Jakarta Shadows:

Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a re envisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies Jakarta Shadows Alan

Shadow Cold War Jeremy Friedman, 2015-10-15 The conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union during the Cold War has long been understood in a global context but Jeremy Friedman's Shadow Cold War delves deeper into the era to examine the competition between the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China for the leadership of the world revolution When a world of newly independent states emerged from decolonization desperately poor and politically disorganized Moscow and Beijing turned their focus to attracting these new entities setting the stage for Sino Soviet competition Based on archival research from ten countries including new materials from Russia and China many no longer accessible to researchers this book examines how China sought to mobilize Asia Africa and Latin America to seize the revolutionary mantle from the Soviet Union The Soviet Union adapted to win it back transforming the nature of socialist revolution in the process This groundbreaking book is the first to explore the significance of this second Cold War that China and the Soviet Union fought in the shadow of the capitalist communist clash Shadow Currents Logan Archer,2024-10-14 In Shadow Currents covert intelligence operative Ben Porter balances high stakes global missions with a peaceful coastal lifestyle where his passion for surfing offers a rare escape from the shadows But when deadly drone technology is stolen by ruthless arms dealer Anton Petrov Ben is pulled back into the world of international espionage where failure could destabilize entire regions Partnering with international agencies Ben must prevent Petrov from auctioning the tech to dangerous buyers As the mission intensifies Ben s double life between covert operations and the serenity of the waves begins to unravel The choices he faces will threaten not only global security but the peaceful life he s fought to maintain A thrilling blend of espionage personal conflict and adventure Shadow Currents offers a unique twist on the classic spy thriller set against the backdrop of sun surf and international intrigue Contact With Shadow Stephen Black,2013-10-28 It s a double pleasure to read this First there s the joy of gleaning nuggets of knowledge about Singapore and the printed word hitherto unknown and second there s the childlike wonder of never knowing what Stephen Black has in store for us on the next page Ng Yi Sheng recipient of the Singapore Literature Prize Full of grief Singaporean history printing press lore and sweet memories of love to read Contact With Shadow is to experience loss and redemption The story a Cambridge research student comes to Singapore to learn about the island s pre Linotype printing history His wife an amateur chef is killed by lightning Overwhelmed with a sense of loss he struggles to write his thesis More often than not his words are about the woman he loved A bureaucratic assistant enters the picture as does a Hollywood producer Contact With Shadow is an experience not just a reading experience Shadow Play Sheri Lynn Gibbings,2021-08-20 Shadow Play examines how members of the urban underclass in Indonesia seek to negotiate their rights to urban space in a country undergoing significant social political and economic change Under Beijing's Shadow Murray Hiebert,2020-08-15 China s rise and stepped up involvement in Southeast Asia have prompted a blend of anticipation and unease among its smaller neighbors The stunning growth of China has yanked up the region s economies but its militarization of the South China Sea and dam building on the Mekong River has nations wary about Beijing s outsized ambitions Southeast Asians long felt relatively secure relying on the United States as a security hedge but that confidence began to slip after the Trump administration launched a trade war with China and questioned the usefulness of traditional alliances This compelling book provides a snapshot of ten countries in Southeast Asia by exploring their diverse experiences with China and how this impacts their perceptions of Beijing s actions and its long term political economic military and soft power goals in the region

The Long Shadow Muthiah Alagappa,2008 The Long Shadow investigates the purposes and roles of nuclear weapons in the new security environment the nature and content of the national nuclear strategies of relevant states and their implications for international security and stability in the Asian security region

In the Dragon's Shadow Sebastian Strangio,2020-08-07 A timely look at the impact of China s booming emergence on the countries of Southeast Asia Today Southeast Asia stands uniquely exposed to the waxing power of the new China Three of its nations border China and five are directly impacted by its claims over the South China Sea All dwell in the lengthening shadow of its influence economic political military and cultural As China seeks to restore its former status as Asia s preeminent power the countries of Southeast Asia face an increasingly stark choice flourish within Beijing s orbit or languish outside of it Meanwhile as rival powers including the United States take concerted action to curb Chinese ambitions the region has emerged as an arena of heated strategic competition Drawing on more than a decade of on the ground experience Sebastian Strangio explores the impacts of China s rise on Southeast Asia the varied ways in which the countries of the region are responding and what it might mean for the future balance of power in the Indo Pacific

