Aspects of Private Education in Modern China Weiwei Kou,2003 Christianity and Education in Modern China Wong Man Kong,George Kam Wah Mak,2024-12-11 In Christianity and Education in Modern China Wong Man Kong George Kam Wah Mak and other contributors demonstrate how Christianity served as a driving force in the development of modern education in China Each of the chapters offers new insights into Christian involvement in different issues concerning education in modern China The contributors examine how Christian missionaries and Chinese Christian educators interacted with China s social cultural and political contexts Also explored are the Christian legacies of higher education in mainland China and Taiwan as well as how the spirit of Christian higher education in modern China has been carried on in Asia This volume suggests that Western missionary and Chinese Christian perspectives of higher education were complementary with each other in modern China. Timely and informative. Christianity and Education in Modern China tells the stories of less known Christian educators, development experts and researchers who indigenized global knowledge and skills to address Chinese problems. Its masterful narratives and analytical details highlight the transformative influence of Christianity on Chinese educational sphere. Joseph Tse-Hei Lee, Pace University in New York. Rich and broad. This interdisciplinary volume holds a prism to Protestant Christian higher education in modern China. Extending also to the Hong Kong and Taiwan regions, its twelve chapters offer many new insights across the whole spectrum of educational activity in Chinese society in the twentieth century. A rewarding read. Ryan Dunch, University of Alberta.

Citizenship and Education in Contemporary China Yeow-Tong Chia, Zhenzhou Zhao, 2023-05-31. A key objective of education in China is to cultivate one's moral values with the ultimate objective of becoming fully human. Unlike the West which regards moral cultivation as related to but separate from citizenship cultivation, East Asia including China views moral and citizenship cultivation as synonymous. The essays in this book offer various perspectives on and understandings of Chinese citizenship and education by a group of scholars of Chinese heritage situated inside and outside of China. They offer compelling evidence and rich theoretical discussions about the practice of teaching citizenship in the state education, the interplay between citizenship and China's cultural and religious traditions and the construction of citizenship from the groups from marginal positions. The book uses citizenship as a lens to examine the pressing issues of identity, democracy, religion and cosmopolitanism and sheds new light on China's ongoing social and educational changes. Thinking through citizenship and citizenship education may act as an important driving force to transform the culture and paradigms of governance in China and the new meanings of becoming fully human. This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Education, Politics, Sociology and Public Policy. The chapters in this book were originally published in various Routledge journals.

Urban Schools and English Language Education in Late Modern China Miguel Pérez-Milans, 2013-07-24. Shortlisted for the 2014 BAAL Book Prize. This book explores the meaning of modernization in contemporary Chinese education. It examines the implications of the implementation of reforms in English language education for experimental urban schools in the People's Republic of China. Pérez-Milans sheds light on how national linguistic and cultural ideologies linked to modernization are being institutionally reproduced, legitimated and interpersonally negotiated through everyday practice in the current context of Chinese educational reforms. He places special emphasis on those reforms regarding English language education with respect to the economic processes of globalization that are shaping and being shaped by the contemporary Chinese nation-state. In particular the book analyzes the processes of institutional categorization of the good experimental school the good student and the appropriate knowledge that emerge from the daily discursive organization of those schools with special attention to the related contradictions uncertainties and dilemmas Thus it provides an account of the on going cultural processes of change faced by contemporary Chinese educational institutions under conditions of late modernity Winner of The University of Hong Kong s Faculty Early Career Research Output Award for outstanding book publication by the Faculty of Education

Property Ownership and Private Higher Education in China Spring Su, 2011-05-13 Recent decades have witnessed the proliferation in China of huge numbers of private universities and colleges in response to a wide ranging spectrum of socio economic and political demands under the country s flourishing market economy and its wholesale pursuit of decentralization This book explores the issue of property ownership an area which is regarded as an essential element in the attraction into the sector of local private institutions and foreign partnerships as well as in facilitating the future development of the country s existing institutions The focus throughout this book is primarily on the legal economic managerial and financial aspects of the relevant issues as well as other related topics such as consumer protections and fund raising activities A feasibility analysis and discussion is also provided on for profit universities and their potential market niches in China in recognition of the fact that the current regulations which allow private universities to maintain a non profit status whilst actually enjoying profit returns clearly provides some legitimacy to the phenomenon of for profit in disguise It is argued in this book that such quasi profit regulations may further exacerbate profiteering behavior whilst it is also noted that in the short term there is a clear need to provide adequate protections within the apparent hybrid version of an ownership system a system characterized by a mix of capitalism and socialism through the adoption of a definitive legal framework within which economic actors can coordinate their efforts through a mutually understood framework of action Finally it is clear that in the transition from the rule of the people to the rule of law legislation practices and compliance do not always go hand in hand in China thus the healthy development of the educational sector will undoubtedly require some time as well as the introduction of complementary mechanisms for such legislation to be fully enforced in practice This book concludes A History of Democratic Education in Modern China Lu-chai Chung, 1934 Modern China I. W. Mabbett, 2024-11-01 Most writing on modern China dwells on those aspects which are new to China since the Communist takeover stressing above all politics Marxism economic and agricultural development First published in 1985 Modern China argues that all this writing creates a false impression of what present day China is really like This book contends that much of traditional China remains particularly at the grass roots level and that Buddhism and the Buddhist tradition continue to exert an influence Politics in communist China is best understood in the context of this tradition Throughout arguments are supported by revealing how tradition continues in the economy in society and the family by examining in detail the Buddhist tradition and by using the case study of education to show the interplay between modern and customary forces Modern China Geeta

Kochhar,2019-02-12 This book looks at the transition of modern Chinese society in terms of its culture and literature Since the economic reforms and open door policy in 1978 the Chinese society has undergone a drastic transformation It is headed towards becoming an ultra modern advanced society and a world superpower Among the pillars of great change are the advances in technology and communication that have reshaped Chinese society This volume explores China s march towards modernity in the 21st century as defined by its own terms It discusses China s social structure ageing population gender stratification marriages cultural identity cosmopolitanism its history of communism law economic reforms financial institutions and challenges of the global markets The book sheds light on Chinese literature and media and brings out various facets of social changes across time With its topical debates and issues this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of Chinese studies East Asian studies geopolitics area studies international relations politics and foreign policy along with think tanks and those in media and journalism Reproductive Realities in Modern China Sarah Mellors

Rodriguez,2023-01-19 Sarah Mellors Rodriguez explores how ordinary people navigated China s shifting fertility policies before and during the One Child Policy era The Cambridge Handbook of Contemporary China Colin Mackerras,Amanda Yorke,1991-05-02

The paradox of contemporary China its openness to Western technology yet its rejection of Western democratic ideals serves to make China appear remote and inaccessible to those outside The country s vast area and population only accentuate these difficulties The Cambridge Handbook of Contemporary China presents topical information on all aspects of Chinese life since 1949 with particular emphasis on the 1980s its major strength is its contemporary focus and easy to use format Useful maps and tabled statistics accompany the text which is divided into clearly defined categories Designed for students specialists educationalists journalists and those in business and government as well as the general reader the Handbook provides easy access to information on all areas of Chinese life and is a good starting point for research

Education and Democracy in China Zhou Ying,2023-12-11 In this book Ying Zhou argues that educational reform filled a critical role in bridging the precarious gap between democratic ideals and political realities in late Qing and Republican China where institutional change in education and the cultivation of a qualified citizenry were two sides of the same coin in the development of democratic education Through a multi level analysis of the re arrangements of national education and teachings of citizenship Zhou unravels the complex political and educational nexus in China between 1901 1937 where the hope of education was to bring both political modernity and social progress
