Jaime Ongpin The Enigma A Profile Of The Filipino As Manager:

Jaime Ongpin, the Enigma Nick Joaquin, 1990      Southeast Asian Responses to Globalization Francis Kok-Wah Loh, Joakim Öjendal, 2005 Focuses on the globalization democratization nexus and shows how governance is being restructured and democracy sometimes deepened in this new global era      Coercion and Governance Muthiah Alagappa, 2001 This far ranging volume offers both a broad overview of the role of the military in contemporary Asia and a close look at the state of civil military relations in sixteen Asian countries It discusses these relations in countries where the military continues to dominate the political realm as well as others where it is disengaging from politics      The Philippines and the International Monetary Fund Negotiations on Petroleum and Imports Kenneth Faulve-Montojo, 2018-10-31 In their negotiations with the International Monetary Fund Philippine chief negotiators attempt to build coalitions to implement reform Deference and External Internal sequencing tactics are quite common but the theoretical literature has not examined the conditions under which they are effective or marginalized This study uses a Within Case Study Method of Causal Inference to examine twenty four observations from the years 1984 1994 that examine the interaction of the Philippine chief economic negotiators with the IMF the Chief of Governments international and domestic and cabinet and societal veto players on the issues of petroleum price and import reforms Through this approach the study rules out alternative deductive system level theories to explain economic outcomes refines the two level game framework generates a midrange typology on the pattern of successes and failures of the negotiations and provides recommendations on manipulable variables for policy makers The study suggests that these tactics are constrained by the leverage and signal provided by international veto players and the interaction between formal and informal domestic institutions      Public Choice Roel Lindingin, 2017-11-22 Public Choice The Life of Armand V Fabella in Government and Education chronicles the legacy of Armand V Fabella as a talented dedicated civil servant and educator who had worked with six presidents from Ramon Magsaysay in the 1950s to Gloria Macapagal Arroyo in the 2000s and as senior government adviser and Education secretary Penned by business journalist Roel Lindingin Public Choice is more than a biography of a remarkable Filipino who dedicated most of his life to public service It is also the story of Philippine economic policy making in the last half century      State and Society in the Philippines Patricio N. Abinales, Donna J. Amoroso, 2017-07-06 This clear and nuanced introduction explores the Philippines ongoing and deeply charged dilemma of state society relations through a historical treatment of state formation and the corresponding conflicts and collaboration between government leaders and social forces Patricio N Abinales and Donna J Amoroso examine the long history of institutional weakness in the Philippines and the varied strategies the state has employed to overcome its structural fragility and strengthen its bond with society The authors argue that this process reflects the country s recurring dilemma on the one hand is the state s persistent inability to provide essential services guarantee peace and order and foster economic development on the other is the Filipinos equally enduring suspicions of a strong state To many citizens this powerfully evokes the repression of the 1970s and the 1980s that polarized society and cost thousands of lives in repression and resistance and billions of dollars in corruption setting the nation back years in economic development and profoundly undermining trust in government The book's historical sweep starts with the politics of the pre colonial era and continues through the first year of Rodrigo Duterte's controversial presidency

Middle Class, Civil Society and Democracy in Asia Hsin-Huang Michael Hsiao, 2018-07-18 This book offers a timely analysis of the tripartite links between the middle class civil society and democratic experiences in Northeast and Southeast Asia It aims to go beyond the two popular theoretical propositions in current democratic theory which emphasise the bilateral connections between the middle class and democracy on one hand and civil society and democracy on the other Instead using national case studies this volume attempts to provide a new comparative typological interpretation of the triple relationship in Taiwan South Korea the Philippines Indonesia and Thailand Presenting a careful analysis and delineation of historical democratic transformation over the past thirty years three discernible typologies emerge Namely there are positive links in Taiwan and South Korea dubious links in the Philippines and Indonesia and negative links in Thailand Middle Class Civil Society and Democracy in Asia will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian politics and democracy

In the Name of Civil Society Eva-Lotta Hedman, 2005-11-30 In the Name of Civil Society examines Philippine politics in a highly original and provocative way Hedman's detailed analysis shows how dominant elites in the Philippines shore up the structures of liberal democracy in order to ensure their continued hegemony over Philippine society This book will be of interest to everyone concerned with civil society and the processes of democratization and democracy in capitalist societies Paul D Hutchcroft University of Wisconsin Madison What is the politics of civil society Focusing on the Philippines home to the mother of all election watch movements the original People Power revolt and one of the largest and most diverse NGO populations in the world Eva Lotta Hedman offers a critique that goes against the grain of much other current scholarship Her highly original work challenges celebratory and universalist accounts that tend to reify civil society as a unified and coherent entity and to ascribe a single meaning and automatic trajectory to its role in democratization She shows how mobilization in the name of civil society is contingent on the intercession of citizens and performative displays of citizenship as opposed to other appeals and articulations of identity such as class In short Hedman argues the very definitions of civil and society are at stake Based on extensive research spanning the course of a decade 1991-2001 this study offers a powerful analysis of Philippine politics and society inspired by the writings of Antonio Gramsci It draws on a rich collection of sources from archives interviews newspapers and participant observation It identifies a cycle of recurring crises of authority involving mounting threats from above and below to oligarchical democracy in the Philippines Tracing the trajectory of Gramscian dominant bloc of social forces Hedman shows how each such crisis in the Philippines promotes a countermobilization by the intellectuals of the dominant bloc the capitalist class the Catholic Church and the U S government In documenting the capacity of so called secondary associations business lay professional to project moral and intellectual leadership in each of these crises this study sheds new light on the forces and dynamics of change and continuity in Philippine politics and society     Staging Politics Julia C. Strauss, Donal B. Cruise O'Brien, 2007-04-27 This fresh and original study analyses how power presents itself in dramatic performance in these two increasingly economically and politically important continents Emotion and politics play a hugely important role in the politics of Asia and Africa but as this book sets out too much of western political research into the subject concentrates on apparent deficiencies on the weakness of institutions defects in the bureaucracy or markets poor management of elections absent judicial autonomy Viewing political performance through Western eyes in this way where politics is primarily about the naked pursuit of power and interests can lead to a misunderstanding of how politics actually works in Africa and Asia where process plays a far more important role Thus performance drama and emotion are far more integral to political outcome there than in the West By concentrating on this new perspective the authors each a recognised specialist in one or more states in Asia and Africa avoid this trap and offer a coherent picture of the impact political performance has on the culture and politics of these societies and how they function     Selected Filipiniana Books Feliciano L.
