Valerie Steele

Klimt Die Mode:

Vienna Tag Gronberg, 2007 In Vienna at the turn of the twentieth century the question of what it meant to be modern was a heated topic of debate Focusing on interior design fashion and photography as well as on painting and architecture this study casts fresh light on the vital role of the arts in these debates The new art and literature was crucial in defining a distinctive Viennese modernity while at the same time challenging preconceptions about modern urban life Many artists and writers produced work that questioned and undermined oppositions between city and country interior spaces and panoramic views masculinity and femininity Issues of gender and the representation of the body were particularly important in establishing professional identities for some of Vienna's most prominent figures including the Secessionist painters Gustav Klimt and Carl Moll designers such as Adolf Loos and Emilie Flöge as well as the poet and feuilletonist Peter Altenberg Intellectual life in turn of the century Vienna has often been characterised as a retreat from the public sphere This book demonstrates how even in its ostensibly most private manifestations Viennese Modernism involved a highly performative set of practices aimed at an international audience

Reforming Women's Fashion, 1850-1920 Patricia A. Cunningham, 2003 This work focuses on the efforts toward reforming women's dress that took place in Europe and America in the latter half of the 18th century and the first decade of the 20th century and the types of garments adopted by women to overcome the challenges posed by fashionable dress It considers the many advocates for reform and examines their motives their arguments for change and how they promoted improvements in women's fashion Though there was no single overarching dress reform movement it reveals similarities among the arguments posed by diverse groups of reformers including especially the equation of reform with an ideal image of improved health Drawing on a variety of primary and secondary sources in the USA and Europe including the popular press advice books for women allopathic and alternative medical literature and books on aesthetics art health and physical education the text makes a significant contribution to costume studies social history and women's studies

BOOK JACKET The Cinema of Raúl Ruiz Michael Goddard, 2013-09-22 Raúl Ruiz while considered one of the world's most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz's cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations

Textil und Kleidung als Materialien in der Kunst: Kulturhistorischer Überblick und Ideen für den Textil- und Kunstunterricht Christiane Braun, 2012-06 Anfang des 20. Jahrhunderts begann in der Kunst eine immer größer und stärker werdende Annäherung an das Leben in der auch neue unbekannte Materialien ihre Berechtigung fanden Edgar Degas legte den Grundstein dafür dass im Laufe des Jahrhunderts viele Künstler von den klassischen Werkstoffen wie Bronze Stein Marmor oder Holz zurücktraten und sich bisher ungewöhnlicher textiler Materialien bedienten Die Einführung dieser Materialien verlangte vom Künstler und Betrachter eine neue Einstellung zum Kunstwerk Es wurde vergänglich und stand so dem Leben näher Dieses Buch gibt einen kulturhistorischen Überblick des 20. Jahrhunderts bei dem diejenigen Stile und Künstler vorgestellt werden die Textilien oder Kleidung in ihrer Arbeit verwendeten Dazu zählen beispielsweise aus der ersten Hälfte des Jahrhunderts Claes Oldenburg Künstler der Wiener Werkstätten die Futuristen die russischen Konstruktivisten Sonia Delaunay die Dadisten und Surrealisten Die Betrachtung der zweiten Hälfte des 20. Jahrhunderts nimmt Arbeiten von Andy Warhol Yoko Ono Joseph Beuys Franz Erhard Walter und Rosemarie Trockel genauer in den Blickpunkt Der didaktische zweite Hauptteil dieses Buches behandelt die aktuelle Situation im Kunst und Textilunterricht eher kritisch und versucht an neuen Impulsen und Ideen für den Unterricht in Kunst und Textil anzuknüpfen Denn unzeitgemäße Unterrichtskonzepte die auf die schlichte Vermittlung von Handarbeitstechniken abzielen sind nicht mehr tragbar Textiles ist und kann viel mehr sein

Objects, Audiences, and Literatures Carma Gorman, David Raizman, 2009-03-26 In Objects Audiences and Literatures Alternative Narratives in the History of Design five art historians tap a variety of unexpected literary sources to reveal the dynamic relationship between intention and reception in architecture interior design costume and the decorative arts The essays consider both handcrafted and serially produced objects from the eighteenth to the mid twentieth centuries including a japanned high chest from colonial Boston German and Austrian Artistic Dress Tiffany lamps the architecture of the 1925 Exposition Internationale des Arts Décoratifs et Industriels in Paris and the dream homes portrayed in two popular postwar American films The five chapters demonstrate that a complex and even contradictory mixture of stakeholders determines the meanings of designed objects Each author examines popular forms of literature in order to reveal the preconceptions that viewers brought with them to the experience of looking at and using objects The authors attentiveness to viewers class and gender provides a methodological model for approaching the study of reception within the field of design history Objects Audiences and Literatures introduces a new generation of historians of design and decorative arts with five superb case studies Looking beyond the laconic historical data that has formed the backbone of scholarship in this field these authors plumb popular culture films advertisements and especially novels to understand contemporaneous meanings of objects Using these polyglot sources with an eye particularly on narrative and gender they suss out heretofore unnoticed dissonances between the prescriptive pronouncements of avant garde insiders and the reception that design innovation found in broader publics These wide ranging essays are marked by imagination exuberance and acuity I look forward to using it in my teaching Margaretta M Lovell University of California Berkeley This is a welcome addition to the literature that addresses the growing scholarly and popular interest in design and design history Drawing on an impressive array of examples the authors explore how class gender and cultural context shaped the reception of architecture interior design costume and the decorative arts at various moments in the modern era The collection is noteworthy for the way each of the contributors draws upon literary sources for insights into design and material culture that transcend the specific examples under review Models of methodological rigor these essays should appeal to scholars in multiple disciplines Dennis P Doordan University of Notre Dame Modernism à la Mode Elizabeth M. Sheehan, 2018-10-15 Modernism la Mode argues that fashion describes why and how literary modernism matters in its own historical moment and ours Bringing together texts textiles and theories of dress Elizabeth Sheehan shows that writers including Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence W E B Du Bois Nella Larsen and F Scott Fitzgerald turned to fashion to understand what their own stylized works could do in the context of global capital systemic violence and social transformation Modernists engage with fashion as a mood a set of material objects and a target of critique and in doing so anticipate and address contemporary debates centered on the uses of literature and literary criticism amidst the supposed crisis in the humanities A modernist affect with a purpose no less By engaging modernism la mode that is contingently contextually and in light of contemporary concerns this book offers an alternative to the often untenable distinctions between strong or weak suspicious or reparative and politically activist or quietist approaches to literature which frame current debates about literary methodology As fashion helps us to describe what modernist texts do it enables us to do more with modernism as a form of inquiry perception and critique Fashion and modernism are interwoven forms of inquiry perception and critique writes Sheehan It is fashion that puts the work of early twentieth century writers in conversation with twenty first century theories of emotion materiality animality beauty and history
