Enterprising Africa Stephen Dobson, Paul Jones, Daniel Agyapong, Gideon Maas, 2020-12-30 Enterprising Africa explores the future opportunities challenges growth areas and key themes that will shape entrepreneurship in the African continent over the next decade Entrepreneurship can be the key to unlock resilient growth but only if it is driven by both socially productive and growth oriented new businesses The book considers entrepreneurship as an enabler for socio economic growth and development in Africa especially in the context of youth unemployment and increasing youth population for which the traditional and indeed emerging industrial sectors will not be able to produce sufficient jobs to meet demand Organised around three thematic parts Part I covers the notion of inclusive growth and the role that entrepreneurs can play supporting this Part II considers the dynamic between entrepreneurs and the environment since social economic and environmental concerns need to build upon each other rather than vie for recognition Finally Part III offers chapters exploring policy contexts and the wider institutional ecosystems that need to be developed and enhanced to ensure a strong and vibrant environment for the future entrepreneurs of Africa to thrive Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this fascinating text will be of interest to academics as well as students of International Transformational and Social Entrepreneurship and International and African Business West Africa, 1980

Pillars of the Nation Kristen E. Cheney, 2008-09-15 How can children simultaneously be the most important and least powerful people in a nation In her innovative ethnography of Ugandan children the pillars of tomorrow's Uganda according to the national youth anthem Kristen E Cheney answers this question by exploring the daily contradictions children face as they try to find their places amid the country's rapidly changing social conditions Drawing on the detailed life histories of several children Cheney shows that children and childhood are being redefined by the desires of a young country struggling to position itself in the international community She moves between urban schools music festivals and war zones to reveal how Ugandans are constructing childhood as an empowering identity for the development of the nation Moreover through her analysis of children's rights ideology national government strategy and children's everyday concerns Cheney also shows how these young citizens are vitally linked to the global political economy as they navigate the pitfalls and possibilities for a brighter tomorrow

Schooling and Education in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2004 Using the Ghanaian schooling experience as a case study this book explores how research can contribute to the development of a body of knowledge for educational change in Africa Education in Africa is often said to be in a crisis caused in part by the colonial legacy but also due to inappropriate and uncontextualised current educational policies in relation to local human conditions and African realities This book offers a critical analysis of current educational reform strategies and the actual practice of reform in an African context Research in Education ,1974 A Bibliography on Education in Development and Social Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Mark A. Grey,1989 This reference includes 700 sequentially numbered entries gleaned from journals institutions and other bibliographies during research at major collections of Africana It includes country and subject indexes Resources in Education ,2001-04 Education and Training Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.
