French German and Spanish productions and a comparison of multiethnic conviviality in Chicano cinema The Queen of Heaven's Daughter Mary Trepanier,2018-05 What does it take to wake a sleeping demon A couple of college kids a lot of angst and a bit of karma Joanie pays her tuition bills with her body It helps that she s talented and loves the work She manages to keep her work separate from her private life until she meets Clayton At first glance he s a typical college john but he s magic in bed The last thing she needs though is to fall for a client It doesn t help that Joanie is also entranced by the lovely Cleo an initiate of Inanna Clayton excels in his engineering classes but he yearns for love When he meets Joanie he can t believe his luck But he has a hard time wrapping his head around her job and her other loves What none of them knows is that Clayton s anguished loneliness has awakened Puabi Ekur a gender bending demon whose past life is intricately linked to Joanie s As a succubus incubus Puabi Ekur takes matters into their own hands to push Clayton and Joanie together But balance must be maintained in the order of all things and Puabi Ekur is not the only supernatural force to come to the party Powerful djinn and magics collide in this sexy urban fantasy set in Seattle The Universal Restoration Elhanan Winchester,1844
