Merwin's narrative style is both eloquent and engaging, offering insight into Harte's literary contributions as well as the historical context of California during the pioneer era. The book is a valuable resource for those interested in the intersection of literature and history and offers a comprehensive look at Harte's life and the society in which he lived. As a literary scholar and historian, Henry Childs Merwin was uniquely positioned to write this definitive biography of Bret Harte. California in the 1930s Federal Writers Project of the Works Progress Administration, 2013-04-23 Alive with the exuberance, contradictions, and variety of the Golden State, this Depression-era guide to California is more than 700 pages of information that is, as David Kipen writes in his spirited introduction, anecdotal, opinionated, and altogether habit-forming. Describing the history, culture, and roadside attractions of the 1930s, the WPA Guide to California features some of the very best anonymous literature of its era, with writing by luminaries such as San Francisco poet Kenneth Rexroth, composer, writer, hobo, Harry Partch, and authors Tillie Olsen and Kenneth Patchen. Rural Californian, 1902 Journal of the Assembly, Legislature of the State of California California. Derby's reports and journals appear alongside those of Robert Stockton Williamson, William H. Warner, Edward O. C. Ord, Nathaniel Lyon, Henry Walton Wessells, and Erasmus Darwin Keyes. These documents offer extraordinary firsthand views of the environment, natural resources, geography, and early settlement, as well as the effects of disease on Native and white populations.
