Historical Materialism And Globalisation Essays On Continuity And Change:

Historical Materialism and Globalisation Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2002 Historical Materialism and Globalisation Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2016-04-29 Now that Soviet style socialism has collapsed upon itself and liberal capitalism offers itself as the natural necessary and absolute condition of human social life on a worldwide scale this book insists that the potentially emancipatory resources of a renewed and perhaps reconstructed historical materialism are more relevant in today's world than ever before Rather than viewing global capitalism as an eluctable natural force these essays seek to show how a dialectic of power and resistance is at work in the contemporary global political economy producing and contesting new realities and creating conditions in which new forms of collective self determination become thinkable and materially possible It will be vital topical reading for anyone interested in international relations international political economy sociology and political theory

The Political Economy of European Integration Erik Jones, Amy Verdun, 2005 This book provides an accessible introduction to diverse political economy perspectives on different aspects of European integration It presents a critical appraisal of how scholars in the EU and US use theory to understand European integration Routledge Handbook of Historical International Relations Benjamin de Carvalho, Julia Costa Lopez, Halvard Leira, 2021-06-28 This handbook presents a comprehensive concise and accessible overview of the field of Historical International Relations HIR It summarizes and synthesizes existing contributions to the field while presenting central themes approaches and methodologies that have driven the development of HIR providing the reader with a sense of the diversity and research dynamics that are at the heart of this field of study The wide range of topics covered are grouped under the following headings Traditions Demonstrates the wide variety of approaches to HIR Thinking International Relations Historically Different ways of thinking IR historically share some common concerns and areas for further investigation Actors Processes and Institutions Explores the processes actors practices and institutions that constitute the core objects of study of many HIR scholars Situating Historical International Relations Critically reflects about the situatedness of our objects of study Approaches Examines how HIR scholars conduct and reflect about their research often in dialogue with a variety of perspectives from cognate disciplines Summarizing key contributions and trends while also sketching out challenges for future inquiry this is an invaluable resource for students academics and researchers from a range of disciplines particularly International Relations global history political science history sociology anthropology peace studies diplomatic studies security studies international political thought political geography international law

The "Russian Idea" in International Relations Andrei P. Tsygankov, 2023-06-16 The Russian Idea in International Relations identifies different approaches within Russian Civilizational tradition Russia's nationally distinctive way of thinking by situating them within IR literature and connecting them to practices of the country's international relations Civilizational ideas in IR theory express states cultural identification and stress religious traditions social customs and economic and political values This book defines Russian civilizational ideas by two criteria the values they stress and their global ambitions The author identifies leading voices among those positioning Russia as an exceptional and globally significant system of values and traces their arguments across several centuries of the country's development In addition the author explains how and why Russian civilizational ideas rise fall and are replaced by alternative ideas The book identifies three schools of Russian civilizational thinking about international relations Slavophiles Communists and Eurasianists Each school focuses on Russia's distinctive spiritual social and geographic roots respectively Each one is internally divided between those claiming Russia's exceptionalism potentially resulting in regional autarchy or imperial expansion and those advocating the Russian Idea as global in its appeal Those favoring the latter perspective have stressed Russia's unique capacity for understanding different cultures and guarding the world against extremes of nationalism and hegemony in international relations This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Russian foreign policy Russia Western relations IR theory diplomatic studies political science and European history including the history of ideas

The SAGE Handbook of European Union Politics Knud Erik Jørgensen, Mark Pollack, Ben Rosamond, 2007-01-03 This volume is one to which anyone trying to make sense of the EU of the early 21st century will return again and again A terrific line up that combines diverse talents from North America and Europe Few books of this kind could live up to the billing definitive benchmark but this one certainly does John Peterson University of Edinburgh A most useful book that can be highly recommended A strong analytical framework coupled with unparalleled coverage of the major issues of the political science research of the EU makes this volume a formidable tool for teaching and a significant input to new scholarly research It is both relatively sophisticated and very accessible to graduate students and advanced researchers The clear writing style and the richness of information presented will certainly make this book interesting for non academic readers Igor Vidacak Institute for International Relations Zagreb Journal of Common Market Studies An admirably comprehensive source book for those interested in how the tools of political science inspire EU area studies The editors enlist leading researchers to synthesize the state of the art in their field of expertise The Handbook of European Union Politics will be an indispensable intellectual resource for researchers teachers and graduate students of the European Union Liesbet Hooghe University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill USA Presents an excellent overview of political science research on the EU It finds the right balance between establishing the state of the art and pointing the reader to theoretical diversity Highly recommended for advanced students and scholars looking for quick and solid orientation in a fragmented field and for new ideas for research Frank Schimmelfennig ETH Zurich Switzerland This is a milestone in the study of EU politics The authors include the most knowledgeable practitioners in the field and collectively they provide a comprehensive and highly competent overview of the state of theory and research on EU institutions politics and policies Fritz Scharpf Max Planck Institute for the Study of Societies Germany The European Union EU poses quite profound questions for scholars and students of the social and political sciences This benchmark handbook is designed to provide an authoritative state of the art guide to the scope of the field suitable for both established scholars and students of the EU reflect and contribute to the debates about the nature of the field of EU studies and EU politics in particular explore in detail the development of the many approaches to the study of EU politics Divided into four sections the Handbook focuses on theorizing European integration the EU as polity politics and policy making in the EU and the EU and the international system Its appeal will reside not only in its comprehensive and authoritative coverage of the field but also in the quality of its contributors and the diversity of theoretical and methodological approaches included The resulting volume is a must have for all scholars and advanced students of the EU and European integration Scientific Realism and International Relations

