Kid Coach:

My Kids Play Hockey Christie Casciano Burns, 2018-08-07 For the past several years veteran hockey mom Christie Casciano's monthly Hockey Mom columns have been required reading for the half million readers of USA Hockey Magazine. Drawing on her twenty years in the youth hockey trenches she brings a wit and wisdom that comes with spending countless hours in the rink. Mixing in a little cutting humor and some good old fashioned motherly advice her articles speak to and for grizzled veterans and newcomers to the sport alike. My Kids Play Hockey is a compilation of Christie's work. Some of her topics include Back to School Back to Hockey Getting Ready for a Fresh Season How to Act Like an Adult at a Youth Hockey Game Organizing Your Hockey Household Valuable Lessons Learned during a Losing Season Striking a Balance between being Coach and a Parent Whether your kid shoots a puck kicks a soccer ball or swings a baseball bat Christie's sound and sage advice should be required reading for all sports parents. Because when it comes to keeping your head in the game this mother definitely knows best.

The Kid Coach Fred Bowen, 1996-01 When they lose their coach Scott and his teammates decide that he should try his hand at coaching but it takes teamwork and the efforts of a player they call Brain to produce a winning season. James F. Hunt, 2012-07 Providence and hard work is a journey back to the golden era of the fifties as seen through the eyes of Caleb Morgan a strikingly handsome poor farm boy from rural Mississippi. Caleb arrived at the exclusive Marston College in 1955 driving a '23 Model T pickup. He soon became the brunt of everyone's jokes appearing somewhat slow because of his deep southern drawl and naivety. Caleb's dream was to play football at Marston College although he had never played before and become a teacher. He soon fell in love with the campus beauty however she wore an engagement ring and a mysterious air of sadness. Caleb secures employment at the local country club tries out for football and begins classes making a fool of himself at every turn. Ready to forsake his dreams and return to the cotton fields after becoming the victim of a cruel prank that nearly cost his roommate's life Caleb gains the attention of Dr. Marston the most affluent man in Mississippi and owner of the prestigious country club where Caleb works. Dr. Marston is so impressed with Caleb's humility and integrity that he takes Caleb under his wing and begins making secret plans for Caleb's future. Caleb's fortune began to change after that day and in time the campus goat became the campus Golden Boy. The education he receives is a far cry from the one he expected. With its wry humor and endearing characters Providence and Hard Work will tug at your heart strings.
