in order to address pressing questions both about the nature of contemporary generational divisions as well as the complex ways in which members of different generations are and can be involved in each other's lives. These questions include how do particular kinds of spaces and spatial arrangements e.g. cities, neighbourhoods, institutions, leisure sites facilitate and limit intergenerational contact and encounters? What processes and spaces influence the intergenerational negotiation and contestation of values, beliefs and social memory producing patterns of both continuity and change? And if generational separation and segregation are in fact significant social problems across a range of contexts, as a significant body of research and commentary attests, how can this be ameliorated? The chapters in this collection make original contributions to these debates drawing on original research from Belgium, China, Finland, Poland, Senegal, Singapore, Tanzania, Uganda, the United States and the United Kingdom.

Are you ready for the next level?" Quotes and Reviews Tyrese wholeheartedly shares his life experiences and how he discovered a new road map of conscious compassion and love to define his true potential. I've watched him fail. I've seen him as a beneficiary of serendipity and I've watched him suffer at his own hand. And in the recent years, as we've become friends, I've witnessed Tyrese Gibson learn how to get out of his own way as he wrestled his destiny from the fickle hands of fate." Will Smith

Americans and comedy It was one of the most reliable jokes in Charlie Hill's stand up routine My people are from Wisconsin We used to be from New York We had a little real estate problem In We Had a Little Real Estate Problem acclaimed comedy historian Kliph Nesteroff focuses on one of comedy's most significant and little known stories how despite having been denied representation in the entertainment industry Native Americans have influenced and advanced the art form The account begins in the late 1880s when Native Americans were forced to tour in wild west shows as an alternative to prison One modern comedian said it was as if a Guantanamo detainee suddenly had to appear on X Factor This is followed by a detailed look at the life and work of seminal figures such as Cherokee humorist Will Rogers and Hill who in the 1970s was the first Native American comedian to appear on The Tonight Show Also profiled are several contemporary comedians including Jonny Roberts a social worker from the Red Lake Nation who drives five hours to the closest comedy club to pursue his stand up dreams Kiowa Apache comic Adrienne Chalepah who formed the touring group the Native Ladies of Comedy and the 1491s a sketch troupe whose satire is smashing stereotypes to critical acclaim As Ryan Red Corn the Osage member of the 1491s says The American narrative dictates that Indians are supposed to be sad It's not really true and it's not indicative of the community experience itself Laughter and joy is very much a part of Native culture Featuring dozens of original interviews and the exhaustive research that is Nesteroff's trademark We Had a Little Real Estate Problem is a powerful tribute to a neglected legacy
