Human Options Norman Cousins, 1981-02-20 The tragedy of life is not death but what dies inside us while we live Excerpt from Human Options Evolve William Spencer, 2023-07-30 Should a species smart enough to foresee its own demise be able to consciously evolve in order to overcome threats to its existence Evolve reveals the nexus of evolutionary biology sustainability and peace on the journey to PACEM 2050 There is a Burning Platform threatening our species Although our species is extremely good at cooperation social polarization is preventing our citizenry from being in adequate alignment to adopt the necessary public policy to mitigate future ecological disaster There are only three scenarios going forward extinction eusocial evolution or a long term cultural intervention to overcome our current lack of conceptual understanding lack of social empathy and lack of decision making to implement the solutions needed to mitigate catastrophe No single government action no corporate solutions or temporary changes in citizen behavior will resolve the challenges we face The problems are interconnected and the path to find solutions represents the solution itself A principle of evolution and of social change is that only the system can change the system PACEM 2050 is the uncharacteristic social change strategy that changes the structure of how we share the realities of sustainability social polarization and approaching ecological tipping points The Big Picture Dennis Littky, Samantha Grabelle, 2012-02-17 What is the purpose of education What kind of people do we want our children to grow up to be How can we design schools so that students will acquire the skills they ll need to live fulfilled and productive lives These are just a few of the questions that renowned educator Dennis Littky explores in The Big Picture Education Is Everyone s Business The schools Littky has created and led over the past 35 years are models for reformers everywhere small public schools where the curriculum is rich and meaningful expectations are high student progress is measured against real world standards and families and communities are actively engaged in the educational process This book is for both big E and small e educators For principals and district administrators who want to change the way schools are run For teachers who want students to learn passionately For college admissions officers who want diverse applicants with real world learning experiences For business leaders who want a motivated and talented workforce For parents who want their children to be prepared for college and for life For students who want to take control over their learning and want a school that is interesting safe respectful and fun For anyone who cares about kids Here you ll find a moving account of just what is possible in education with many of the examples drawn from the Metropolitan Regional Career and Technical Center The Met in Providence Rhode Island a diverse public high school with the highest rates of attendance and college acceptance in the state The Met exemplifies personalized learning one student at a time The Big Picture is a book to reenergize educators inspire teachers in training and start a new conversation about kids and schools what we want for both and how to make it happen SELF HEAL Margaret Bellis, 2023-02-22 Everything in the treatment and prevention of chronic diseases which is not orthomolecular natural for the human organism fails Carl Linus Pauling We are a part and product of Nature We last millions of years thanks to the abundance of natural resources and the ability of our organisms to self regulate and self heal Unfortunately the development of civilization the measure of which is the control and power over nature as well as the accumulation of social institutions and products of human activity caused that in terms of health we succumb to the dictatorship of conventional medicine Convinced that only pharmaceutical substances are true and effective in solving health problems we are unaware of our ability to correct imbalances in the organism However Nature created us from living cells that react to chemicals produced by the organism without the help of any external factors except energy and substrate Man made substances will not change the nature of how the human body functions but they can affect it if we agree to it Credo ,2001 UCSF News University of California, San Francisco,1983 The Thinking Life P. M. Forni,2011-09-13 How do we turn off the noise of daily life turn on our brains and begin to engage in that fundamental human activity known as thinking again P M Forni America s civility expert has given some thought to how we can successfully think our way through a greatly distracting world and live a better life In The Thinking Life he looks at the importance of thinking how we do it why we don t do it enough and why we need to do more of it In twelve short chapters he gives readers a remedy for the Age of Distraction an age fuelled by social networking overload compulsive texting and an omnipresent stream of cellphone calls He shows how to put aside time each day to improve Attention Introspection Self control Positive thinking Proactive thinking Decision making Creative thinking Problem solving Just as Forni did with civility he puts the importance of good thinking front and center in a book as lucid and profound as his earlier works The most provocative and useful book I ve read in years Robert Sutton New York Times bestselling author of The No Asshole Rule

Tough Calls Linda D. Henman,2017-06-27 As my clients emerged from the global economic turmoil that began in 2008 I began to see what others didn t see Something was standing in their way usually the unwillingness or inability to make a critical decision They thought they needed more more education more experience more time or more data They had enough of these but they lacked the confidence courage and optimism to make the tough calls Through our work together we learned that when leaders make good decisions little else matters When they refuse to make decisions or show a pattern of making bad ones nothing else matters The most successful leaders realized they could no longer push growth Instead they had to remove barriers to success obstacles they had erected themselves The compelling stories and surprising research findings in this book focus on real people who actively sought professional improvement and personal development Working together we mapped out their journeys identified roadblocks recognized the wrong turns they had taken and unlocked their decision making potential in some cases more than doubling the size of their companies Most of these stories illustrate how and why these leaders succeed but others serve as warnings about what can happen when leaders refuse to decide