Relations J. Joseph, C. Wight, 2010-07-30 Critical and scientific realism have emerged as important perspectives on international relations in recent years The attraction of these approaches lies in the claim that they can transcend the positivism vs postpositivism divide This book demonstrates the vitality of this approach and the difference that realism makes

Civil Society and Global Finance Albrecht Schnabel, Jan Aart Scholte, 2003-09-02 This key text brings together twenty activists officials and researchers from the five continents to discuss this burning question of today's globalization debate Providing rare authoritative analyses by those who deal with the issues first hand Civil Society and Global Finance is rich in insight and policy ideas for decision makers students and concerned citizens Towards a Global Polity Morten

Ougaard, Richard A. Higgott, 2002 While one world government is not on the cards the globalisation of political life has progressed significantly over the last decades This volume starts out from the idea of the world as one interconnected political system Rethinking Empowerment Jane L. Parpart, Shirin M. Rai, Kathleen A. Staudt, 2003-08-29 Rethinking Empowerment looks at the changing role of women in developing countries and calls for a new approach to empowerment An approach that adopts a more nuanced feminist interpretation of power and empowerment recognises that local empowerment is always embedded in regional national and global contexts pays attention to institutional structures and politics and acknowledges that empowerment is both a process and an outcome Moreover the book warns that an obsession with measurement rather than process can undermine efforts to foster transformative and empowering outcomes It concludes that power must be restored as the centrepiece of empowerment Only then will the term and its advocates provide meaningful ammunition for dealing with the challenges of an increasingly unequal and often sexist global local world

New Regionalism in the Global Political Economy Shaun Breslin, Christopher W. Hughes, Nicola Phillips, Ben Rosamond, 2002-08-22 Following the financial crisis at the end of the twentieth century regionalisms in the global political economy have evolved in a number of ways This informative book brings together the leading scholars in the field to provide cutting edge analyses of contemporary regions and regionalist projects Providing an innovative integration of theoretical

Globalising Intellectual Property Rights Duncan Matthews, 2003-09-02 In Globalising Intellectual Property Rights Matthews looks at various aspects of the TRIPS Agreement agenda setting legal interpretation implementation enforcement and revision from the viewpoint of global business interests and developing countries It is argued that the Agreement was largely the result of an initiative by multinational companies who sought to protect their own intellectual property through international law and furthermore that it is these multinational companies who are now its main guardians The book concludes that the history of the TRIPS Agreement and the role of business is a clear example of governance by non state actors on a global scale This book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of international relations intellectual property law international economic law and development studies

The Regional Integration Manual Philippe De Lombaerde, Renato Flores, Lelio Iapadre, Michael Schulz, 2012-03-29 The Regional Integration Manual brings together different methods for monitoring and analysing regional integration processes in a systematic way Employing a multi disciplinary approach it seeks to provide officials in regional organisations researchers in think tanks academics and students worldwide with an accessible set of both quantitative and qualitative tools useful in their day to day work The Manual addresses an increasing demand for such tools in a world where mechanisms and ideas for effective regional government and governance are in dire need whereas the monitoring and analytical capabilities of official and non governmental actors often lag behind It also addresses a rapidly growing academic community studying the determinants depth speed and other characteristics of regional integration and co operation Employing a multi disciplinary approach The Regional Integration Manual will be of interest to scholars of governance and regional politics as well as policy makers and those in regional organisations

Mobility, Identity and Conflict Resolution in Africa John Mushomi, Cori Wielenga, 2024-07-16 This volume examines land and resource contestations in the East African Albertine region where Uganda the Democratic Republic of Congo Rwanda Burundi and Tanzania intersect It is one of the most biodiverse regions on the continent and became highly contested when Uganda discovered oil there in 2006 The resource contestation in this region has resulted in ongoing conflict and has defined and re defined identity and citizenship Contributors of this volume succinctly bring out the major forces that have been responsible for resource contestations and conflicts together with an emphasis on the existing mechanisms for peaceful co existence particularly in relation to alternative dispute resolution mechanisms within indigenous knowledge systems

