Meehan,2011-10-20 Canadians share a long history with China Canada is home to a large Chinese diaspora it appointed a trade commissioner to Shanghai over a century ago and it was one of the first Western nations to recognize the People s Republic of China This absorbing account of Canadian sojourners in Shanghai from the arrival of Lord Elgin in 1858 to the closing of the consulate general in 1952 gives a human face to that history Some Canadians came to save souls nourish bodies and educate minds others sought financial and political gain Their experiences which unfolded against a backdrop of civil war invasion and revolution in China and were coloured by Canada s evolution from colony to nation reflected Canada s deepening relationship with China and the troubling asymmetries that underpinned it Although Canadians like other foreigners had left Shanghai by the early 1950s their lives and activities foreshadowed more recent Canadian initiatives in that city and in China more generally Canadian Missionaries, Indigenous Peoples Alvyn Austin,Jamie S. Scott,2005-01-01 Christian missions and missionaries have had a distinctive role in Canada s cultural history With Canadian Missionaries Indigenous Peoples Alvyn Austin and Jamie S Scott have brought together new and established Canadian scholars to examine the encounters between Christian Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries and the indigenous peoples with whom they worked in nineteenth and twentieth century domestic and overseas missions This tightly integrated collection is divided into three sections The first contains essays on missionaries and converts in western Canada and in the arctic The essays in the second section investigate various facets of the Canadian missionary presence and its

The Many Rooms of this House Roberto Perin, 2017-05-08 Places of worship are the true building blocks of communities where people of various genders age and class interact with each other on a regular basis These places are also rallying points for immigrants helping them make the transition to a new and often hostile environment The Many Rooms of this House is a story about the rise and decline of religion in Toronto over the past 160 years Unlike other studies that concentrate on specific denominations or ecclesiastical politics Roberto Perin s ecumenical approach focuses on the physical places of worship and the local clergy and congregants that gather there Perin s timely and nuanced analysis reveals how the growing wealth of the city stimulated congregations to compete with one another over the size style materials and decoration of their places of worship However the rise of individualism has negatively affected these same congregations leading to multiple church closings communal breakdown and redevelopments Perin s fascinating work is a lens to understanding how this once overwhelmingly Protestant city became a symbol of diversity One Hundred caused in Canada its aftermath was even more transformative for the country With victory and the return the troops Canadian society was now faced with the question of how to return to normalcy and what normal would mean as Canada emerged from its colonial status and found its independent national identity Propaganda and Persuasion Jennifer Anderson, 2017-05-10 During the early Cold War thousands of Canadians attended events organized by the Canadian Soviet Friendship Society CSFS and subscribed to its publications The CSFS aimed its message at progressive Canadians hoping to convince them that the USSR was an egalitarian and enlightened state Attempting to soften define and redirect the antagonistic narratives of the day the CSFS story is one of propaganda and persuasion in Cold War Canada The CSFS was linked to other groups on the Canadian political left and was consistently lead by Canadian communists For many years its leader and best known member was the enigmatic Dyson Carter Raised in a religious family and educated as a scientist Carter was a prolific author of both popular scientific and pro Soviet books and for many years was the editor of the CSFS s magazine Northern Neighbours Subtitled Canada s Authoritative Independent Magazine Reporting on the U S S R the magazine featured glossy photo spreads of life in the Soviet Union and upbeat articles on science medicine cultural life and visits to the USSR by Canadians At the height of the Cold War Carter claimed the magazine reached 10 000 subscribers across Canada Using previously unavailable archival sources and oral histories Propaganda and Persuasion looks at the CSFS as a blend of social and political activism where gender class and ethnicity linked communities and ideology had significance
