

With this second volume,

the long poem-sequence Hunger Weather 1959-1975 is brought to completion. These books glow, ring, dance, thunder, belch, chatter & scream about rivers, hippies, nature, women, gods, animals & hearts. The material is lovingly, skillfully, distastefully, sometimes painfully worked through a multitude of forms & frequencies — short, soft pieces. Complex blue symbolism. Then a rock lyric opens a different door. A dream poem reappears. A mantram. Diversity becomes a passage through the many rites of poetry, the many voices of the poem, the conflagration of a human life.

"Beautiful...and very real"

Anita Nin on the title poem

"Delicious reading...a pop rock epic"

Bruce Laury on Part III

"Caliban is one of his more reflective moments"

Julian Jerome on the Gorybear poems

Hand-set, printed with movable type on recycled paper,
