Encyclopedia of Educational Research H. E. Mitzel,1982 Educational Research: Ethics, Social Justice, and Funding Dynamics Paul Smeyers,Marc Depaepe,2018-03-22 This book examines the conduct and purposes of educational research It looks at values of researchers at whose interests are served by the research and the inclusion or exclusion of practitioners and subjects of research It asks if educational research should be explicitly committed to promoting equality and inclusion and whether that requires research to be more aware of the cultural and global contexts of research questions It explores the ethical challenges encountered in the conduct of research and the potential ethical and social justice constraints imposed by comparative research rankings Next it discusses the research funding aspects of the above issues both philosophically and historically thus examining the changing sources patterns and effects of educational research funding over time Since the conduct of most educational research increasingly requires institutional and financial support the question is whether funding shapes the content of research and what counts as research The book discusses if funding is a factor in the shift of efforts of researchers from pure or basic research to more applied research and if it encourages the development of large research teams to the detriment of individual scholars It looks at the ownership of the content results and data of publicly funded research Finally it tries to establish whether scholars solicit funding to support research projects or generate research projects to attract funding This publication as well as the ones that are mentioned in the preliminary pages of this work were realized by the Research Community Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education Purposes Projects and Practices of Educational Research

Educational Research and Policy: How Do They Relate? Torsten Husén, Maurice Kogan, 2014-05-17

Educational Research and Policy How do They Relate contains the proceedings of a four day symposium held at Wijk Lidingo Stockholm in June 1982 Before presenting the papers reported at the symposium this book first tackles the main issues in the relationship between policymaking and research This text also elucidates models of interaction policy systems and policy proposals The papers of the symposium are then presented collectively in the last part Generalizations derived from empirical cases discussed in the symposium are also shown

Philosophy of Educational Research Richard Pring, 2014-09-20 This classic text in educational research literature has been thoroughly updated to take into account new philosophical theories and the current political context for educational research Remaining however are the three key central themes the nature of social science in general the nature of educational enquiry in particular and the links between the language and concepts of research on the one hand and those of practice and policy on the other In analyzing and interrelating these themes Richard Pring shows their relationship to such central philosophical concepts as meaning truth and objectivity

Educational Research: Material Culture and Its Representation Paul Smeyers, Marc Depaepe, 2014-02-10 This collection discusses and illustrates how educational research is affected by the economic institutional and physical contingencies of its time and in our time even increasingly is driven by them It is argued that the antidote to this is however not to aspire to thought itself but instead to do justice to its own rootedness in the material including textuality From an historical point of view such an innovative approach can itself revamp the material scholarly culture and the way it is represented The chapters address a variety of topics such as the cultural heritage of the school desk the significance of images for research into long term educational processes the way iconic signs function and how modes of enquiry relate to the materiality of education Attention is also given to standards for reporting on educational research studies and how these limit the scope and communication and moreover shape researchers to the forms of citation practices as substantially influencing methods and content and to the centrality of conversation not just as the means to an end but as what matters further to representational and to non representational theories for educational research Some examples are drawn from the area of arts based educational research from mathematics education and from the discourse on universities

The Journal of Educational Research ,1927 An Introduction to Educational Research Chad R. Lochmiller, Jessica N. Lester, 2015-12-11 Written specifically for education practitioners An Introduction to Educational Research Connecting Methods to Practice approaches research methods from a practice first perspective that aligns research with professional experiences and identifies the tools and resources readers can use when conducting their own research Throughout the book authors Chad R Lochmiller and Jessica N Lester illuminate complex research concepts using problems of practice confronting educators to help readers make meaningful connections with key concepts and research practices The authors present balanced coverage across research methodologies that is linked to practice so readers clearly see research as a tool they can use to improve classrooms schools districts and educational organizations
