Litaker, 2023-10-03 Winner of the Sixteenth Century Society Gerald Strauss Book Award Shortlisted for the Ecclesiastical History Society Book Award The defense of the cult of saints and relics was an essential element of the Catholic Counter Reformation in Europe Facing attacks from Protestant denominations of all kinds the Roman church redoubled its efforts to promote the veneration of its holy figures and to house their earthly remains in dramatic style Bedazzled Saints chronicles the transfer distribution and display of nearly four hundred holy bodies of ancient Christian martyrs some of the church's most prestigious relics sent from the Roman catacombs to the Electorate of Bavaria between 1590 and 1803 Local communities both religious and secular broke with medieval tradition and spent immense amounts of time and money to fuse incomplete skeletons into lavishly decorated whole body saints By examining these ornamented skeletons painstakingly enhanced with jewels and fine clothing and still on display atop church altars to this day Noria Litaker elucidates the interplay between local religious practice and universal church doctrine shedding new light on the negotiated nature of sanctity in early modern Catholicism In so doing she challenges the dominant narrative of the Bavarian Catholic Reformation as a top down process and provides new insights into the role relics and their innovative presentation played in the development of Catholic identity in early modern German lands

Christian Pilgrimage in Modern Western Europe Mary Lee Nolan,Sidney Nolan,2018-06-15 Christian Pilgrimage in Modern Western Europe is a commanding exploration of the importance of religious shrines in modern Roman Catholicism By analyzing more than 6 000 active shrines and contemporary patterns of pilgrimage to them the authors establish the cultural significance of a religious tradition that today touches the lives of millions of people Roman Catholic pilgrimage sites in Western Europe range from obscure chapels and holy wells that draw visitors only from their immediate vicinity to the world famous often thronged shrines at Rome Lourdes and Fatima These shrines generate at least 70 million religiously motivated visits each year with total annual visitation exceeding 100 million Substantial numbers of pilgrims at major shrines come from the Americas and other areas outside Western Europe Mary Lee Nolan and Sidney Nolan describe and interpret the dimensions of Western European pilgrimage in time and space a cultural geographic approach that reveals regional variations in types of shrines and pilgrimages in the sixteen countries of Western Europe They examine numerous legends and historical accounts associated with cult images and shrines showing how these reflect ideas about humanity divinity and environment The Nolans demonstrate that the dynamic fluctuations in Christian pilgrimage activities over the past 2 000 years reflect socioeconomic changes and technological transformations as well as shifting intellectual orientations Increases and decreases in the number of shrines established coincide with major turning points in European history for pilgrimage no less than wars revolutions and the advent of urban industrial society is an integral part of that history Pilgrimage traditions have been influenced by and have influenced science literature philosophy and the arts Christian Pilgrimage in Modern Western Europe is based on ten years of research The Nolans collected information on 6 150 shrines from published material correspondence with bishops and shrine administrators and interviews They visited 852 Western European shrines in person Their book will be of interest to many general readers and of special value to historians cultural geographers students of comparative religion anthropologists social psychologists and shrine administrators
