Continuing Education for Change Charles E. Engel, Josef Vysohlid, Victor A. Vodoratski, 1990 It was in 1987 that the Regional Office carried out 10 case studies in several European countries to investigate new approaches to the continuing education of health personnel and practices in that field Ways and means were identified to develop systems and programmes of continuing educations that would take into account changing national needs and health for all policies and lay emphasis on primary health care These case studies and a further 19 country reports form an important part of this publication They show that if continuing education is to be used as an instrument for change the attitudes and methods prevalent in the field today must be changed
