Mike Angell, 2020-08-17 Explores way Christian individuals and communities can cultivate peace both locally and on a global scale Peace can seem so very far away whether we are watching news of atrocities committed in other countries or we encounter the violence in our own neighborhoods Mike Angell engages peace as more than an absence of conflict Peace following the Christian tradition is more concrete It must be planted tended and grown in our own hearts and in the world This book explores ways individuals and Christian communities can cultivate peace personally locally and on a global scale Non violence is a core value of The Episcopal Church and integral the Jesus Movement s focus on reconciliation As part of our baptismal covenant to strive for justice and peace among all people we are called to be models of reconciliation and peace towards our neighbors This book is a simple guide for building peace when the streets around us are filled with anger and violence How Shall I Live My Life?
