History Criticism:

A History of English Criticism George Saintsbury, 1911      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,      Ridiculous Critics Philip Smallwood, Min Wild, 2014-09-16 Ridiculous Critics is an anthology of eighteenth century writings on the figure of the literary critic and on the critic's mixed and complex role. The collection assembles critical texts and satirical images chronologically to suggest a vision of the history of eighteenth century literary criticism. Including comic, vicious, heartfelt and absurd passages from critics, poets, novelists and literary commentators, celebrated and obscure, the writings range through poetry, fiction, drama and periodical writing. The anthology also includes two original essays discussing and illustrating the irrepressible spirit of critical ridicule in the period and commending its value and effect. The first offers an evaluation of the merciless and sometimes shockingly venomous satirical attacks on critical habits and personalities of the eighteenth century. The editors argue that such attacks are reflexive in the sense that criticism becomes increasingly supple and able to observe and examine its own irresponsible ingenuities from within. The volume's concluding essay supplies an analysis of modern modes of criticism and critical history and suggests applications across time. We propose that humor's vital force was once an important part of living criticism. The eighteenth century mockery of critics casts light on a neglected common thread in the history of criticism and its recent manifestations; it prompts questions about the relative absence of comedy from the stories we presently tell about critics, dead or alive. The passages invite laughter both with the critics and at their expense and suggest the place that ridicule might have had since the eighteenth century in the making of judgments and in the pricking of critical pretension. For this reason they indicate the role that laughter may still have in criticism today and provide an encouraging precedent for its future.      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Policy and Standards Division, 2010      Collected Works (12+ illustrated edition) of Karl Marx: Capital, The Communist Manifesto, Critique of Hegel's Philosophy of Right Karl Marx, 2021-01-08 Karl Heinrich Marx was a German philosopher, economist, historian, sociologist, political theorist, journalist and socialist revolutionary. It is hard to think of many who have had as much influence in the creation of the modern world. In addition to his overtly philosophical early work, his later writings have many points of contact with contemporary philosophical debates, especially in the philosophy of history and the social sciences and in moral and political philosophy. Historical materialism: Marx's theory of history is centered around the idea that forms of society rise and fall as they further and then impede the development of human productive power. Marx's economic analysis of capitalism is based on his version of the labour theory of value and includes the analysis of capitalist profit as the extraction of surplus value from the exploited proletariat. Marx sees the historical process as proceeding through a necessary series of modes of production characterized by class struggle, culminating in communism. Content: Critique of Hegel's Philosophy of Right 1843, On the Jewish Question 1843, The Holy Family 1845, Theses on Feuerbach 1845, The Poverty of Philosophy 1847, Wage Labour and Capital 1847, Manifesto of the Communist Party 1848, The

Porter, 2010-12-24 A hundred years after A Schweitzer's Von Reimarus zu Wrede the study of the historical Jesus is again experiencing a renaissance Ongoing since the beginning of the 1980's this renaissance has produced an abundance of Jesus studies that also display a welcome diversity of methods approaches and hypotheses The Handbook of the Study of the Historical Jesus is designed to handle this diversity and abundance Drawing from first class scholarship throughout the world the four large volumes of the Handbook offer a unique assembly of leading experts presenting their approaches to the historical Jesus as well as a thought out compilation of original studies on a large variety of topics pertaining to Jesus research and adjacent areas News of War Rachel Galvin, 2017-10-13 News of War Civilian Poetry 1936 1945 is a powerful account of how civilian poets confront the urgent problem of writing about war The six poets Rachel Galvin discusses W H Auden Marianne Moore Raymond Queneau Gertrude Stein Wallace Stevens and Cesar Vallejo all wrote memorably about war but still they felt they did not have authority to write about what they had not experienced firsthand Consequently these writers developed a wartime poetics engaging with both classical rhetoric and the daily news in texts that encourage readers
