Learning English and Chinese as Foreign Languages Wen-Chuan Lin, 2019-09-19

Learning English and Chinese is becoming increasingly important to the prospects of young people. This book compares English as a Foreign Language teaching in Taiwan with Chinese as a Foreign Language education in England in order to highlight how classroom activities are embedded within multiple settings including ethnic or other social group cultures, family and community resources, and school visions or goals. The book illustrates how in Taiwan different ethnic groups recognise access and value English language learning to varying extents. Its findings illuminate why some ethnic groups are highly motivated to learn English and are able to gain privileged economic positions in the job market. In England access to Chinese is marked by social class and the book argues that this could augment an educational apartheid that already exists in language teaching in secondary schools, thereby exacerbating existing inequality. INSCOM Journal, 1995 Textual Strategies Josue V. Harari, 2019-06-30

A stellar cast of fifteen contributors seeks to show the direction in which continental and continentally oriented American literary criticism has evolved in recent years. Nine of the essays are published here for the first time; five of the remaining six were translated by the editor from the French; only one has previously appeared in English. The essays make available some of the most important and most representative work that has been done in the wake of structuralism. Among the topics treated are the relationships between semiology and literature, anthropology and literature, and psychoanalysis and literature; modern American poetics; algebraic models as epistemological operators; the modes of production of a poem; Flaubert's view of history and poetic language. Professor Harari has arranged the essays to move from the general to the particular and from the abstract to the concrete. In an informative and ambitious introduction he discusses each essay in relation to the whole and explains the interrelationships among the various theories and strategies that are represented in the anthology. A book meant for the specialist as well as the novice, for the teacher of literature and criticism as well as the student. Textual Strategies is a brilliant introduction to post-structuralist critical theories and practices. Books in Print, 1982 Tibet

Hattaway, 2022-08-30. God's Mighty Acts in China. This book is believed to be the first attempt to present an overview of all Christian activity in Tibet throughout history. The Tibetan Plateau is mountainous, inaccessible, and vast—three times the land area of the UK but with only one-tenth of the population. Most Tibetans claim to be Buddhists, but for many, Buddhism is a veneer over older, darker beliefs. The spiritual realm is a daily reality in Tibet. There are only tiny numbers of Tibetan Christians, but the Roof of the World has a long and remarkable Christian history. Paul Hattaway recounts the stories of the many courageous, tenacious men and women who have attempted to exalt the Name of Jesus Christ in Tibet against overwhelming odds and in the face of powerful spiritual forces This is the fourth volume in The China Chronicles which tell the modern history of the Church in China The China Chronicles Series Book 1 Shandong Book 2 Guizhou Book 3 Zhejiang Book 4 Tibet Book 5 Henan Book 6 Xinjiang Postmodernism: Disciplinary texts : humanities and social sciences Victor E.
