Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1950 The WTO and International Investment Law Jürgen Kurtz, 2016-01-25 International law has historically regulated foreign trade and foreign investment differently Distinct evolutionary pathways have led to variances in treaty form institutional culture and dispute settlement With their inevitable erosion through the late twentieth to early twenty first centuries those weak boundaries have become porous and indefensible Powerful economic legal and sociological factors are now pushing the two systems together In this book J rgen Kurtz systematically explores the often complex and little understood dynamics of this convergence phenomenon Kurtz addresses the growing connections between international trade and investment law proposing a theoretically grounded and doctrinally tractable framework to understand the deepening relationship between them The book also offers reform ideas and possibilities providing treaty negotiators and other government officials with a set of theoretical insights and doctrinal models that can guide actors in building a justifiable and sustainable level of commonality between the two legal systems

National Security Review of Foreign Investment Cheng Bian,2020-03-19 In recent years China the US and the EU and its Member States have either promulgated new national laws and regulations or drastically revised existing ones to exert more rigorous government control over inward foreign direct investment FDI Such government control pertains to the establishment of an ex ante review regime of FDI in the host state in sectors that are considered as sensitive or strategic with an aim to mitigate the security related implications This book conducts a systematic and up to date comparative study of the national security review regimes of China the US and the EU using Germany as an exemplifying Member State It answers a central research question of how domestic law should be formulated to adequately protect national security of the host state whilst posing minimum negative impacts to the free flow of cross border investment In addition to analyzing the latest development of the national security review regimes in aforementioned jurisdictions and identifying their commonalities and disparities this book establishes a normative framework regarding the design of a national security review regime in general and proposes specific legislative recommendations to further clarify the law This book will be of interest to scholars in the field of international and comparative investment law investors who seek better compliance programs in the host state and policymakers who aim for high quality regulation on foreign investment

The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science ,1921 Capital Mobility in Asia Juthathip Jongwanich,2018-02-14 Ever since the East Asian financial crisis it has been recognized that emerging market economies are vulnerable to both excessive inflows of capital and sudden outflows This book presents new research on the determinants and effects of capital flows as well as the effectiveness of capital control policies in dealing with volatile capital flows in emerging Asian countries It examine three issues related to capital movements in Asia 1 the key factors determining such mobility 2 the impact of capital movements in a home country especially on real exchange rates and 3 the effectiveness of capital account policies

International Investment Law and Arbitration C. L. Lim,Jean Ho,Martins Paparinskis,2021-03-11 A new edition connecting extracts from arbitral decisions treaties and scholarly works with concise up to date and reliable commentary International Management Peter Stanwick, Sarah Stanwick, 2020-01-31 International Management A Stakeholder Approach applies a practical engaging and real time approach to the evolving topics related to International Management In thirteen chapters the authors discuss the complexities managers must address when making decisions in a global marketplace including the complexity of globalization the external global environment ethics and social responsibility culture communication entry strategies global strategies management decision making motivation leadership and organizational change and human resources The Future of Foreign Direct Investment and the Multinational Enterprise Ravi Ramamurti, Niron Hashai, 2011-04-27 This Festschrift in honour of Professor Yair Aharoni a pioneer in the field of international business looks at several of these new trends in FDI what they will mean for firms and governments and the opportunities created by these developments to enrich or extend extant theory Multilateral Regulation of Investment E. Nieuwenhuys, M. M. T. A. Brus, 2001-06-13 In the wake of the notable failure of the OECD draft Multilateral Agreement on Investment MAI it has become clear that any attempt to regulate investment at the global level must pay serious attention to the position of developing countries This remarkable collection of essays sheds penetrating light on this and other legal political and economic issues affecting the intense international debate on this important subject The result of a symposium sponsored in April 1999 by the E M Meijers Institute of Legal Studies at Leiden University Multilateral Regulation of Investment presents the incisive views of nine outstanding authorities both academics and practitioners in disciplines related to investment and development Among the essential criteria proposed for a successful global regulatory framework for investment are the following involvement at the national level of all sectors of the economy in drafting a national position involvement from the start of multilateral negotiations of both developing and developed countries transparency of negotiations balance between investment protection and the right to regulate and respect for core labour standards and human rights The authors agree in seeing the objectives of the multilateral regulation of investment both direct and portfolio as not only reducing risk but also enhancing trust between investors and states as host states must be sure that foreign investors will genuinely contribute to sustainable development and the well being of their populations
