The Theatrical Legacy of Thomas Middleton, 1624-2024 William David Green,Anna L. Hegland,Sam Jermy,2024-04-02 This volume celebrates Thomas Middleton s legacy as a dramatist marking the 400th anniversary of Middleton s final and most contentious work for the public theatres A Game at Chess 1624 The collection is divided into three sections Critical and Textual Reception Afterlives and Legacies and Practice and Performance This division reflects the book s holistic approach to Middleton s canon and its emphasis on the continuing significance of Middleton s writing to the study of early modern English drama Each section offers an assessment of the place of Middleton's drama in culture criticism and education today through a range of critical approaches. Featuring work from a range of voices from early career independent and seasoned academics and practitioners, the collection will be appropriate for both specialists in early modern literature and drama who are interested in both theory and practice and students or scholars researching Middleton's historical significance to the study of early theatre. Contiguity, Connectivity and Access Suranjan Das, Anita Sengupta, 2022-12-28. This volume examines themes like contemporary factors shaping the emergence of the Bay of Bengal region as a critical strategic theatre in Indian foreign policy, the inter-connectedness of the Indian and Pacific Oceans, the importance of oceans to security and commerce, and India's role within the broader region, the twenty-first century maritime Silk Road and Indian alternatives, and the possibilities of reconnecting disconnected spaces through re-imagining a Bay of Bengal Community. In this connection, the volume takes particular note of the emerging regional cooperative order for the promotion of peace and development in the Bay of Bengal region, BIMSTEC. The volume brings together historians, political analysts, and political economists to emphasize the interconnectedness of the oceanic space through a detailed analysis of the Bay of Bengal as a space of strategic and economic significance, particularly for India, but also as a space for re-imagining a new regional community. Print edition not for sale in South Asia, India, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bangladesh, Pakistan, and Bhutan. Presidential Papers Liberia. President (1971-1980 : Tolbert), 1975. Face to Face Judi Fisher, Beth Shelton, 2002. Six years ago the Preston Creative Living Centre, a small community agency in the diverse northern suburbs of Melbourne, embarked upon a risky but exciting venture. It marshalled resources for people to engage in artistic and community processes together and became a performance venue for a series of vital and engaging performances. Over this time, the space has become alive, filled with people and activity. This book is about the partnerships between organisations, artists, and communities for community artmaking. It is the story of one organisation's experience with community performance making, from the philosophy that informs choices to the nitty-gritty of work. Making The Link David Kaimowitz, 2019-04-11. This book is about International Service for National Agricultural Research's ISNAR study to identify key factors that influenced the effectiveness and efficiency of links between research and technology transfer. It recommends ways to improve these links and reflects the progress made till date.
