Childhood on Fire Talisha Hunter,2020-08-06 Childhood on Fire My Journey from the Hell of Baltimore to High Water is a true story based on events that happened in Talisha's life It is a gritty harrowing tale of how she endured and prevailed over heinous acts and unspeakable atrocities challenging Talisha to change her life in ways she never thought would otherwise be possible This is a remarkable story of tragic loss and incredible redemption one in which Talisha conquered her past and now lives in a way where she is far more at the cause of her experience rather than at its mercy Talisha believes that hardships for most people are part of life but for some these tests can seem monumental and insurmountable when viewed through the narrow and unenlightened lens of childhood Talisha was separated from her mother while still only in grade school abandoned by her birth family placed in foster care and ultimately raised in a brutally unsympathetic environment far from the home she once knew Throughout her early years Talisha dealt with separation anxiety codependence dissociative identity disorder and a string of bad relationships all arising from the severe repetitive and soul numbing effects of living with damaged dysfunctional people and succumbing to the trials and tribulations that most others have been fortunate to avoid Wrenching disillusionment and overt abuse were Talisha s constant companions and it would not be until her early thirties that she realized her world was ablaze Talisha had suffocated in physical mental emotional and spiritual anguish and was near physical death on the night that she contemplated suicide Like all of us though this brave girl had a choice choose life or end life and Talisha chose to not only keep going but to embrace the pain with open arms and acknowledge the harm it had done Talisha stared unflinchingly at the full length film of her years of suffering and decided that very day that it all stopped here and now She went through a remarkable transformation a rebirthing experience that healed that little girl trapped inside her and when she did Talisha resurfaced as a refined sharp and powerful woman Enjoy this book but more importantly take its lessons and become the best version of yourself starting today
