

MY FROG RECYCLES ALL HIS TRASH

by Kenn Nesbitt

My frog recycles all his trash.

He eats organic food.

He cares for the environment.

He's quite the hipster dude.

Reduce, reuse, recycle is the motto of my frog.

He drives a solar-powered car
to cut back on the smog.

He helps endangered species and opposes climate change.

He knows that, since he's just a frog, this might seem kind of strange.

But still he does his very best to keep our planet clean.

He thinks it's only natural.

He's proud of being green.

Humus Poems:

The Numinous Site Julio Marzán, 1995 Luis Pales Matos a white man who began the poesia negra movement in Latin America in 1925 is the subject of The Numinous Site Julio Marzán's latest book Unlike its English language counterpart poesia negra refers to its subject and not the poet's race so white poets are credited with writing poesia negra Pales's poesia afroantillana popularized the dark forces African roots and unprestigious language that were the white society's antimatter an antipoetic consciousness that complemented and refined by other poesia negra opened the Latin American poem Perhaps influenced by Heidegger throughout his work Pales reiterated his obsession with the frontier where the mundane touches the spiritual or metaphysical His poems take the reader on a passage to an encounter with the imagistic representation of that force informing the soul of the individual the collectivity and the physical world All his poems take us on that passage including his socially conscious Afro Antillean poems because they originate from Pales's sense that language including Boricua is synonymous with time and our sense of being For Luis Pales Matos poesia was an altar and style a liturgy that whether performed in drumbeats or words invoked the poetic essence that he called the numen BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Poetry of the vegetable world Matthias Jacob Schleiden, 1853 Poems Desiderius Erasmus, 1993 Humus Jan Bingham, 2002 Poetry of Manzoni Nathaniel Langdon Frothingham, 1841 Lemon Hummus Leonard Germinara, Amy Jenness, Kathy Butterworth, Neil Brosnan, Lucretia Voigt, Margaret Sullivan, Ross Ragan, Trina Ragan, Kimberly Nolan, John Stanton, Julia Lewis, Andrew Bauld, 2013-06-01 The Moors Poetry Collective is a handful of poets who meet once a week at the Nantucket Field Station on Polpis road which they dubbed Len's Garage Lemon Hummus is their second book bringing together a mixture of poems created by several poets in many styles and forms Their first book entitled Poems So Far features poems specific to Nantucket Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1923 Poems Ovid, 1907 Distinguishing Poetry William Oxley, 1989

Poetry Against Torture Paul A. Bové, 2008-01-01 Poetry against Torture sets out the clear conflict between two competing conceptions of society and civilization Poetry represents one the fundamental human capacity to make itself and its societies in ways that will produce the most nearly perfect form of the species Torture represents the other especially state torture as that which fears the human capacity to evolve to create alternative futures for itself and to assume increasingly capacious and democratic responsibility for the justice and joy of its own being Set against the dogmas of state regimes that torture against the misapplications of technology to the destruction of human subjectivities and against the use of spiritual traditions to suppress human poesis this book speaks for poetry as the highest form of human consciousness self making and imaginative possibility Paul Bové sets out to remind society and intellectuals of the species dependence upon those historical processes of self making that result from and make possible such remarkable achievements as Dante's poetry Bach's music and the very being of humanity as a historical species that has the right to imagine and create its own futures

To that end it discusses poetics Dante and the great critic William Empson It asks how essential is liberalism to human history and treats Mill at length It asks about the relative importance of philosophy and poetry and so discusses such contemporaries as Foucault and Said along with traditional figures such as Descartes and Vico Among poets Wallace Stevens and George Herbert take central places as exemplary teachers This is a book for all who abhor that persistently vile potential within modernity that prefers tyranny to democracy and analysis to imagination who rather seek the reaffirmation of poetry historicism and humanity as the best chance for the human species to develop and for individuals to perfect themselves In these lectures Paul Bov mounts a persuasive and moving defense of historical humanism against the pressures of authoritarian politics and their unwitting allies in academia on both left and right In our post 9 11 world he reminds us of the ethical responsibility critics owe to history and to the human and of the power of poetry against torture A timely meditation for the present on the heritage and significance of criticism Wlad Godzich professor of General and Comparative Literature and Critical Studies University of California Santa Cruz Poetry against Torture is a tour de force of the mind from one of the great critical thinkers of our times A work of extraordinary erudition it represents criticism at its most ambitious and most responsible In its call for a radical return to an understanding of poesis as the fashioning of the human it makes available anew old resources of intellect and affect in the struggle against the forms of barbarism that seem to rise repeatedly from within bourgeois civilization It will refresh our understanding of such seminal figures as Vico Mill Empson Foucault and Said Aamir Mufti associate professor of Comparative Literature UCLA and author of Enlightenment in the Colony The Jewish Question and the Crisis of Postcolonial Culture , Complete Poems D. Myth and the Sacred in the Poetry of Guillevic Stella Harvey, 2023-11-20 The sacred occupies a central place in the poetry of Guillevic who described himself as a mat rialiste religieux This study informed by anthropological and psychoanalytical thought examines the evolution of this aspect of his oeuvre from Terraqu 1942 through to the poet s last works and focuses in particular on the relation between the sacred and the mother figure A semiotic approach is used for close textual analysis of key poems Guillevic s poetic endeavour is conceived as an archaeological quest whereby the presence of the archaic within the domain of the real is disclosed and mythical patterns emerge The re enactment of the cosmogony the performance of ritual and the process of mourning all crucial to poetic creativity itself are identified as motivating forces through which the poet seeks reparation of the mother This study will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to teachers of French literature and will provide a useful introduction to those who may be unfamiliar with the unique voice of this major 20th century poet

