serie di contributi sull arte e la religione che possano colmare in parte tale lacuna dell apprendimento al fine di orientare il lettore verso una nuova conoscenza Preaching and Theology in Anglo-Saxon England Milton McC. Gatch,1977-12-15

In Preaching and Theology in Anglo Saxon England Professor Gatch deals with two aspects of the writings of Ifric and Wulfstan that have been hitherto ignored by scholars of the period First he investigates the uses for which the two homilists prepared their sermons analysing the homiliaries of the Carolingian church and its legislation concerning preaching and teaching and showing that one should look not to the model of patristic preaching but to the development in the place of exegetical preaching of a vernacular catechetical office the Prone He also considers the evidence from England in the time of Ifric and Wulfstan distinguishing a number of uses which Ifric intended for his homiletic materials but questioning whether users of Ifric s work Wulfstan perhaps among them understood or accepted the basic homiletic practices that the abbot had in mind Second Gatch investigates the eschatological teaching of the homilists as specimen of the over all content of their sermons and as indicator of their theological method By throwing their work into relief against the background of the anonymous Old English homilists he gives a more accurate picture than exists in textbook stereotypes of the beliefs of Ifric and Wulfstan and also of the general theological scene in England at the turn of the tenth and eleventh centuries The first complete edition of Ifric s Latin epitome of Julian of Toledo s Prognosticon futuri saeculi one of the most important of Ifric s theological sources is appended to the text This interdisciplinary study is an important addition to our knowledge of Anglo

Saxon culture and medieval church history and a major contribution to the study of Old English homilies For the uninitiated it is an excellent introduction to Old English preaching for the initiated it opens a new field for investigation Geneva's Use of Lies, Deceit, and Subterfuge, 1536-1563 Jon Balserak,2024-09-17 This study examines the ethical character of John Calvin and his Genevan colleagues evangelizing of France It reveals that Calvin s plans for proselytizing his homeland involved lying deception and obfuscation which were employed as a means of evading detection by the French authorities Balserak considers important questions about the relationship between godliness and cunning about Calvin s manufacturing of his image and about the lengths to which he and his colleagues went to spread their gospel Sourcebook for Sundays,

Seasons, and Weekdays 2017: The Almanac for Pastoral Liturgy Leisa Anslinger,2016      Homilies on Genesis, 1-17 (The Fathers of the Church, Volume 74) Saint John Chrysostom,John Chrysostom,2010-04 No description available      St John Damascene Andrew Louth,2004 This text presents an overall account of the life and work of St John Damascene a one time senior civil servant in the Umayyad Arab Empire who became a monk near Jerusalem in the early years of the eighth century