Why Religion? Towards a Critical Philosophy of Law, Peace and God Dawid Bunikowski, Alberto Puppo, 2020-02-11 This book examines the relation between religion and jurisprudence God and peace respectively It argues that in order to elucidate the possible role religion can play in the contemporary world it is useful to analyse religion by associating it with other concepts Why peace Because peace is probably the greatest promise made by religions and the greatest concern in the contemporary world Why jurisprudence Because quoting Kelsen s famous book Peace through Law peace is usually understood as something achievable by international legal instruments But what if we replace Peace through Law with Peace through Religion Does law as an instrument for achieving peace incorporate a religious dimension Is law ultimately a religious and normative construction oriented to peace to the protection of humanity in order to keep humans from the violence of nature Is the hope for peace rational or just a question of faith Is religion itself a question of faith or a rational choice Is the relatively recent legal concept of responsibility to protect a secular expression of the oldest duty of humankind The book follows the structure of interdisciplinary research in which the international legal scholar the moral philosopher the philosopher of religion the theologian and the political scientist contribute to the construction of the necessary bridges Moreover it gives voice to different monotheistic traditions and more importantly it analyses religion in the various dimensions in which it determines the authors cultures as a set of rituals as a source of moral norms as a universal project for peace and as a political discourse

International Political Economy and Poststructural Politics Marieke De Goede, 2006-03-14 This edited volume brings together leading scholars to debate the promises of poststructural politics within the study of the International Political Economy IPE The volume offers a sustained theoretical dialogue on the meaning of discourse identity and representation for practices of political economy

Handbook on the Geographies of Power Mat Coleman, John Agnew, 2018-07-27 The so called spatial turn in the social sciences means that many researchers have become much more interested in what can be called the spatialities of power or the ways in which power as a medium for achieving goals is related to where it takes place Most famous authors on the subject such as Machiavelli and Hobbes saw power as entirely equivalent to domination exercised by some over others Though this meaning is hardly redundant understandings of power have become more multidimensional and nuanced as a result of the spatial turn Much recent writing in human geography for example has rigorously extended use of the term power beyond its typical understanding as a resource that pools up in some hands and some places to a medium of agency that has different effects depending on how it is deployed across space and how actors cooperate or not to give it effect To address this objective the book is organized thematically into four sections that cover the main areas in which much of the contemporary work on geographies of power is concentrated bodies economy environment and energy and war

Class, States and International Relations Adrian Budd, 2013-06-19 This book provides an outline and a critique of neo Gramscian international relations theory from a Marxist perspective Focusing on the pioneering work of Robert Cox but also drawing on the wider neo Gramscian literature this book presents a comprehensive account of neo Gramscian international relations theory It highlights the neo Gramscian critique of mainstream Realist theory and the theoretical innovations that resulted from the mobilisation of Gramsci s ideas and Cox s emphasis on the social forces underpinning forms of state and world orders The author explains how this is especially relevant in the current period of war and crisis when the international dimensions of social existence continue to exercise a major influence over domestic politics and economics and when the interest in Marxism can be expected to grow The book continues to provide a critique of the neo Gramscians and of what the author argues is their one sided reading of Gramsci Placing coercion at the centre of a mode of production analysis of world order the author elaborates a Marxist alternative to neo Gramscianism that provides more robust explanations of world order dynamics and change Using a combination of IR theory and historical explanation including of contemporary world order dynamics and US power this book will appeal to both students and scholars of International Relations international studies and international history Black Woman's Burden N. Rousseau, 2009-09-28 Black Woman's Burden examines the historical endeavors to regulate Black female sexuality and reproduction in the United States through methods of exploitation control repression and coercion The myth of the angry Black woman has been built over generations through clever rhetoric and oppressive social policy Here Rousseau explores the continued impact of labeling and stereotyping on the development of policies that lead to the construction of national racial and gender identities for Black women The Crisis of Capitalism in the Contemporary Novel Andrew Rowcroft, 2024-02-16 This book explores the role of radical ideas in contemporary fiction by nine critically acclaimed authors Jonathan Lethem Dana Spiotta China Mieville Thomas Pynchon Rachel Kushner Teddy Wayne Colson Whitehead Jacqueline Woodson and Kim Stanley Robinson All of them share interests in the politics of the left the problems of protracted economic crisis and the potentiality of post capitalist ideas Novels by these authors this book argues are defined by an imperative to confront current anxieties in left thought while at the same time evincing a nuanced degree of self consciousness about the legacy of political radicalisms the costs they accrue and where they have led
