Celebrating Shakespeare Clara Calvo, Coppélia Kahn, 2015-11-19 On the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare s death this collection opens up the social practices of commemoration to new research and analysis An international team of leading scholars explores a broad spectrum of celebrations showing how key events such as the Easter Rising in Ireland the Second Vatican Council of 1964 and the Great Exhibition of 1851 drew on Shakespeare to express political agendas In the USA commemoration in 1864 counted on him to symbolise unity transcending the Civil War while the First World War pulled the 1916 anniversary celebration into the war effort enlisting Shakespeare as patriotic poet The essays also consider how the dream of Shakespeare as a rural poet took shape in gardens how cartoons challenged the poet s lite status and how statues of him mutated into advertisements for gin and Disney cartoons Richly varied illustrations supplement these case studies of the diverse complex and contradictory aims of memorialising Shakespeare

Constructing and Deconstructing National Identity Birgit Ryschka, 2008 Originally presented as the author s thesis doctoral University of Limerick Ireland 2007

The Dublin Lockout, 1913 Conor McNamara, Padraig Yeates, 2017-07-24 Putting Ireland on trial Jim Larkin s verdict was damning and resolute His words resound shuddering towards the present day where class division and workers rights disputes make headlines with swelling frequency In this pioneering collection an exemplary list of contributors registers the radical momentum within Dublin in 1913 its effects internationally and its paramount example in shaping political activism within Ireland to this day The narrative of the beleaguered yet dignified workers who stood up to the greed of their Irish masters is examined revealing the truths that were too fraught with trauma shame and political tension to remain within popular memory Beyond the animosity and immediate impact of the industrial dispute are its enduring lessons through the First World War the Easter Rising and the birth of the Irish Free State its legacy real and adopted instructs the surge of activism currently witnessed but to what effect The Dublin Lockout 1913 illuminates this pivotal class war in Irish history inspiring shocking and the nearest thing Ireland had to a debate on the type of society that was wanted by its citizens

Famine Irish and the American Racial State Peter D. O'Neill, 2017-02-03 Accounts of Irish racialization in the United States have tended to stress Irish difference Famine Irish and the American Racial State takes a different stance This interdisciplinary transnational work uses an array of cultural artifacts including novels plays songs cartoons government reports laws sermons memoirs and how to manuals to make its case It challenges the claim that the Irish became white in the United States showing that the claim fails to take into full account the legal position of the Irish in the nineteenth century US state a state that deemed the Irish white upon arrival The Irish thus not only fitted into the US racial state they helped to form it Till now little heed has been paid to the state's role in the Americanization of the Irish or to the Irish role in the development of US state institutions Distinguishing American citizenship from American nationality this volume journeys to California to analyze the means by which the Irish gained acceptance in both categories at the expense of the Chinese Along the way it contests ideas that have taken hold within American studies One is the notion that the Roman Catholic Church operated outside of the power structure of the nineteenth century United States On the contrary Famine Irish and the American Racial State argues the Irish led corporate Catholic Church became deeply imbricated in US state structures Its final chapter discusses a radical transnational Irish tradition that offers a glimpse at a postnational future

The 'Labour Hercules': The Irish Citizen Army and Irish Republicanism, 1913-23 Jeffrey Leddin, 2019-03-20 The Irish Citizen Army ICA was born from the Dublin Lockout of 1913 when industrialist William Martin Murphy locked out workers who refused to resign from the Irish Transport and General Workers Union sparking one of the most dramatic industrial disputes in Irish history Faced with threats of police brutality in response to the strike James Connolly James Larkin and Jack White established the ICA in the winter of 1913 By the end of March 1914 the ICA espoused republican ideology and that the ownership of Ireland was vested of right in the people of Ireland The ICA was in the process of being totally transformed going on to provide significant support to the IRA during the 1916 Rising Despite Connolly's execution and the internment of many ICA members the ICA reorganised in 1917 subsequently developing networks for arms importation and intelligence and later providing operative support for the War of Independence in Dublin The most extensive survey of the movement to date The Labour Hercules explores the ICA's evolution into a republican army and its legacy to the present day