Like a Fading Shadow Antonio Muñoz Molina,2024-06-04 A hypnotic novel intertwining the author s past with James Earl Ray s attempt to escape after shooting Martin Luther King Jr The year is 1968 and James Earl Ray has just shot Martin Luther King Jr For two months he evades authorities driving to Canada securing a fake passport and flying to London all while relishing the media s confusion about his location and his image on the FBI s Most Wanted list Eventually he lands at the Hotel Portugal in Lisbon where he anxiously awaits a visa to Angola But the visa never comes and for his last ten days of freedom Ray walks around Lisbon paying for his pleasures and rehearsing his fake identities Using recently declassified FBI files Antonio Mu oz Molina reconstructs Ray s final steps through the Portuguese capital taking us inside his feverish mind troubled past and infamous crime But Lisbon is also the city that inspired Mu oz Molina s first novel A Winter in Lisbon and as he returns now thirty years later it becomes the stage for and witness to three alternating stories Ray in 1968 at the center of an international manhunt a thirty year old Mu oz Molina in 1987 struggling to find his literary voice and the author in the present reflecting on his life and the form of the novel as an instrument for imagining the world through another person s eyes Part historical fiction part fictional memoir Like a Fading Shadow masterfully explores the borders between the imagined the reported and the experienced past in the construction of identity

In The Shadow Of A Monument Anthony D. Marshall,2023-08-03 The only child of Brooke Astor the Queen of New York a powerful force who inherited the enormous Astor fortune Anthony Marshall became a decorated Marine a diplomat and US ambassador a codebreaker a covert spy with the newly formed CIA a special assistant to the U2 program during the Cold War and dedicated to the global conservation of animal and floral habitat Always interested in the arts he and his third wife co produced two Tony Award Broadway plays in the early 2000s Marshall was the stepson of Vincent Astor one of the wealthiest men in America and witnessed the life of the ultra privileged in New York City firsthand In 2006 his carefully directed life was on the verge of being destroyed by a criminal accusation from his own son Heartbroken Marshall read the formal wording of the accusation elder abuse of his mother who was then one hundred four years old What followed were years of constant tabloid sensationalism and negative press that destroyed Marshall s reputation and damaged his relationships with family and friends After a six months long trial he was sentenced to 1 3 years in a New York State prison when he was eighty nine years old Together with his beloved wife Charlene he faced what he called the greatest challenge of my life since landing his Marine platoon onto Blue Beach at Iwo Jima on D 1 These two survived this brutal attack together with their souls intact and their love stronger than ever These are his stories

The Language of Balinese Shadow Theater Mary Sabina Zurbuchen,2014-07-14 Bali s shadow puppet theater like others in Southeast Asia is a complex tradition with many conventions that puzzle Western observers Mary Zurbuchen demonstrates how the linguistic codes of this rich art form mediate between social groups cultural influences historical periods and conceptual schemes Originally published in 1987 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Between Light and Shadow Mac Darrow,2003-03-20 Much has been written on the human rights relevance and impacts of the policies and activities of the World Bank and IMF or International Financial Institutions IFIs However while many of the human rights based critiques of the Bank and Fund purport to link broadly defined reforms with obligations under international human rights law rarely has this been carried out through a rigorous and in depth application of international legal rules governing the proper interpretation of the institutions mandates and rarely have the policy consequences and practical possibilities for human rights integration been explored in any detail These are the principal gaps that the present book aims to fill by reference to a sample of the IFIs most important and controversial contemporary activities

Tall Tree, Nest of the Wind: The Javanese Shadow-play Dewa Ruci Performed by Ki Anom Soeroto Bernard Arps,2016-04-18 Javanese shadow puppetry is a sophisticated dramatic form often felt to be at the heart of Javanese culture drawing on classic texts but with important contemporary resonance in fields like religion and politics How to make sense of the shadow play as a form of world making In Tall Tree Nest of the Wind Bernard Arps explores this question by considering an all night performance of Dewa Ruci a key play in the repertoire Thrilling and profound Dewa Ruci describes the mighty Bratasena s quest for the ultimate mystical insight The book presents Dewa Ruci as rendered by the distinguished master puppeteer Ki Anom Soeroto in Amsterdam in 1987 The book s unusual design presents the performance texts together with descriptions of the sounds and images that would remain obscure in conventional formats of presentation