Materiality and Devotion in the Poetry of George Herbert Francesca Cioni, 2023-12-12 George Herbert his contemporaries and readers inhabited a world of material things that were spiritually animated but deeply troubling Habitual providential and typological interpretation imbued matter with meaning and connected it with the rest of Creation using material things was an act of interpretation devotion an act of habitual reading Materialist philosophies rejected distinctions between body and soul injunctions to continuous prayer made every place and every bodily motion a potential house of and vehicle for prayer At the same time Protestant doctrine and Church of England policy expressed in sermons visitation articles and works of theology as well as devotional manuals prayer books and even physiologies and biographies policed the ways and conditions in which material things bodies and spaces might be properly used in devotion Herbert s Temple is built read and used in this world of continual textual and material reading By a close reading of The Temple this book explores how Herbert and his readers understood experienced and used material objects in devotion The Temple is an edifice built of paper and ink of Biblical allusion and of analogy to both physical churches and spiritual communities of believers a material and spiritual literal and figurative construction In his verse Herbert plays with the boundaries between material and spiritual presence and between literal and figurative signification in its devotional poetics material and spiritual meanings inform one another and its readers devotional lives Materiality and Devotion in the Poetry of George Herbert focuses in turn on three of the most significant kinds of material things seventeenth century English believers encountered in devotion their bodies church buildings and books Ten Poems to Change Your Life Roger Housden, 2001-06-26 Great poetry calls into question everything It dares us to break free from the safe strategies of the cautious mind It opens us to pain and joy and delight It amazes startles pierces and transforms us It can lead to communion and grace Through the voices of ten inspiring poets and his own reflections the author of Sacred America shows how poetry illuminates the eternal feelings and desires that stir the human heart and soul These poems explore such universal themes as the awakening of wonder the longing for love the wisdom of dreams and the courage required to live an authentic life In thoughtful commentary on each work Housden offers glimpses into his personal spiritual journey and invites readers to contemplate the significance of the poet's message in their own lives In Ten Poems to Change Your Life Roger Housden shows how these astonishing poems can inspire you to live what you always knew in your bones but never had the words for The Journey by Mary Oliver Last Night as I Was Sleeping by Antonio Machado Song of Myself by Walt Whitman Zero Circle by Rumi The Time Before Death by Kabir Ode to My Socks by Pablo Neruda Last Gods by Galway Kinnell For the Anniversary of My Death by W S Merwin Love After Love by Derek Walcott The Dark Night by St John of the Cross Poetry and Exegesis in Premodern Latin Christianity Willemien Otten, Karla Pollmann, 2007 This volume presents a broad variety of specifically Christian approaches to poetry and analyses modes of interpreting the Bible that are new in poetry compared with prose exegesis Both theoretical statements on poetry by Christians and concrete poetic works from roughly 300 to 1250 AD are taken into account Passionate Intelligence: The Poetry of Geoffrey Hill E.M. Knottenbelt, 2022-07-18 Poetry and Politics in the Age of Augustus Anthony John Woodman, Tony J. Woodman, David West, 1984-04-26 Dirae - A Poem from the Appendix Vergiliana Boris Kayachev, 2024-12-31 The Dirae is a curse uttered in bucolic hexameters by an Italian farmer against his former estate confiscated to enable the settlement of Caesarian veterans in the aftermath of the battle of Philippi this commentary is the first work in eighty years to offer a systematic exploration of the poem within the literary and historical context of the Late Republic At the heart of the volume is a freshly edited Latin text based on a thorough reappraisal of manuscript evidence and earlier textual scholarship which in particular aims to restore the poem's stanzaic organisation gravely distorted in the course of transmission Besides providing an account of the manuscripts and an overview of the poem's structure and contents the introduction discusses at length the Dirae's engagement with other poetic texts and traditions first of all with its sibling the Lydia but also crucially with Greek bucolic before considering its reception in Virgil's Eclogues and later Augustan poetry it sheds new light too on the Dirae's links with Hellenistic curse poetry and with the ritual tradition of inscribed curses Endorsing a composition period shortly after the poem's dramatic date spring/summer of 41 BC and tentatively reviving the old attribution to Valerius Cato the introduction also explores the Dirae's engagement with the political events and narratives of one of the most dramatic moments of Roman history The line by line commentary provides exegesis of the poem's textual linguistic literary and historical aspects with the English translation offering a further point of orientation
