Tutoring Adolescent Literacy Learners Kelly Chandler-Olcott, Kathleen A. Hinchman, 2005-02-23 Filling a key need among educators and literacy volunteers, this is the first hands-on guide for tutoring students with literacy difficulties in grades 6-12. Grounded in the most current literacy research, the book reflects the authors' 25 years of combined experience working with tutoring programs. Every page features practical ideas for carrying out the entire process of tutoring: assessing teenagers' strengths, weaknesses and interests; selecting appropriate, engaging materials; and fostering development in comprehension, word study, fluency and composition. Special features include concrete examples and activities from over 20 tutors, a Q and A, and reproducible planning forms in a large, ready-to-use format.

Tutoring Matters Jerome Rabow, Tiffani Chin, Nima Fahimian, 1999 Inside each of us is the promise of a tutor. If you've ever taught a child to tie her shoe or helped a friend with his homework or even helped a stranger understand a posted sign, you have it in you to empower others through learning. Tutors are allowed to do what teachers and parents are often not able to do. They can be patient, observe, question, support, challenge and applaud. They can move towards nurturing the true and total intelligence of their tutees. Learning to tutor is simply overcoming fears, sharing and acquiring knowledge and appreciating the potential and wisdom in each other.

Tutoring Matters is the authoritative manual for both the aspiring and seasoned tutor Using firsthand experiences of over one hundred new and experienced tutors this long awaited guide offers chapters on attitudes and anxieties teaching techniques and building relationships It educates the tutor on how to handle and appreciate social and language differences how to use other adults teachers administrators parents employers to a student s advantage and when your student or circumstances determine that it s time how to put a positive and supportive end to the tutor tutee relationship Written by experienced tutors and tutoring educators Tutoring Matters celebrates and provides just the right tools for an individualized and successful tutoring relationship and shows just how much you can learn about the world and yourself through teaching others Author note Jerome Rabow the recipient of numerous distinguished teaching awards is co author of Cracks in the Classroom Wall An Analysis with Readings He is Professor Emeritus of Sociology at the University of California Los Angeles Tiffani Chin is an experienced tutor and Ph D Candidate researching education and sociology at UCLA Nima Fahimian also an experienced tutor studies medicine at the UCLA School of Medicine

Hanging Out Ruth Garner,2002-03-30 There is an unsettledness now in after school childcare The stay at home mom years are largely over Will children even very young children stay home alone or hang out with peers risking loneliness or engaging in problem behavior Will some new form of supervised care emerge The authors in this collection have spent time in community after school programs and have learned what happens there The authors suggest that after school programs can be an important part of a system of childcare as long as we can find ways to build programs for small and scattered populations as well as for densely packed ones and as long as the money to fund programs can be found The money is important Many of the programs discussed in this book are specifically targeted to children from families with low incomes These are the families least likely to be able to pay for care A reader leaves this book with both anxiety and hope about the future of childcare in the United States
