Theory Across Disciplines Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2025-08-07

Surveying the extraordinary scope of contemporary theory Jeffrey R Di Leo brings together contributors from around the world to speak to the ways in which theoretical concerns from a variety of disciplines operate within their respective fields of concern Contemporary theory is a multi and inter disciplinary endeavour that operates within and among the humanities the social sciences and many of the professions In addition to its now somewhat more standard fare work in these areas it has also made substantial inroads into the natural sciences and the formal sciences To be sure more disciplines from across the academy have integrated theory into their practice than at any other time in history Di Leo and his fellow contributors survey the workings of contemporary theory within and among the humanities sciences and professions including contributions on literary studies film studies gender studies visual art law biology and geology They bring together distinguished theorists whose work spans the academy to speak to the ways in which theoretical concerns from a variety of disciplines work within their respective fields of concern

The Antimodernism of Joyce's Portrait of the Artist As a Young Man Weldon Thornton, 1994 Thornton takes a fresh look at important psychological and cultural issues in this novel arguing that although it may be a classic text of literary modernism it is a fundamentally antimodernist work This comprehensive and thoughtful book provides readers with a new cultural critique and intellectual history of Portrait which promises to become one of the major discussions of the novel

Eliot, Joyce, and Company Stanley Sultan, 1987 This study explores the relations of T S Eliot and James Joyce with certain antecedents such as Dante Flaubert and Baudelaire with contemporaries including Pound and Yeats and with their readers in order to illuminate the authors historic mutual venture in English literature