Copious annotations probe beneath the surface and provide an understanding of the performance's cultural complexity. These annotations explain the meanings of puppet action music and shifts in language how the puppeteer wove together into the drama the circumstances of the performance in Amsterdam Islamic and other religious ideas and references to contemporary Indonesian political ideology Also revealed is the performance's historical multilayering and the picture it paints of the Javanese past Tall Tree Nest of the Wind not only presents an unrivalled insight into the artistic depth of wayang kulit it exemplifies a new field of study the philology of performance

In the shadow of Pinochet Ann Stödborg, 2024-10-15 This book is a testimony of the resistance struggle against the dictatorship of Pinochet during the first years after the military coup in Chile in 1973 The autobiographical account of a young Swedish student who participated in the resistance movement describes the ruthless persecution the movement was subjected to by the Chilean secret service and what happened to those who opposed the oppressors

In the Shadow of 'just Wars' Médecins sans frontières (Association), 2004 Essays written by scholars journalists and humanitarian relief workers look at humanitarian crises of the past five years for their successes and failures and suggest that humanitarian action has often failed to live up to its ideals These essays expose the shortcomings of the various humanitarian organizations particularly the U N and illuminate the complex moral and political debate that surrounds even the most basic relief operations

Far Side of the Shadow Screen Thomas Champion, 2016-05-18 My name is Peter Grant I didn't start out to save the world it just sort of happened I only wanted to win back the love of the woman who broke up with me She was chosen to work on this anthropological expedition to Bali an excellent place to rekindle the magic of romance I more or less invited myself along That wasn't the kind of magic I found While Gayle my ex was working on her tan beside a Balinese lagoon I was chasing down headhunters in the jungles of Irian Jaya She made the cocktail party circuit I buried the last King of the Torajan And while the lovely Ms O Conner got engaged to the Major Domo Demon of the Underworld I became the sorcerer's apprentice So you tell me how's a guy suppose to win a woman's heart if he can't spend any quality time with her I'm a child of my times an amalgamation of nature and nurture I did what any red blooded American male my age has learned to do I battled the evil lord of the universe to stop his union with the woman I love and saved all of mankind in the process You would think that would count for something wouldn't you Man has always known the gods the demons They are as real as the moon and stars From his first taste of the apple man recognized good and evil and honored and feared the gods they represent But someday we must ask how much of this is real and how much is just man's invention For Peter Grant the answer means everything

Australia's Security in China's Shadow Euan Graham, 2023-03-21 A major shift in the paradigm undergirding relations between Australia and China has become clear in the early 2020s with geopolitical concerns trumping economic considerations Canberra has implemented a range of new policies in response to the risks it perceives in Australia's economic relations with China the Chinese Communist Party's efforts to exert political influence in Australia the expanding capabilities and presence of the People's Liberation Army and Beijing's economic and diplomatic gains in Southeast Asia and the Southwest Pacific. China's policies towards Australia have become more coercive in economic as well as diplomatic terms. However, Australia has withstood Beijing's punitive trade measures without suffering significant economic damage. China's more assertive regional posture has prompted far-reaching changes to Australia's defence and alliance policy settings, including new capability acquisitions and strategic initiatives such as AUKUS. In this Adelphi book, Euan Graham argues that Australia has provided an imperfect but nevertheless useful exemplar of how governments may respond effectively to multifarious security challenges from China. In particular, the Australian case shows how measures to address domestic vulnerabilities may serve as the foundation for a successful China policy at the international level.

In the Shadow of the Palms Sophie Chao, 2022-05-02. In the Shadow of the Palms Sophie Chao examines the multispecies entanglements of oil palm plantations in West Papua, Indonesia, showing how Indigenous Marind communities understand and navigate the social, political, and environmental demands of the oil palm plant. As Chao notes, it is no secret that the palm oil sector has destructive environmental impacts; it greatly contributes to tropical deforestation and is a major driver of global warming. Situating the plant and the transformations it has brought within the context of West Papua's volatile history of colonization, ethnic domination, and capitalist incursion, Chao traces how Marind attribute environmental destruction not just to human technologies and capitalism but also to the volition and actions of the oil palm plant itself. By approaching cash crops as both drivers of destruction and subjects of human exploitation, Chao rethinks capitalist violence as a multispecies act. In the process, Chao centers how Marind fashion their own changing worlds and foreground Indigenous creativity and decolonial approaches to anthropology. Duke University Press.
