Korotayev, 2016-01-01 The present volume is the fifth in the series of yearbooks with the title Globalistics and Globalization Studies The subtitle of the present volume is Global Transformations and Global Future We become more and more accustomed to think globally and to see global processes And our future can all means be global However is this statement justified Indeed in recent years many have begun to claim that globalization has stalled that we are rather dealing with the process of anti globalization Will not we find ourselves at some point again in an edifice spanning across the globe but divided into national apartments separated by walls of high tariffs and mutual suspicion Of course some setbacks are always possible because the process of globalization cannot develop smoothly It is a process which is itself emerging from contradictions and is shaped by a new contradiction They often go much further than underlying systemic changes allow They break forward as the vanguard of a victorious army and then often meet resistance of various social and political forces and may suddenly start to roll back just at the moment when everyone expects their further offensive We believe that this is what is happening with globalization at present The yearbook will be interesting to a wide range of researchers teachers students and all those who are concerned about global issues offer given the current ecological and refugee crises among others In sum then the Companion provides a tool for thinking with Arendt but also for showing just where those thinking with her can take her work today
